The word 'stylus' originally meant a writing instrument tapering to a sharp wedge-shaped point that was used in cuneiform writing. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica the stylus was first used by early Persians and Babylonians, and the cuneiform inscriptions it made were "distinguished by the use of the characters made up of triangles or wedge-shaped incisions."
Through the ages the term 'stylus' has been applied to many things, but to most Glendalites it simply means—their notebook. Using an adaptation of the characters formed by the stylus of the Ancients, we present a record of this past year's events and activities in the 45th edition of our Stylus.

They

THEY are the students at Glendale, and what is Glendale? Not a mere building, but an exchange of ideas, a training camp for the future, alive and pulsating with the aspirations of the people invading its campus, this is Glendale and these are the students who have come to learn. Some walk and some ride in chariots of more modern vintage than those of the early Babylonians, but their studies and goals, while more complex, are still very much the same as those of their predecessors.

THE STUDENTS THRONING to Glendale found principals, counselors, and student body officers, all co-ordinated by the Board of Education to provide authority for running Glendale efficiently. They met many people who inspired them to face and overcome any obstacles on their way to graduation. The end of this term brings the retirement of several of these advisors. One of them, Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, girls' vice-principal, was honored at a surprise party given by the Girls' League Board, which she sponsors.

THEY SELDOM ACTUALLY MEET

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

BUT DAILY
THEY ENCOUNTER
ITS AUTHORITY

CHARGED WITH directly carrying out Board policy are Mr. M. A. Hesse, business manager; Mrs. Mildred E. Hall, in charge of curriculum, and Mr. Kenneth M. Montgomery, deputy superintendent in charge of personnel.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION of the Glendale Unified School District is in charge of twenty-nine schools drawing students from the Montrose and La Crescenta areas as well as from Glendale proper. The Board is responsible for financing the school program, supervising the curriculum, hiring all teaching personnel, and building maintenance.

CONFERRING ON a problem facing Glendale High School are Dr. James H. Williams, superintendent of schools, and Mr. Donald T. Golder, principal of Glendale High.

BOARD MEMBERS are: Mrs. Donald R. Williams, secretary; Mrs. Reid L. Beers, Mr. Fred P. Simpson, Mr. Scott T. MacDonald, president, and Mr. Benjamin O. Hagen, vice-president.

TALKING WITH MRS. McDONALD'S 5TH PERIOD world history class is Mr. Golder, who makes a practice of speaking to every Sophomore class soon after school commences.

THEY FIND THEIR

PRINCIPAL THE NUCLEUS

OF GLENDALE'S AUTHORITY

RESPONSIBLE not only to the students and their parents, but also to the Glendale Board of Education is G.H.S. principal Donald Golder. Mr. Golder is well known to all Nitros as he attends a large number of school functions and activities, including banquets, recitals, ball games, and plays. Meeting and mixing with many students helps Mr. Golder to become aware of the needs and desires of the student body in general.

ALWAYS HELPFUL, Mr. Golder joins his wife, Laurel, in an "extra curricular" activity.

MR. GOLDER enters his office to begin a new day at Glendale High School.

AN ATHLETE IN HIS OWN RIGHT, Mr. Harry Beck as vice-principal in charge of student welfare, helps run Glendale's sports groups. Often known as boys' vice principal, Mr. Beck also supervises all extra curricular activities.

Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, vice-principal in charge of instruction, uses any excess energy left after performing her main duties by working closely with Girls' League as advisor. She is also very active in P.T.A. Mrs. Jackson is retiring after many years at Glendale High School, and will be missed by her many friends among the faculty and the student body.

"IS IT TOO SALTY?" asks Mrs. Jackson as she tests her domestic capabilities on her patient husband, Curtis.

"ONCE UPON A TIME . . ." Mr. Beck relaxes with his wife, Norma Jean, and three children, Susan, Karen, and Gary, after a busy day at G.H.S.

WATCHING DYNAMITERS on their way to classes are Mrs. Dorothy Jackson and Mr. Harry Beck.

THEY MEET THE

VICE-PRINCIPALS

WHO ADVISE IN STUDENT AFFAIRS

IN CHARGE OF disciplining the male members of the student body who violate school regulations, Mr. Gene Haas, boys' counselor, attempts to keep order and good will at Glendale.

COUNSELORS

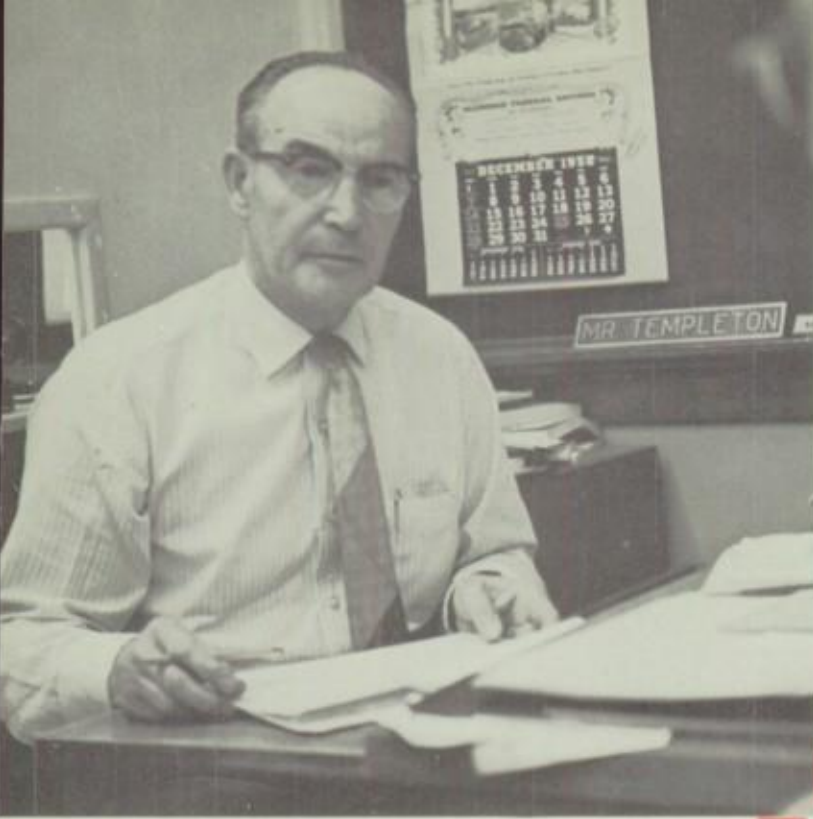

GIRLS' COUNSELOR, Mrs. Leona Newell helps diligent students continue their education by organizing and distributing scholarship grants.

THE COUNSELING STAFF guides students toward the best possible preparation for their futures by assisting them in choosing courses which will benefit them the most. Counselors help Glendaleites in deciding between college preparatory or vocational courses, according to the student's abilities and desires for further education.

MISS NYLA CHAPMAN, head counselor, keeps Glendale's counseling program running smoothly and makes certain that every student has at least one counseling appointment a year.

COUNSELORS ASSIST THEM IN VOCATIONAL AND ACADEMIC PLANNING

MR. FREELAND TEMPLETON chooses to do full time counseling while the rest of the counseling staff spends part of its time in the classroom.

CREATING COUNSELING LISTS for the new school year are counselors, Jack Parker, John Key, Phillip Castlin, Murray Grant, Alice McDonald and Georgia Woodard.

GLENDALITE, Pam Hunt seeks the friendly advice of her counselor, Mr. Frank Lauridsen.

CONFERRING OVER a weighty counseling problem are Hilda Jones, Naomi Blackburn, Ruth Starr and Robert Brickman.

ANY STUDENT who has missed even one day of school is familiar with Mrs. Mary Tye, attendance clerk; Mr. Andrews; and Mrs. Mabel Gansz, senior attendance clerk.

SUPERVISOR OF ATTENDANCE, Mr. Ted Andrews, is a respected man at G.H.S. as he is in charge of all absences and cuts.

ATTENDANCE OFFICE

WHERE THEIR RECORDS ARE KEPT

THE ATTENDANCE OFFICERS and the secretarial staff play a large part in the school life of a Glendale Dynamiter. Whether in the counseling office, attendance office or executive office, these people are always friendly and obliging, although at times, their jobs are not to be envied. These instances include the times when demerits must be marked down as the necessary consequences of tardiness, cuts, and other minor offenses.

HELPFUL AND FRIENDLY in a busy high school are the clerical personnel: Marcina Daniels, audio-visual; Catherine Tench, supplies; Ester Hawton and Lucille Clark, counseling; Clarice Newton, switch board; and Susie Keeler, recorder's office.

LAUGHING TOGETHER at an incident in one of Glendale's busy offices are Senior Secretary, Mrs. Emma Hubert; Mrs. Martha Bloomberg, clerk, and Mrs. Doris Lewis, recording clerk.

MAINTENANCE CREW

KEEPS THEIR CAMPUS FUNCTIONING

ARRIVING EARLY to prepare the school for the 8:30 rush of students, the maintenance staff works hard all day keeping Glendale clean and livable. Taking care of the buildings is only a part of their job, however, as the lawns, grounds and large field equipment are under their control. The staff is still at work after the students and teachers have left school, cleaning up after one day and getting ready for the next.

FAMILIAR FIGURES on campus are Carl C. Pope, head engineer, and Dorsey Merrill, head custodian.

CAFETERIA STAFF

PROVIDES SUSTENANCE AND RELAXATION

COMPOSING THE 1958-'59 CAFETERIA STAFF were, Row 1: Mrs. Freda E. Wilson, Mrs. Beverly Stanley, Mrs. Christine Falivena, Mrs. Rhoda G. Naud. Row 2: Mrs. Roma H. Nichols, Mrs. Helen M. Pommer, Mrs. Ruth M. Logsdon, Mrs. Estella A. Epperson, Mrs. Jane Atkinson, Mrs. Charlotte Lucier. Row 3: Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Evelyn C. Held, Mrs. Patricia E. Powell, Mrs. Margaret C. Snow, Mrs. Laurette M. Browillard, Mrs. Nellie E. Jackson, Mrs. Annie M. Young, Mrs. Lena M. Anderson, Mrs. Stella E. Ericsson, Mrs. Ethel L. Meyer.

TAKING A SHORT BREAK from their busy schedules are Mrs. Estella Epperson, manager, and Mrs. Charlotte Lucier, assistant.

"TOO MANY COOKS SPOIL THE BROTH." This old proverb is disproved by Glendale's cafeteria staff who supply hungry students with breakfasts, snacks, and lunches. These busy women also find time to prepare banquets for the various clubs and organizations.

PRESIDENT DENNIS CARHART bears the honors and trials of heading the student body first semester.

THEY ESTABLISHED THEIR OWN AUTHORITY

WATCHING THE STUDENT BODY at lunch, Mr. Wallace Rankin, Cabinet supervisor, and Nelson Rising, vice president of the student body may feel just pride in their contributions toward the smoothness with which the school is run.

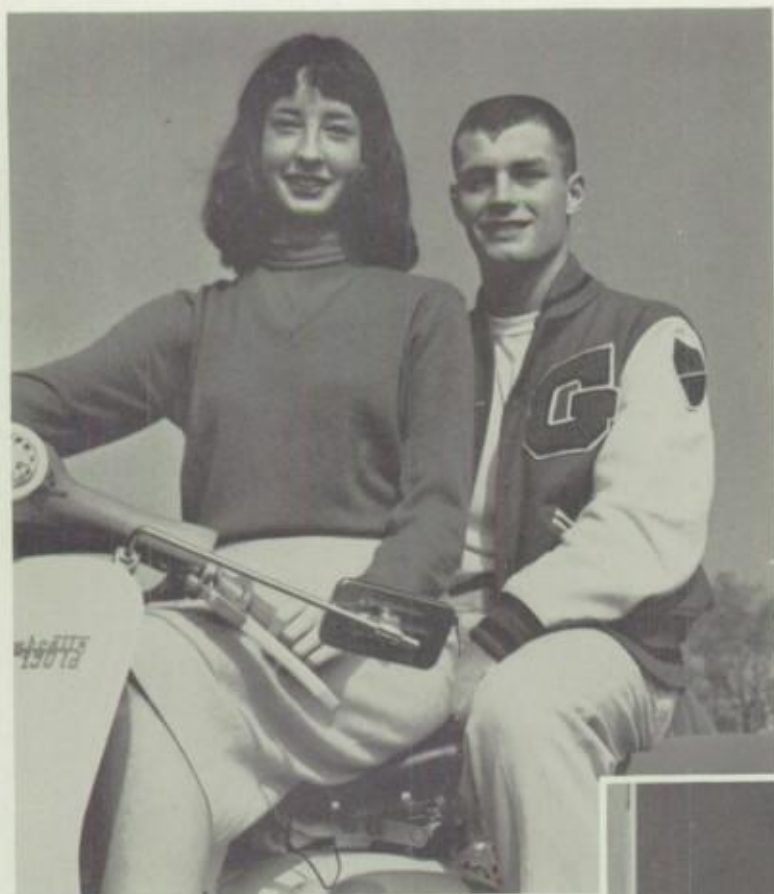

REPRESENTING THEIR RESPECTIVE CLASSES on Cabinet are class presidents Jim McElgunn, sophomore, Barry Bottrell, senior, and Roger Dalton, junior.

JOEL KOTIN, director of assemblies excitedly tells Julie Bradford, co-ordinator of organizations, and Gary Nelson, chairman of the Student Court, about a new assembly he has just previewed and intends to obtain for the school.

FIRST SEMESTER CABINET

AND THEY'RE OFF! Always in a hurry to do honor to their respective leagues were Kathi Waters and Bill Jencks, girls' and boys' league presidents.

ON THEIR WAY to build up Glendale spirit at a game are Head Song and Yell Leaders, Karen Risinger and Paul Beckett.

POSSIBLE SOURCES of revenue are debated by Sue Blackstone, secretary, and Carol Tench, director of finance.

CABINET for the first semester sponsored a number of events and activities for the Glendale Dynamiters. Among these were the Backwards Dance, the Bermuda Days, Beat Hoover Day, and a dance in the girls' gym after one of the football games. Other duties of the Cabinet included attendance at Foothill League forum meetings and the placing of the school budget in operation.

Contrary to popular belief, Cabinet is conducted much the same as other classes. Members learn parliamentary procedure and study the contents of the school constitution.

WORKING BEHIND THE SCENES to bring fame and notice to Glendale High were Janice Goodmoot, co-ordinator of speech arts; Kathy McFarland, director of publicity, and Deanne Crawford, coordinator of fine arts.

GLENDAL'S TROPHY CASE is admired by Robin Paulsen and Sandy Barondess, girls' and boys' athletics directors, with John Streetmaker, R.O.T.C. representative.

PROVING THAT CHIVALRY is very much alive at G.H.S. is Gary Nelson, student court chairman, as he comes to the assistance of Vicki Baughman, secretary.

WILLIAM TELL RIDES AGAIN as John Streetmaker, R.O.T.C. representative, Gail Seabury, director of girls' athletics, and John Whitney, director of boys' athletics, minus the apple on the head, take their stand in front of an archery target.

CABINET LEADERS Rickie Lipp, director of assemblies, Bob Hensler, vice-president, and Mr. Wallace Rankin, advisor, watch Glendalites arrive for first period classes.

STOP THIEF! Only making sure that the student body funds are secure are Roy Schmidt, director of publicity, and Dean Colvin, director of finance.

SECOND SEMESTER CABINET

FOLLOWING A PRECEDENT is never easy, but Glendale's second semester Cabinet managed to keep up the high standard of student government set by previous Cabinets. President Nelson Rising's Cabinet represented G.H.S. at the Foothill League conference and also attended the league forum meetings. They voted to appropriate money for the Nitroettes' costumes and at the end of the year sponsored another annual Book and Baggage Day.

KEEPING DYNAMITERS BUSY in extra curricular activities are Geebie Alisch, co-ordinator of fine arts; Janis Goodemoot, coordinator of speech arts; and Peter Rusch, coordinator of organizations.

A.S.B. PRESIDENT Nelson Rising represents Glendale at all school events and assemblies. His executive experience gained previously in the office of vice-president proved a valuable asset.

SMILING over the accomplishments of their classes during the past semester are class presidents, Barry Bottrell, senior; Jim McElgunn, sophomore, and Roger Dalton, junior.

LEAGUE PRESIDENTS Sharon Arendale and Darryl Wright seem to be looking for a solution to Glendale's parking problem.

THE VICTORY FLAG GOES UP once more as Brenda Robichaux, head song leader, and Dave Beckett, head yell leader anticipate another triumph for Glendale High.

CONGRESS MEMBERS

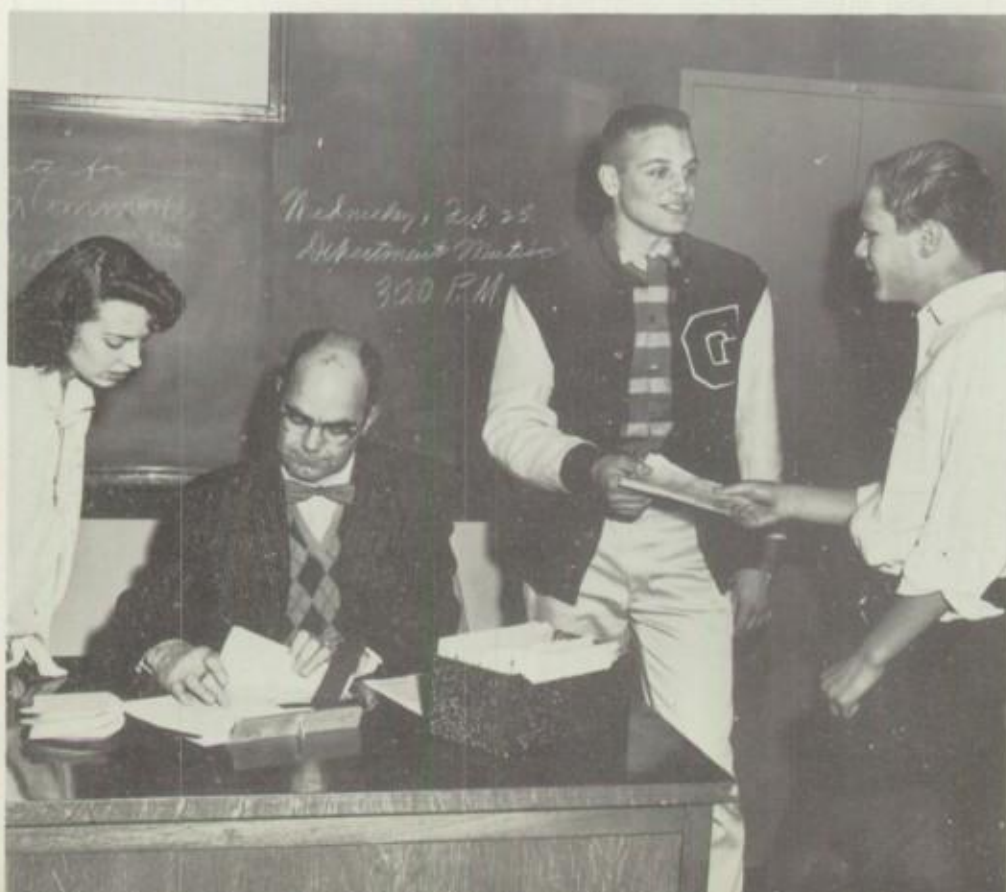

PRACTICE REPRESENTATIVE DEMOCRACY

THE CONGRESS, under the leadership of the Student Body Vice-President, promotes drives for the Red Cross, the March of Dimes and the Community Chest. Its members are also in charge of the American Field Service students and the preparation of Christmas boxes for the needy. During the second semester they supervise Stylus sales. Congress has the general legislative authority in its power and either passes or amends all measures presented by Cabinet.

FIRST SEMESTER VICE-PRESIDENT, Nelson Rising, points out an item in the minutes to Joel Miller, Congress speaker pro tem; Mrs. Jackson, advisor, and Peter Rusch, clerk.

STUDENT COURT

TRIES VIOLATORS OF SCHOOL RULES

THE JUDICIAL BRANCH of Glendale's student government, the Student Court, tries cases against the school code. A citation is given by a student or faculty member to the suspected offender, who must appear in court on a specified day. If found guilty he is fined by a loss of merits, which may restrict campus activity or in the Senior year prohibit graduation.

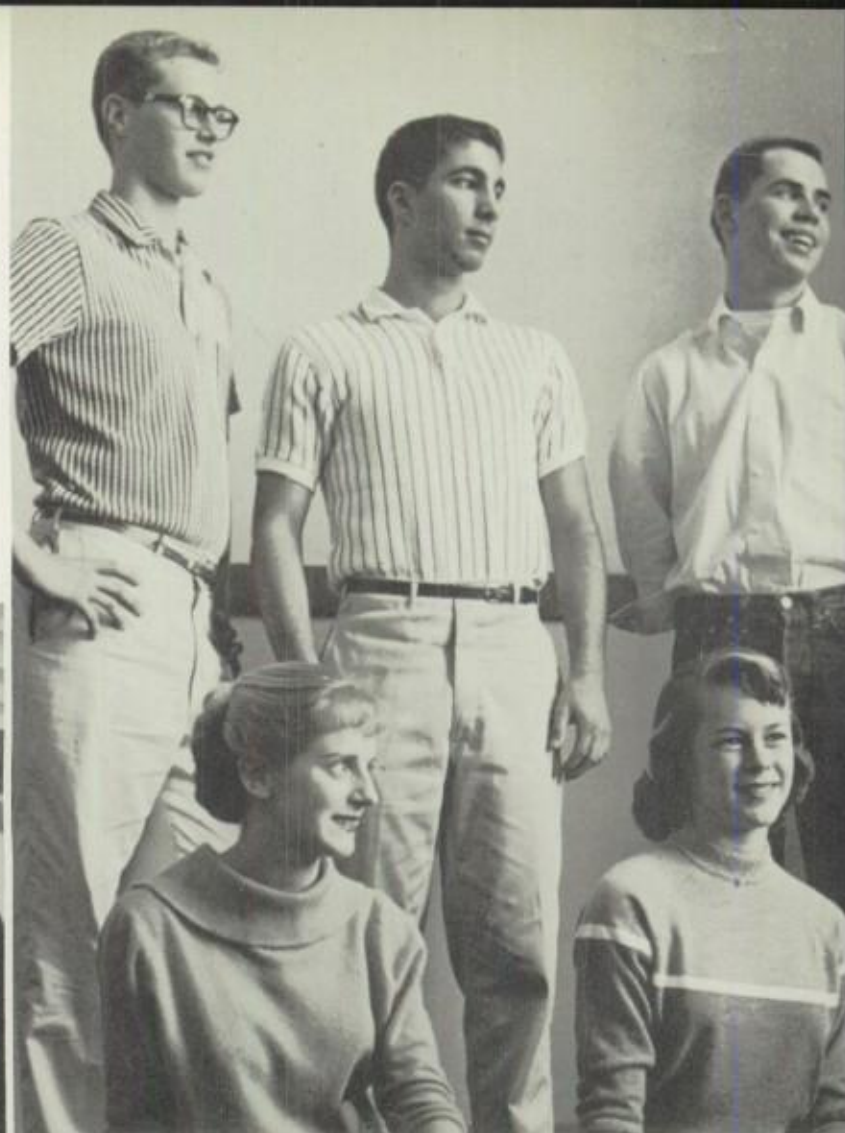

STUDENT COURT members are, seated: John Whitney, Melody Johnson, Gary Nelson, chairman, Pauline Mitton and Fred Port. Standing are Tom Elison and Barbara Thompson.

DYNAMITERS IN THE MAKING! Knowing that three years of fun and new experiences are ahead of them, these Sophomores lost no time in organizing their class. The Girls' Stunt Show and the Oratorical were the first events participated in by the class of 1961. Their next important undertaking was the Cotton 'n' Cord dance, traditionally sponsored by the Sophomore Class. Led by Jim McElgunn, the underclassmen made a real contribution to Glendale's spirit.

GUIDING THE CLASS OF 1961 through its first year of high school were Mr. Jack Parker, and Jim McElgunn, president.

THEIR COUNCILS SPONSOR CLASS PROJECTS

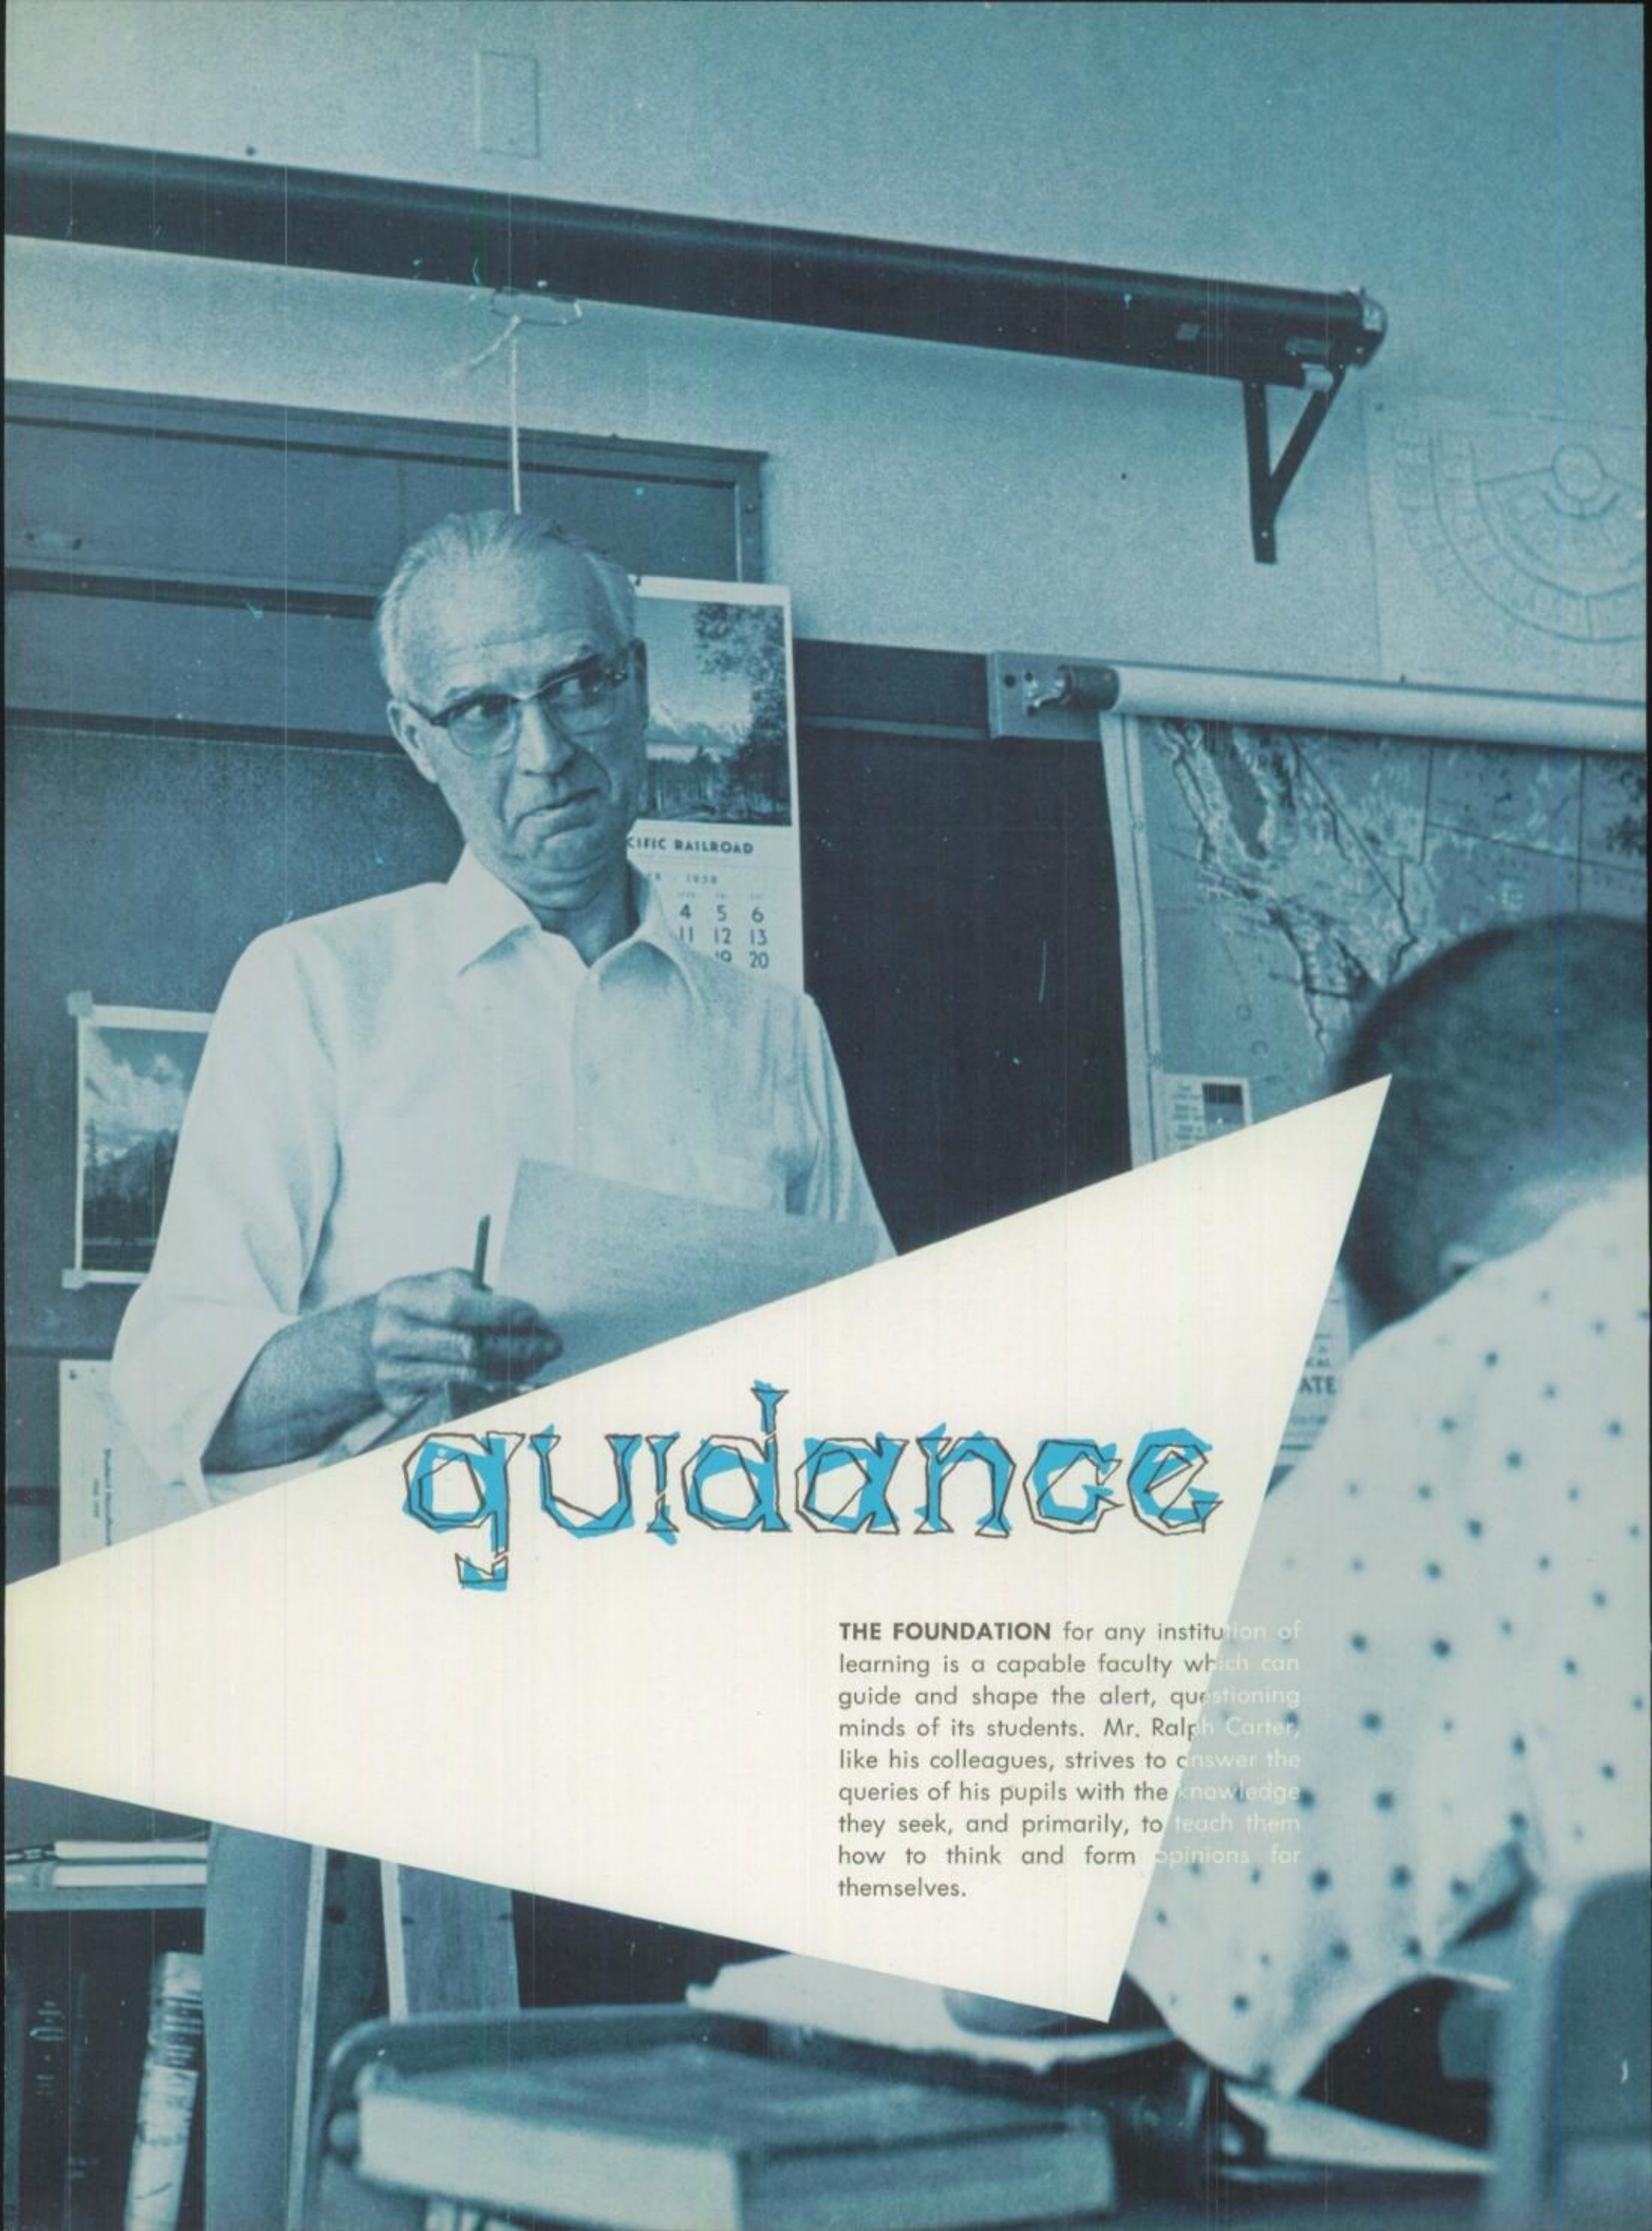

MAKING PLANS FOR THE JUNIOR PROM are Ron McVey, yell leader; Jill Parker, treasurer; Sheila Minkin, secretary, and Pauline Mitton, song leader.

JUNIOR COUNCIL

WINNING THE SPEECH division in the Oratorical gave the class of 1960 a good beginning for a successful Junior year. Next on the agenda was the annual Junior Prom, "Evening In Paris", followed by the money raising magazine sale. Tradition gives Juniors the job of decorating for the Senior Graduation, an activity which prepares them for their final and most important year at Glendale.

THE FOUNDATION for any institution of learning is a capable faculty which can guide and shape the alert, questioning minds of its students. Mr. Ralph Carter, like his colleagues, strives to answer the queries of his pupils with the knowledge they seek, and primarily, to teach them how to think and form opinions for themselves.

"HOW IS THIS problem solved?" Jim Davies, Bob Perry and Carolyn Daniels ask Mr. Buonaguidi in his third period Geometry class.

IN U. S. HISTORY Nancy Hooper, Sue Biaggi, and Ron McVey test each other on the geographic location of various places in their own country.

CONFERRING TOGETHER are Geebie Alisch and Larry Edwards about a composition they must present to their senior composition class.

ACADEMIC SUBJECTS

A FRAMEWORK FOR KNOWLEDGE

STUDENTS DISCOVERED that most of the courses offered at Glendale were either on the occupational side such as mechanical arts, journalism, drama, and music, or on the strictly academic, which includes foreign languages, mathematics, history, science and English. They found that the latter courses provided a framework of knowledge vital for their future, whether they were preparing for college or a career.

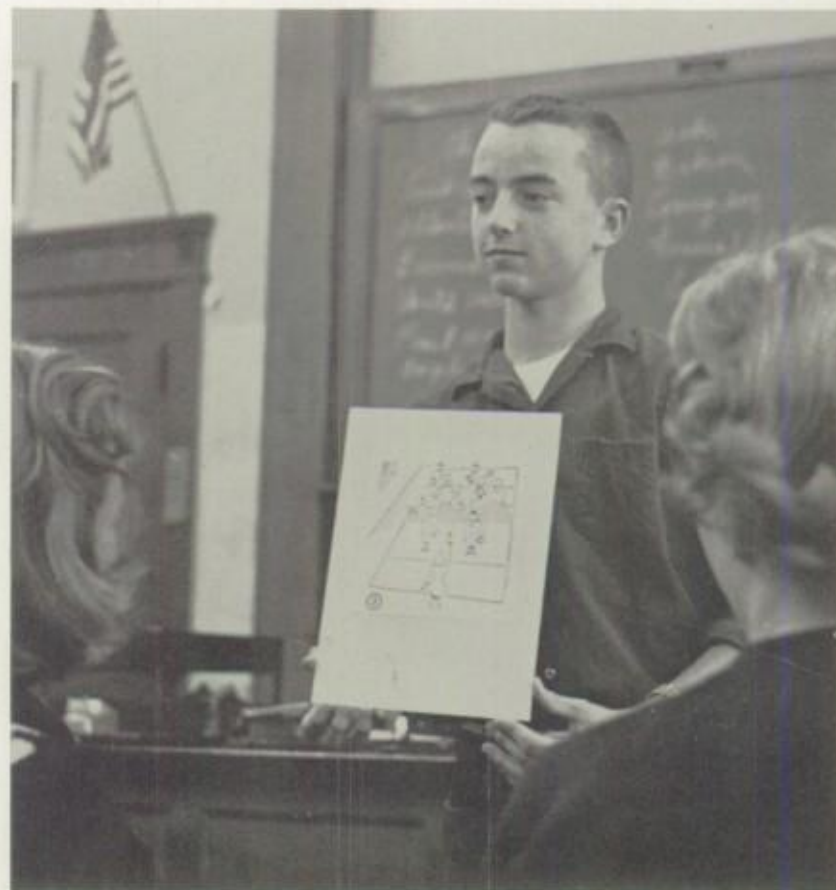

" Ca SO_3 —?" asks Miss Jennie Clauson, chemistry teacher, during a quick review for a test on end reactions and equilibrium.

A GLANCE AT THE ACADEMIC COURSES ▸ THE

DURING THE STUDY OF THE HELVETIANS and Caesar in Latin, Don Williams points out to Mrs. Charlotte Aseltine and his class the home of the Helvetians.

BARRY PRICE asks his World History class to identify this famous political cartoon.

ROOT OF THEIR CURRICULUM

A GUILLOTINE (miniature, of course) is shown by Miss Beatrice Morlian to her sophomore English class, which read A Tale of Two Cities.

FLASH CARDS aid Lee Ann Holden in drilling the French class on its vocabulary.

THE EQUILIBRIUM OF PITH BALLS is explained to Bill Marshall and Gary Glazier by Mr. George Bundick in Physics.

LOOKING OVER the selection of new books for student reading lists are Mr. Lawrence Weishart, Mr. Warren Johnson, Miss Barbara Canady, Mr. Louis Hill, Mr. William Ryan, Mr. Cecil Stephens, Mrs. Beatrice Morlian, Mrs. Ruth Carruth and Mr. Anthony Campana.

ENGLISH

BASIC LEARNING TOOLS

OF THE MANY outstanding courses offered by the English Department, perhaps the most unique is Modern Culture, taught by Mrs. Eckerson. This course, the only one of its kind at present in the United States, is open to seniors to familiarize them with the basic Arts. Other specialized classes in Composition and English Life and Literature are available electives to seniors, as well as English fundamentals, which is a requirement for juniors and sophomores.

Future journalists have a choice between Stylus and Explosion, while those interested in dramatics may take oral English, speech, or drama; however, oral English is the only one of these electives which may be substituted for regular English.

MR. FRED McCLURE AND MRS. EMILY LEDBETTER, Department Head, discuss a test in American Literature with student Carol Messmer.

PROBLEMS, PROBLEMS! Members of the English Department, Mr. Harry Francisco, Miss Mary O'Brien, Mrs. Shane Wilson, Mrs. Emily Ledbetter, Mrs. Hendrika Parker, Mrs. Louise Swedenborg, Mrs. Olive Eckerson, Mr. Arthur Bottaro, and Mr. Lawrence Fischer hold a small meeting to iron out the problems for the coming semester.

SPANISH TEACHERS, Mr. Glenn Henderson, Mr. David Gibson, Miss Naomi Beck, Mrs. Mabel Lambert, Mr. Gerald Gallagher, and Mr. Arthur Oosterveen, discuss plans for next year's students.

MRS. MABEL LAMBERT, department head, discusses the importance of a foreign language with Ed Dodds.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

FOR UNDERSTANDING AND COMMUNICATION

"HOY DÍA ES MÁS IMPORTANTE que nunca estudia las lenguas extranos"—nowadays it is more important than ever to study foreign languages. This is the motto of the foreign language department, which encourages all modern young students to study other languages, whether it be Latin, French, or Spanish. A foreign language brings to a student an insight on the life, literature, and customs of a foreign country.

USING THE TAPE RECORDER to record spoken French are Miss Sylvia Klasson and Mr. Glenn Henderson.

NEW BOOKS FOR LATIN SCHOLARS are selected by Mrs. Charlotte Aseltine and Mr. Gerald Gallagher, Latin teachers.

A FUTURE EINSTEIN may be training right now in Glendale's excellent mathematics department. Mr. Aido Buonaguidi, Mr. Carl Mathiesen, Mr. Thomas Drouet, and Mr. Arndt Tande look at a perfect test paper turned in to Mrs. Margaret Peterson.

MATHEMATICS

TEACHES THEM LOGICAL THINKING

CHECKING OVER ORDERS for new Trigonometry books are Mr. Arndt Tande, department head, and Miss Marion Snyder.

THERE SEEMS TO BE SOME QUESTION over the formula for finding the area of a scalene triangle, but Mr. Elton Smith, Mrs. Grace House, and Mr. D. Reichner will find the answer.

SCIENCE

A CHALLENGE FOR THEIR INQUISITIVE
MINDS

DISSECTIONS, experiments, laboratory work, lab sheets, and work books are familiar to science students who widen their knowledge of nature through first hand experience. Chemistry, physics, biology, and physiology, are offered for those taking a college prep course. For students not going on to college, who need an extra elective, life science and physical science are offered.

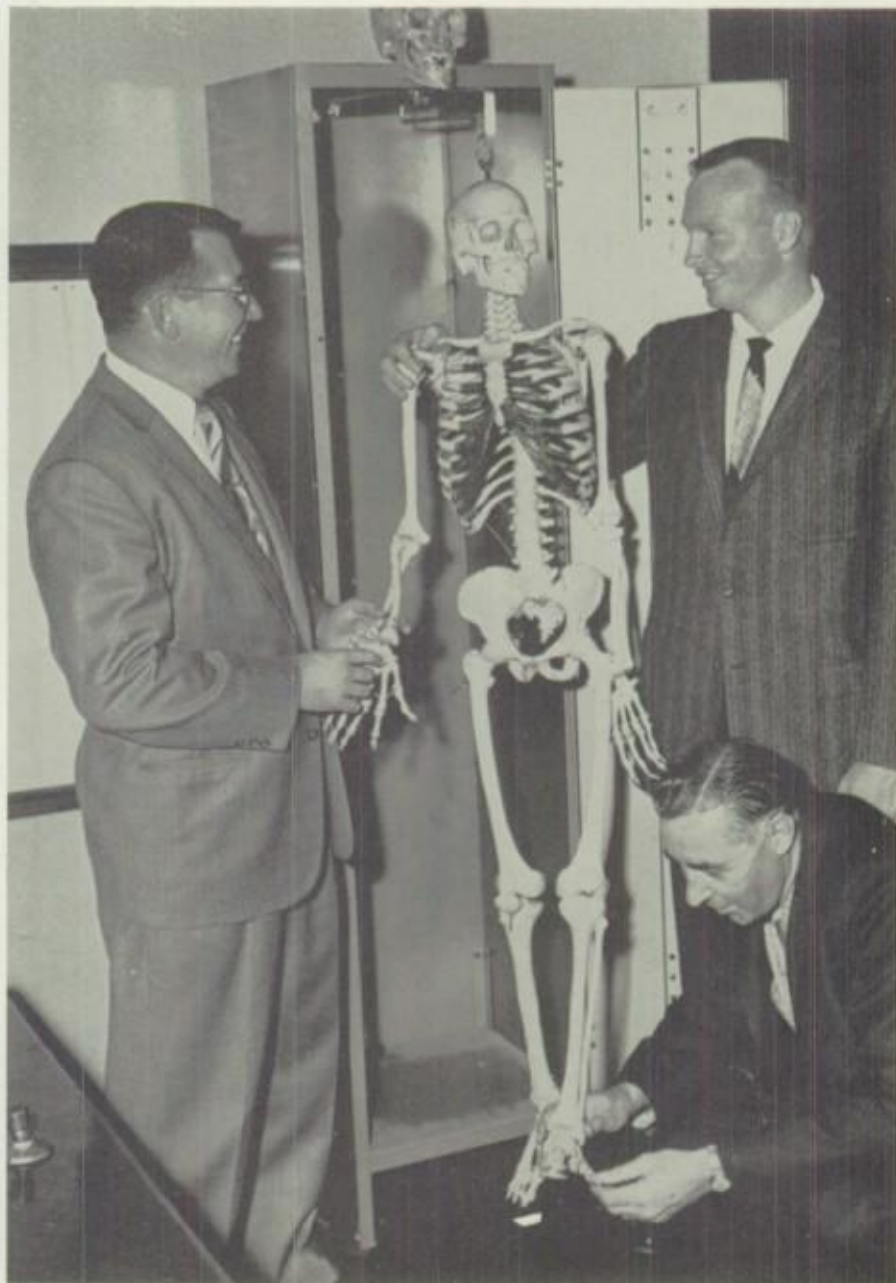

SURROUNDED BY SKELETONS, Mr. Sal Russo, Mrs. Phyllis Edwards, Mr. William Gelsinger, Mrs. Naomi Blackburn, Mr. Sam Wernle, Miss Shane Palmer discuss latest medical developments.

PREPARING A MIXTURE to obtain SO_2 in an experiment are Mr. Harry Anderson, Miss Jennie Clauson, and Miss Shirley Allen.

"THIS IS THE ANODE," Mr. Matthew Lynaugh points out to Mr. Al Hewitt, department head, and Mr. George Bundick.

VYING FOR THE ATTENTION OF OSCAR, Glendale's famous skeleton, are Mr. Jack Parker, Mr. Gary Hess, and Mr. Howard Fay.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

BROADENS THEIR NATIONAL AND GLOBAL CONCEPTS

A NEW COURSE added last year to the Social Sciences, Introduction to the Social Sciences, gives the students an outline of the six social sciences which colleges require. Modern World History is a short history of the happenings in the world, while U. S. History presents the political, economic, social and cultural phases of America. Cabinet, is a course in leadership in connection with affairs of student government. Senior Problems is a course to help graduating seniors prepare for their ventures into the world, and Government classes offer seniors a better understanding of the government of which they are all a part.

DURING ONE OF THE MANY department meetings throughout the year, Mr. Murray Grant presented a plan for humane book reports. Agreeing with him are Miss Margaret Graham, Mr. George Plumb, Mr. Alan Busby, Mr. James Eschenbrenner, Mr. Arthur Bennett, and Mr. William Graham.

VISUAL AID — is it a help or a hindrance? Members of the Social Science Department, Mr. Ralph Carter, Mrs. Alice McDonald, Miss Gladys Leonard, Mr. Tony Campana, ponder over this question.

TALKING OVER WORLD AFFAIRS are Mr. Wallace Rankin, department head, and Mr. Charles Hicks.

MEETING IN THE LIBRARY to discuss collateral assignments are Miss Frances Ahl, Mrs. Hilda Jones, Mr. Frank Lauridsen, Mrs. Francis Klawiter, Mr. James Smith, and Mr. Leslie Wood.

DICTATING A LETTER to Miss Wyna Cowles, seated at the electric typewriter, is Mr. Dudley Graham.

IN BOOKKEEPING Lynda Smith and Mr. James Steele, department head, check over Lynda's answers with the adding machine.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

IN BUSINESS EDUCATION, Dawn Churchill tries to learn the right way to work the Comptometer with the help of Miss Ruth Starr, and Mrs. Mary Jane McClane.

HAVING SOME FUN WITH THE TEN KEY adding machine are Mr. Homer Livermore, seated, Miss Henrietta Huysen, Miss Jeanette Day, and Mr. Edward Nissen.

GUIDANCE IN NON-ACADEMIC FIELDS

THEY SOUGHT GUIDANCE, too, in special arts and vocational crafts. They mastered new skills ranging from the cooking techniques, which Mrs. Frances Smith demonstrates for Karen Barkley, to the secrets of painting and erecting backdrops that Mr. David Gibson supervises. The musically inclined found a wide variety of vocal and instrumental classes. Prospective engineers and mechanics were introduced to shop courses, while aspiring journalists put their energy into publishing the school yearbook and paper. These are the instructors and students who participated in the non-academic fields.

AT A DEPARTMENT MEETING Mrs. Margaret Campbell, department head, explains new volleyball rules to Mrs. Beatrice Haig, Miss Jeanette Johnson, Nurse Mrs. Julia Alsberg, Mrs. Marjorie Pape.

COMPLIMENTING Mrs. Ruth Tomlin on the performance of her dance classes are Mrs. Patricia Mack and Mrs. Helen Johnson.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

BODY FITNESS TO CREATE THE BALANCED STUDENT

ARCHERY, DANCE, GOLF AND SWIMMING are among the courses included in Glendale's Physical Education Department which are not offered at many other schools. Each student is required to take some form of gym, but he may have his choice of sports. For those who are not able to take regular courses, classes in restricted gym are available.

NEW RECREATIONAL FACILITIES for the boys' gym are contemplated by Mr. Sal Russo, Mr. Ted Andrews, Mr. Gary Hess, Mr. Roy Vujovich, Mr. Bill Chunn, Mr. Dick Davis, and Mr. Gene Haas.

COSMETOLOGY

TOMORROW'S COIFFEURS

COSMETOLOGY is a vocational arts course which provides for the girls the opportunity to work with patrons and at the same time learn how to shampoo, bleach and set hair. They also learn how to style hair, manicure nails and master the techniques of beauty makeup. When many girls graduate they take state boards and obtain a cosmetologist license.

JEANNIE PRITCHARD AND BONNIE WILSON prepare to cut the hair of one of their patrons.

MRS. GEORGIA WOODWARD, department head, shows Carolyn Bohn the way to pin hair for a permanent.

AS MRS. JOSEPHINE HICKS RECEIVES A CALL for an appointment for a hair style, Janet Fleming records the appointment.

GETTING READY to give a shampoo to Francis Militello are Mrs. Charlotte Anderson, and Mrs. Blanche Penman as Carolyn Piso watches.

PREPARING FOR THE FASHION SHOW, Mrs. Elva Marshall straightens the hem on Carol Goffrado's coat, which Carol made in tailoring.

DELICACIES FOR THE FASHION SHOW TEA are prepared by Jo Ellen Homan, Sharon Rowe, and Judy Woodsum under the supervision of Mrs. Frances Smith.

TOMORROW'S HOMEMAKERS

PREPARING FOR COMING YEARS as housewives and mothers, girls at Glendale High take cooking, modern hostess, and sewing courses offered by the Home Economics Department. These girls, with the help of Mrs. Elsie Garrett, Mrs. Elva Marshall, and Mrs. Frances Smith, presented a Fashion Show, where they modeled clothes they had made at school. The Cooking classes served refreshments at the show.

HOME ECONOMICS

THE CORRECT WAY TO LAY A PATTERN is explained to Judy Satrum and Nancy Hough by Mrs. Frances Smith; Mrs. Elsie Garrett, department head, and Mrs. Elva Marshall.

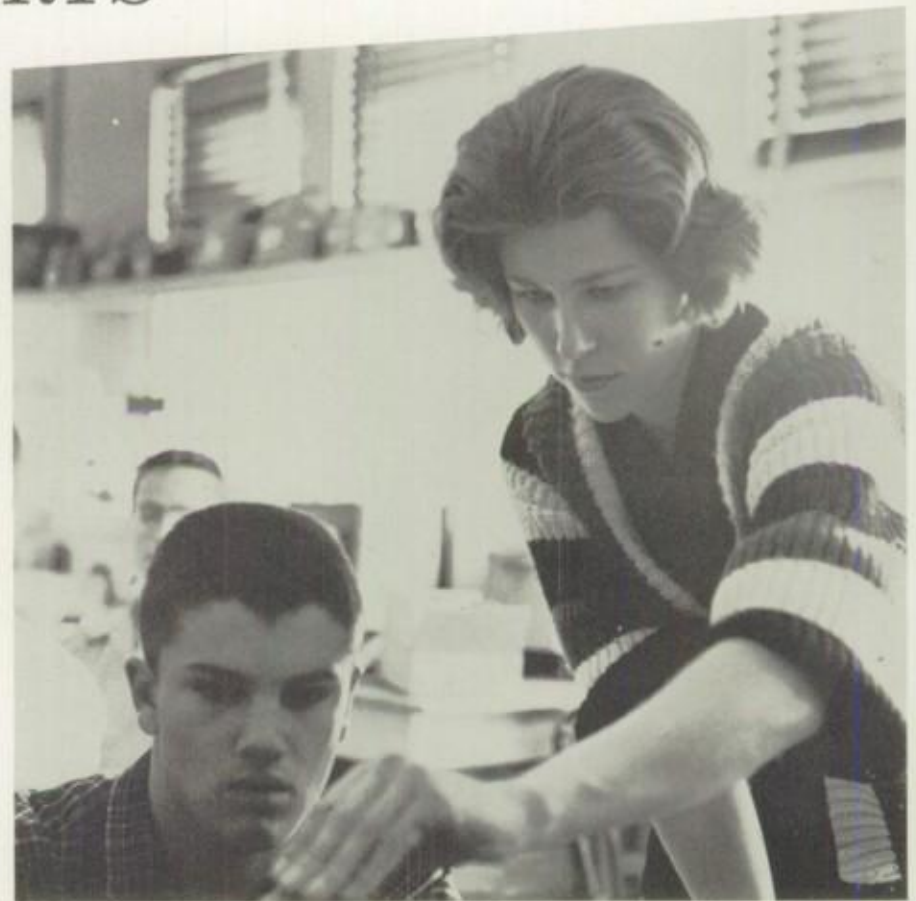

PREPARING FOR CAREERS in the art field and making use of creative ability are only two objectives toward which the art department strives. Through the study of color, oil and brush technique, students learn how to express themselves in art. Miss Martha Arnold, department head, helps Darryl Wright with his painting, while Dennis Benedette, Jim Lacey, and Deane Tomlin watch.

THE ARTS

PLANNING A HOUSE for practice in home decorating, Mr. Charles Lebold helps Jim Mennes, Sandy Hearn, and Jan McKibbin.

MRS. SUZANNE SCOTT shows Paul Dobson where the forehead should start on the bust of a man.

CAST MEMBERS of the Fall Play "Pink Magic" as they appeared on stage are: Chuck Buck, Jaynee Paul, Kaleta Morgan, Peter Rusch, Deanne Mistretta, and Joel Miller.

THE DRAMA

MAIN EVENTS in the Drama Department include staging Glendale High's fall and spring plays. In between these hectic moments the drama students, under the direction of Mr. Harry Francisco, are busy learning the mechanics of play scripts, use of make-up, and the staging of several one-act plays.

NEAR CHAOS exists during a rehearsal of a one-act play in Advanced Drama.

WHAT'S GOING ON HERE? Mr. Francisco tries to restrain members of the 5th period Drama class as they break from rehearsals to peer out the window at a typical disturbance on busy Verdugo Road.

THE HOWS AND WHYS OF GREASEPAINT are demonstrated by Mr. Francisco to Drama students Linda Hoy, Loretta Bunch, Dana Roe, and Sue Ann Murray.

EARLY MORNING HOURS, after school, and lunch finds the library crowded with students busy studying, hunting books or reading.

LIBRARY

KNOWLEDGE, and armchair adventures are available to students, who come to the library seeking answers to a multitude of questions. A variety of new books is constantly being added to the supply, keeping Glendale's library complete and up to date.

GLANCING OVER A LIST of new books available are Mrs. Ouida Robbins and Mrs. Mary Ellen Nicholson, assistant librarians.

AMONG THE MANY JOBS of Miss Barbara Canady, head librarian, is arranging the card catalogue.

TRAINING FOR WORK as future librarians are Sue Clark, Dave Magneson, Tamara Kaufman, Donna Ingram, and Margaret Imus.

CHECKING OVER THE BOOKS in the Student Bank are Nancy Downs, Carol Tench, Ellen Kneiding, Mrs. Alma Hall, Carolyn Adolphe, Vic Shaw, Clark Jolley, and Barbara Lauridsen.

"G, GLEN, GLENDALE," says Pat Neidrick to herself finding the right file in which to place a purchase order for Glendale High given to her by Mrs. Catherine Tench.

STAGE CREW

A PORTRAIT ASSIGNMENT finds Mary Wynhausen the subject of advanced student Phil Rhoton's lens.

PHOTOGRAPHY

THE NEW INTEREST in science has been reflected in the Photography courses at Glendale where both beginning and advanced courses are taught. Some enroll for pure vocational use, while others plan to use its skill in allied fields.

ACADEMIC ADDENDUM

OVERLOOKED in the reporting of their respective departments are Mr. Robert Brickman, special education, Mr. Arthur Silva, English, Miss Marjorie Bailey, English (back from first semester's sabbatical), and Mr.

Peter Tassopoulos, special education. The only faculty member to escape is Mr. George McElroy, driver education, who has defied the Stylus photographer for years.

DARKROOM TECHNIQUE is practiced by beginning students Dick Clark and Eddie Knox.

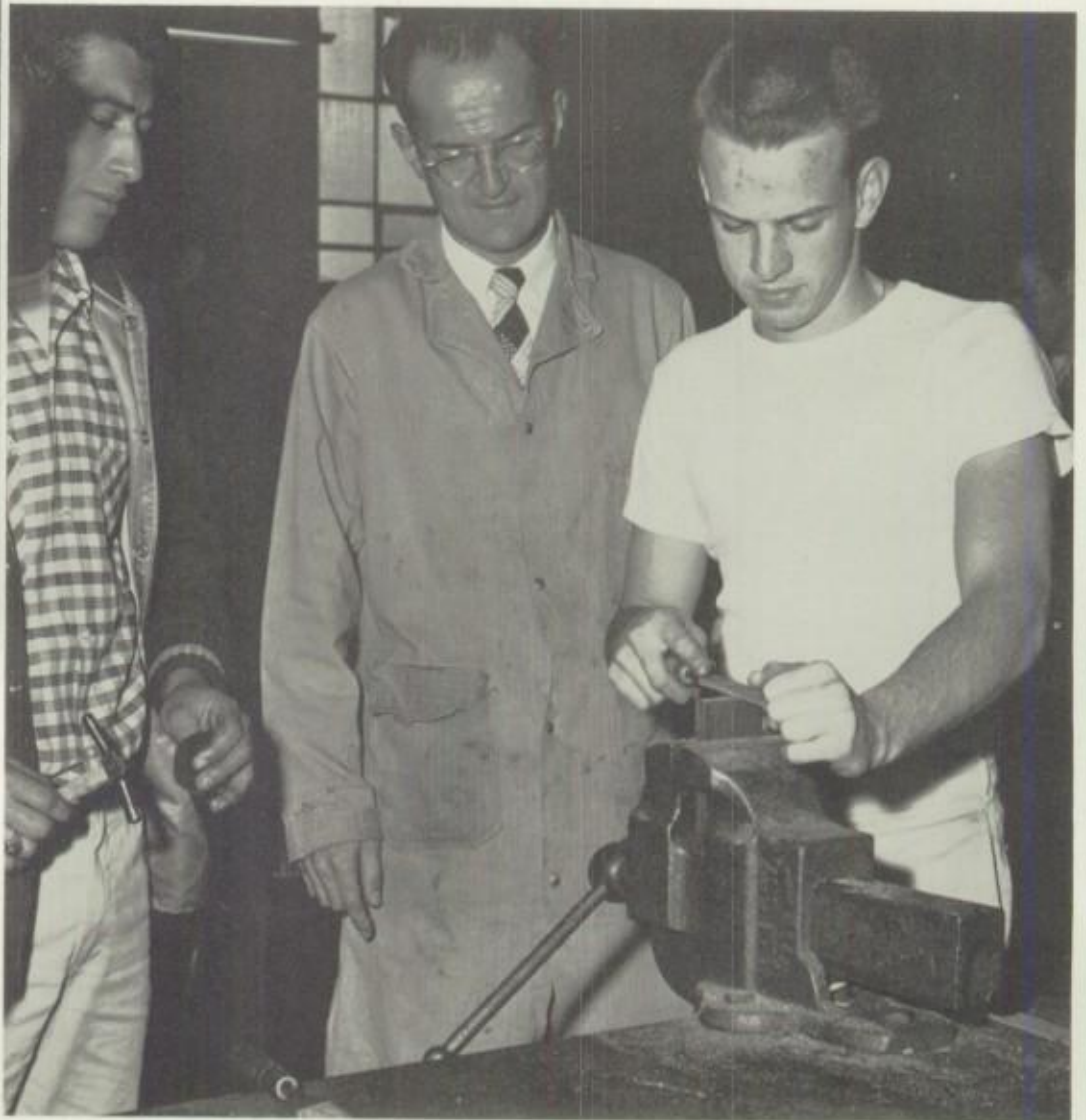

VOCATIONAL ARTS

ARCHITECTS FOR TOMORROW'S TECHNOLOGY

AN EMPHASIS ON COMPLETE VOCATIONAL ARTS training is offered for those students interested in a craft vocation or in a Degree of Architecture. A practical workshop where boys may tinker with their cars and learn mechanics is offered in Auto Shop. The Print Shop performs many tasks for Glendale High, such as printing the Explosion and co-operating with the Pep Club by making banners and schedules, and the Machine Shop is now working on the numerals which will be placed in the Senior Glen.

IN PRINT SHOP, Mr. Ed Harrington checks on Murph Handley's use of the linotype machine.

HAMMER IN HAND, Joe Carmona is ready to assist Lee Ryan file down a block of steel while Mr. Walter Lauxen watches their progress in General Metals.

MR. GREG LAWRENCE, department head, demonstrates an electrical device to one of his classes in Electronics.

NOT BUILDING BLOCKS, but a course in table top making is mastered by Mel Williams under the guidance of Mr. Lovell Paggeot in Wood Shop.

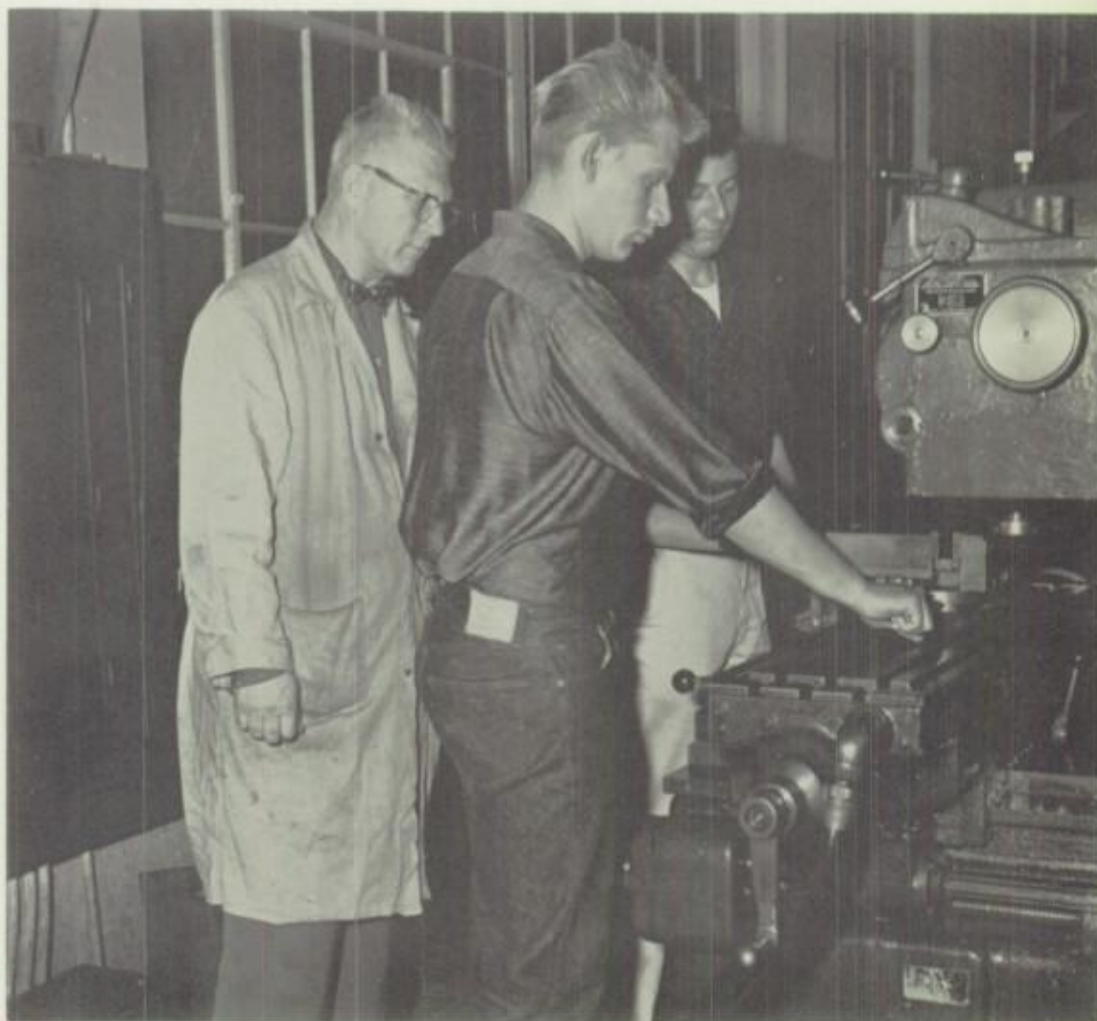

IN MECHANICAL DRAWING Dennis Rusler draws up plans for his dream house under the guidance of Mr. Cliff Hooper, Mr. Louis Malinowski and Mr. Carl Derkson.

SANDING A FENDER in Auto Shop Mr. Gene Crawford is aided by Roger Phillips.

IN WELDING, Mr. Tom Christensen and Bud Andersen put together a tray.

LEARNING how to handle this milling machine is Jim Linnemeyer with Mr. John Harrison.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, Penne Freebairn goes over copy for the final deadline.

"THE STYLUS"

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

"WHO AM I GOING TO GET to type this?" was a familiar cry around room 311 during third period sessions of the Stylus Staff. First there were layouts to be dreamed up and dummies to be made; then pictures to be taken and identified, and finally the frantic scramble to meet deadlines. After everything was turned in to the publishers there was a steady stream of proofs to be patiently corrected.

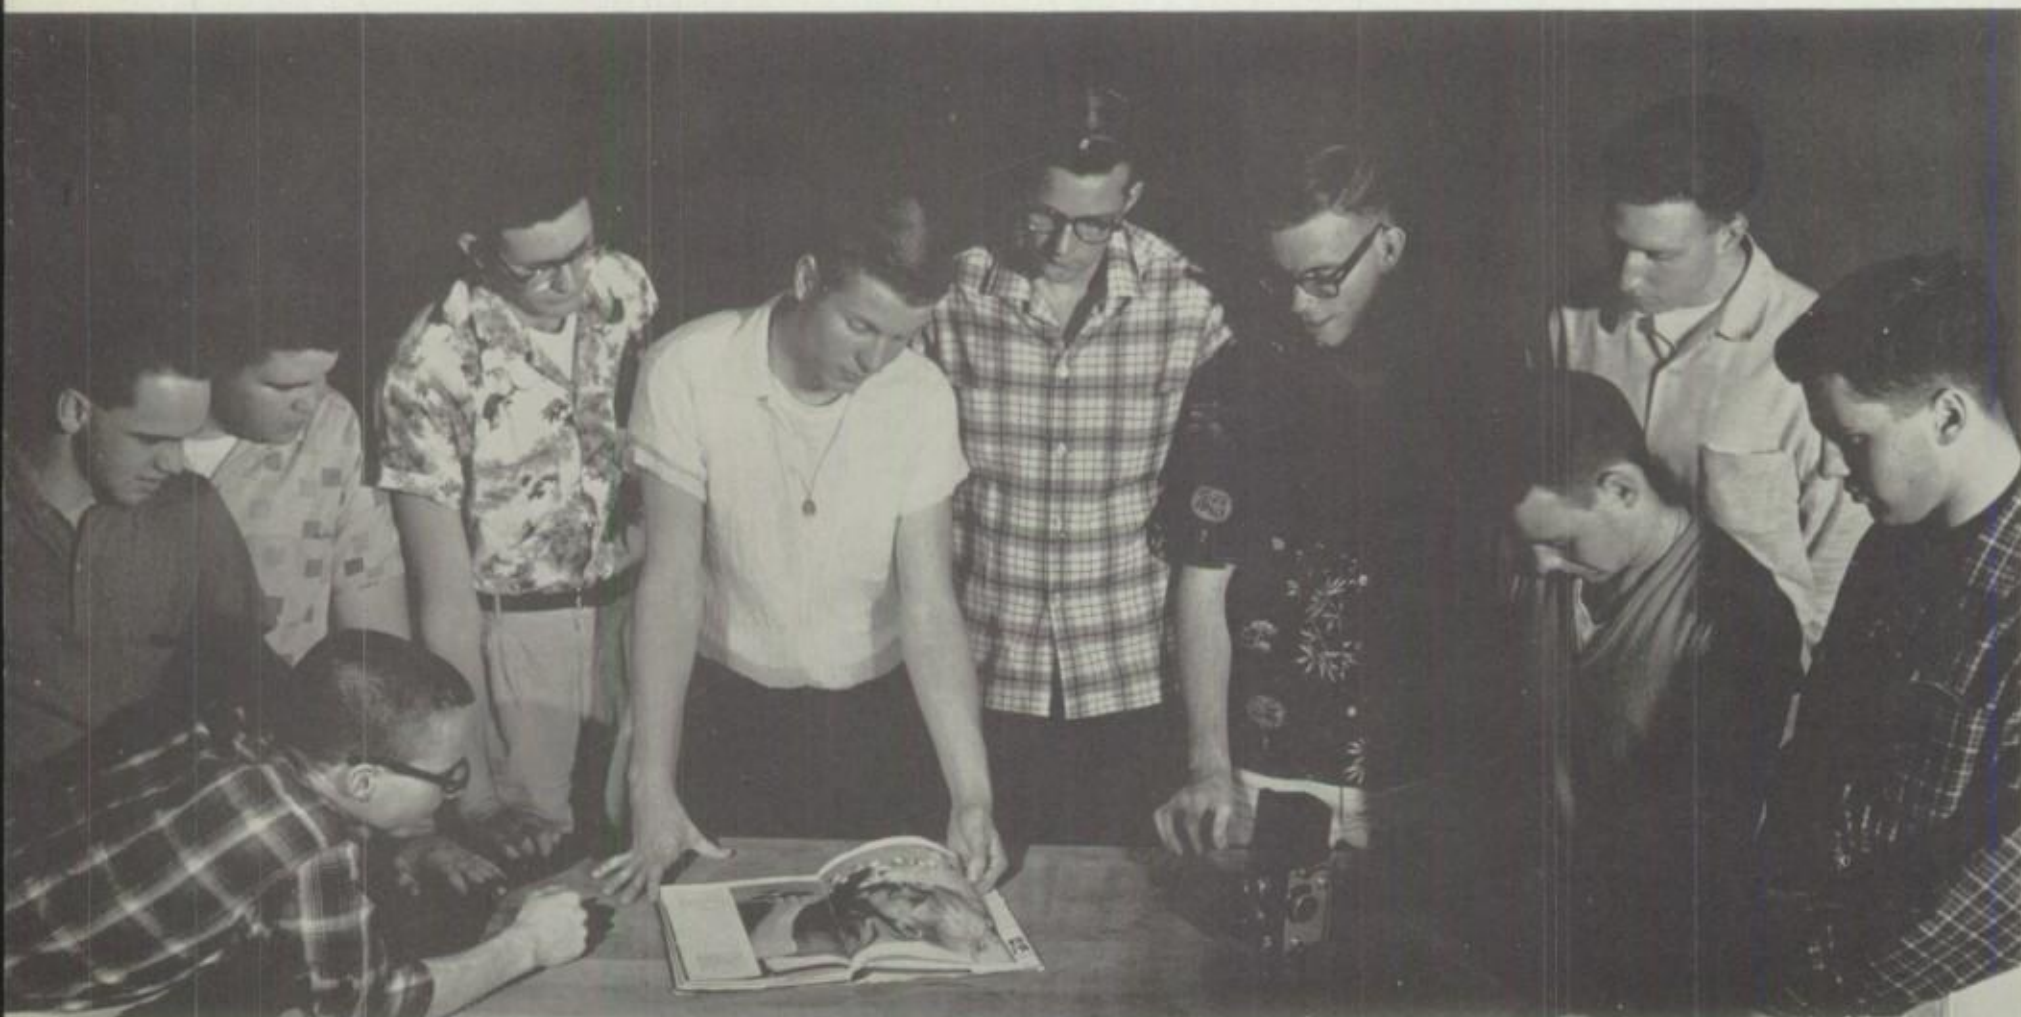

MR. WILLIAM GRAHAM, faculty advisor for the Stylus.

The original staff was far too small to cope with the problems of assembling a yearbook, so secretaries were borrowed from other classes to help with typing and indexing. The whole staff put in many hours of overtime after school and on weekends. Several people not actually on the staff, such as Bob Rector, Laurie Daniell and Susan Johnson, came in on their own time to help write copy and check names. Carole Spelgatti and Don Smith worked on the staff first semester and with a few new additions second semester, the Stylus was completed at last.

class, who took pride in the fact that the entire photographic job, with the exception of senior portraits and the music groups, was their student project.

SECRETARIES from Mr. Homer Livermore's typing class, Michele Botthof, Barbara Riccard, Hedy Hunsaker, Charlene Grier, Jeanne Goodall, Eddie Lee, compile the student index.

Campus life

SCHOOL IS NOT ALL BOOKS, studies, and tests. It is creating, relaxing, learning to mix with other people and to mature socially. To help them express their emotions and feelings in various ways as Elaine Langenheim and Diane Broughton are, they find a multitude of activities. Some are purely for fun, and some are for service. Many of these activities are similar to those of other high schools, but a few, like the Oratorical and Stunt Show, are unique to Glendale.

CHAOS BREAKS LOOSE as senior girls are named winners of spirit competition at the annual Girls' Stunt Show. Elated seniors

GIRLS' STUNT SHOW

'58 FROLICS INTRODUCES SOPHOMORES TO TRADITION AND SPIRIT

THE SENIORS, who had never previously placed in the Stunt Show, triumphed this year as they won both the Spirit and Stunt in their last, but very successful try. Formerly, the sophomores, juniors, and seniors each presented one group act, but in the '58 Frolics, five individual acts represented each class and were rated by impartial judges. The seniors amassed the most points and emerged victorious.

SETTING THE CLOCK back thirty years is sophomore Leah Fulton.

ONE STUNT WHICH contributed largely to the senior class victory is "Nothing Like A Dame," portrayed by: Linda Hendershot, Beverly Olen, Carolyn Copeland, Judy Flegal, Pat Prata, and Connie Cooper.

A PANORAMA OF EMOTIONS ▸ ▸ ▸

TRIUMPH in the Speech division came to the junior class through the efforts of Janis Goodemoot who explained why "We Shall Not Fail."

WEEKS OF PATIENT PREPARATION are climaxed in the Oratorical, held at Glendale annually for over fifty years. Dressed in white shirts or blouses, the student body sits in absolute silence with hands on knees, bodies erect, and heads straight forward, not moving a muscle for fear of losing points in the judging of their class. The three divisions in the Oratorical: Spirit, Speech, and Tableau, are judged by invited guests. The Spirit division gives each class a chance to act as a unit as they are led in song and cheer exhibitions by their class yell and song leaders. One student from each class then presents a serious speech, after which the auditorium is darkened for the Tableau, a pictorial scene depicting the previous speech. At this time the judges go into conference, and when their decision has been made and announced, there are tears of happiness and sadness, both of which make the Oratorical such a memorable event at Glendale High.

Diane McBain in the above sequence, represents the variety of emotions displayed at the Oratorical.

"WHY WAR?" inquired Joel Miller, senior speaker, while Gale Sanders, sophomore speaker discussed "The Rock of Strength."

Sandy - this really been fun this year. Best of luck in the future. Joel Miller

SPEECHES, SPIRIT AND TABLEAUS MARK THE

FIFTY-FIRST ORATORICAL

THE WINNING SENIOR TABLEAU, "Why War?" depicted an orphan looking at a dead soldier hanging over a barbed wire fence. Then as the lights dimmed, a white question mark became visible in the sky, changing to a glowing red with a silhouette of the soldier and a fence against it.

THE SOPHOMORE TABLEAU, "The Rock of Strength," represented justice, freedom, hope, and a soldier, who depicted those who fight for our country.

IN "WE SHALL NOT FAIL," the junior tableau, the three wise men, Abraham Lincoln, and a modern generation couple all use the star as their guide for the future.

A VARIETY OF ACTS HAS BEEN IMPORTED FOR THEIR

ASSEMBLIES

"THANK GOODNESS IT'S FRIDAY," expresses the feeling of students as assembly day rolls around. Presenting programs, ranging from Hawaiian to Popular, was first semester's Director of Assemblies, Joel Kotin, assisted by the Assembly Committee. Continuing as Director for the second semester was Rickie Lipp.

SELECTIONS FROM MUSICAL COMEDIES to grand opera were sung by the Eligibles.

HELPING TO BRING Glendale interesting assemblies was first semester's assembly committee consisting of Joel Kotin, Director of Assemblies; Jan Hubbard; Jim Davies, and Don Hagen. Not pictured are Judie Hostettler, Pat Prata, and Steve Olson.

THE ORIENTONES, a new and versatile group from Japan, entertained both assemblies with such offerings as the "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

BRINGING A FLAVOR OF THE ISLANDS to Glendale, The Surfers, one of the top Hawaiian recording groups in the nation, rendered songs both popular and Polynesian.

"MANY A NEW DAY," a selection from Oklahoma, was rendered by Jaynee Paul, assisted by Linda Grubb and Janis Goodemoot.

THEY DISCOVER LOCAL TALENT

MANY WEEKS OF PREPARATION go into each of the acts which are presented to the student body at the Talent Show. The show not only offers entertainment, but students are also given their "big chance" for stardom.

THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM was portrayed by Connie Sonntag and Tami Elliott through a modern dance interpretation.

FEATURED SOLOISTS in the show were Jeannette McArthur and Mike Pierce.

THEIR FACULTY REVEALS HIDDEN ABILITY

AT THE BEGINNING of 1959, people around the world were talking of rockets and missiles to the moon, but around Glendale High they were talking about the second annual Faculty Frolics, which revealed that there is more to the teachers than just homework and tests. From behind familiar desks emerged an array of singers, dancers, and actors, who displayed previously hidden talent.

NO, it's not the Everly Brothers, but it is Roy Vujovich and Aldo Buonaguidi promising they'll "never, never, never tell another white lie."

"BUT, MR. GRILLEN (Arthur Oosterveen) Doc's lying there in the street with an arrow through his head," exclaimed Fester (Charles Hicks) as he prepares to bury poor Doc, (Homer Livermore).

COTTON 'N' CORD

COUPLES DON MATCHING OUTFITS

SONG OF THE SOUTH, theme of the Cotton 'n Cord, was carried out in true southern style by the Sophomore Class. Depicted in the decorations were replicas of the "Old South". Couples adorned in matching outfits danced to the music of Jimmy Whitmore and his musicians. Refreshments were sold at a southern colonial mansion.

UNDER A CANOPY OF MULTI-COLORED streamers, couples danced to the music of Jimmy Whitmore and combo.

"SECRET LOVE," theme of the Backward Dance, was reigned over by King Bob Hensler and his court, (standing) Robin Paulsen, Barry Bottrell, Tim Bice, Milo Delgado, (kneeling) Nelson Rising, Bill Jencks.

BACKWARD DANCE

FOOTING THE BILL and making corsages are traditional when girls pick their dates for the annual Backwards Dance. Hosts and decorators for the evening were first semester's Cabinet and the Girls' League Board. Music was provided by Bob Florence and his Rhythmairs.

ANTICIPATION SHINES AS THE COUPLES WAIT FOR THE KING TO BE REVEALED.

STAGING A BROADWAY FINALE are Rockettes, Margie Castlen, Marilyn Weitz, Muffet Bailey, Sue Biaggi, Joan Motta, Pam Bentley, Mike Wellman, Donna Barnes, Nancy Hooper, Susie White, and Sandy Hearn. Featured are Deanne Mistretta and Mike Pierce.

THEY PAY A VISIT TO OLD NEW YORK

VIA THE DANCE RECITAL

NEW YORK! NEW YORK! The theme of the annual dance recital was carried out by scenes which depicted Times Square, The Bowery, Central Park, Greenwich Village, and Park Avenue. The combined dance classes under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Tomlin, dance instructor, assisted by Sue Pfieffer, Melinda Zemke, and Debbie Zeller staged the colorful production.

RELAXING BETWEEN ACTS at a dress rehearsal are Judy Farrel and Wendy Williams.

"DOWN WITH EVERYTHING," is the cry as "Beatniks" assemble at a sidewalk cafe in Greenwich Village to discuss current topics.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENT, Roger Dalton, crowns Queen, Micky McClellan.

JUNIOR PROM

LE SOIR A PARIS

GLENDAL COUPLES DANCED to the music of Al Harding's Band under the starry skies of Paris at the Junior Prom this year. A traditional project of the Junior class, Sponsor Murray Grant's decoration committee, headed by Carol Wynhausen, transformed the Green Room into a French scene complete with the Eiffel Tower. Other juniors working on prom preparations were: Lynn Hoffman, Queen committee; Bob Ruffner, Publicity; Jim Stratton, Tickets; and Ron Fruivanti, Refreshments.

REIGNING over the Junior Prom were: Bunny Bunt, Nancy Hooper, Pauline Mitton, Queen Mickey McClellan, Joannell Jordan, Janis Goodemoot, and Chris Beals. The entire student body selected the queen from the princesses elected by the junior class.

SENIOR PROM

THE LAST AND MOST ELABORATE dance of the year, the Senior Prom, was held off campus for the second consecutive year. "An Affair to Remember," the theme chosen by the class, was held at the Ambassador Hotel. Les Brown and his Band of Renown furnished the music and entertainment for the evening. Using their imagination and talent in planning and organizing the prom were Ruffin Ring, queen committee; Cindy Radner, publicity; Pat Goldthwaite, tickets; Sal Di-Marco, entertainment; Linda Hoy, pictures; Carolyn Ahlers, decoration; Mary Dawson, who was in charge of selecting the location.

Queen Judy Scribner

HONOR to the efforts of Glendale's gridiron stars was paid at the annual Football Banquet. Individual awards were presented to outstanding players of the four squads: Varsity, Junior Varsity, "B", and Junior "B". Added interest this year came from the Varsity's sweep of the Foothill League. Guests at the ceremonies included the Glendale High faculty and the Board of Education.

ALUMNUS FRANKIE ALBERT, noted football personality and ex-coach of the San Francisco 49'ers, was guest speaker at the banquet, which was sponsored this year by the Glendale High Booster's Club, who treated members of all squads to a steak dinner.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS included (top picture) an autographed football given to Varsity Captain, Bob Hensler by Coach Roy Vujovich. (Second picture) Robin Paulson receives the "G" letter from Assistant Varsity Coach, Ted

Andrews. (Third picture) Gary Nelson accepts an autographed football from "B" Coach Leo Arranaga for being captain of the "B" team. (Lower picture) The Girls' League Board served and provided entertainment at the banquet.

PINNING A CARNATION on her father, Susie Schroeder typifies the tradition of the Girls' League Board to give boutonnieres to their fathers

DAD-DAUGHTER BANQUET

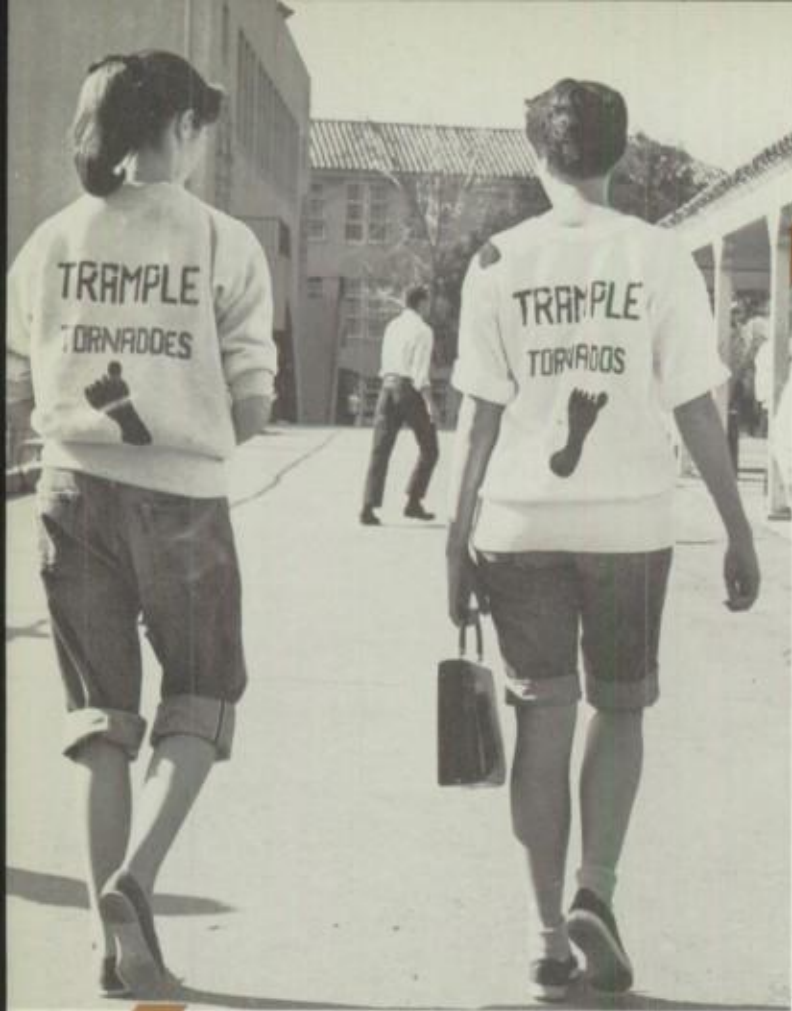

"OH MY PAPA" was the enthusiastic sigh heard when girls were escorted by their dads to the annual Dad-Daughter Banquet. The evening consisted of a dinner, served by the Civitans; entertainment, dancing to the music of Bob Rector and his Zephyrs, and skits staged by the sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Highlight of the evening was the contests for the father with the cutest dimple, dreamiest eyes, the biggest middle, and the dad and daughter who look most alike.

GIRLS AND THEIR FATHERS are greeted at the door by Civitans, Ernie Lund and Nelson Rising.

PRESENTING ONE OF THE SKITS of the evening is the sophomore class. Participating are Gail Saunders, Lea Fulton, and Chris Crockett.

PAT NICHOLS and Carol Wynhausen reveal their sentiment concerning the Glendale-Hoover game rivalry.

BERMUDA DAYS

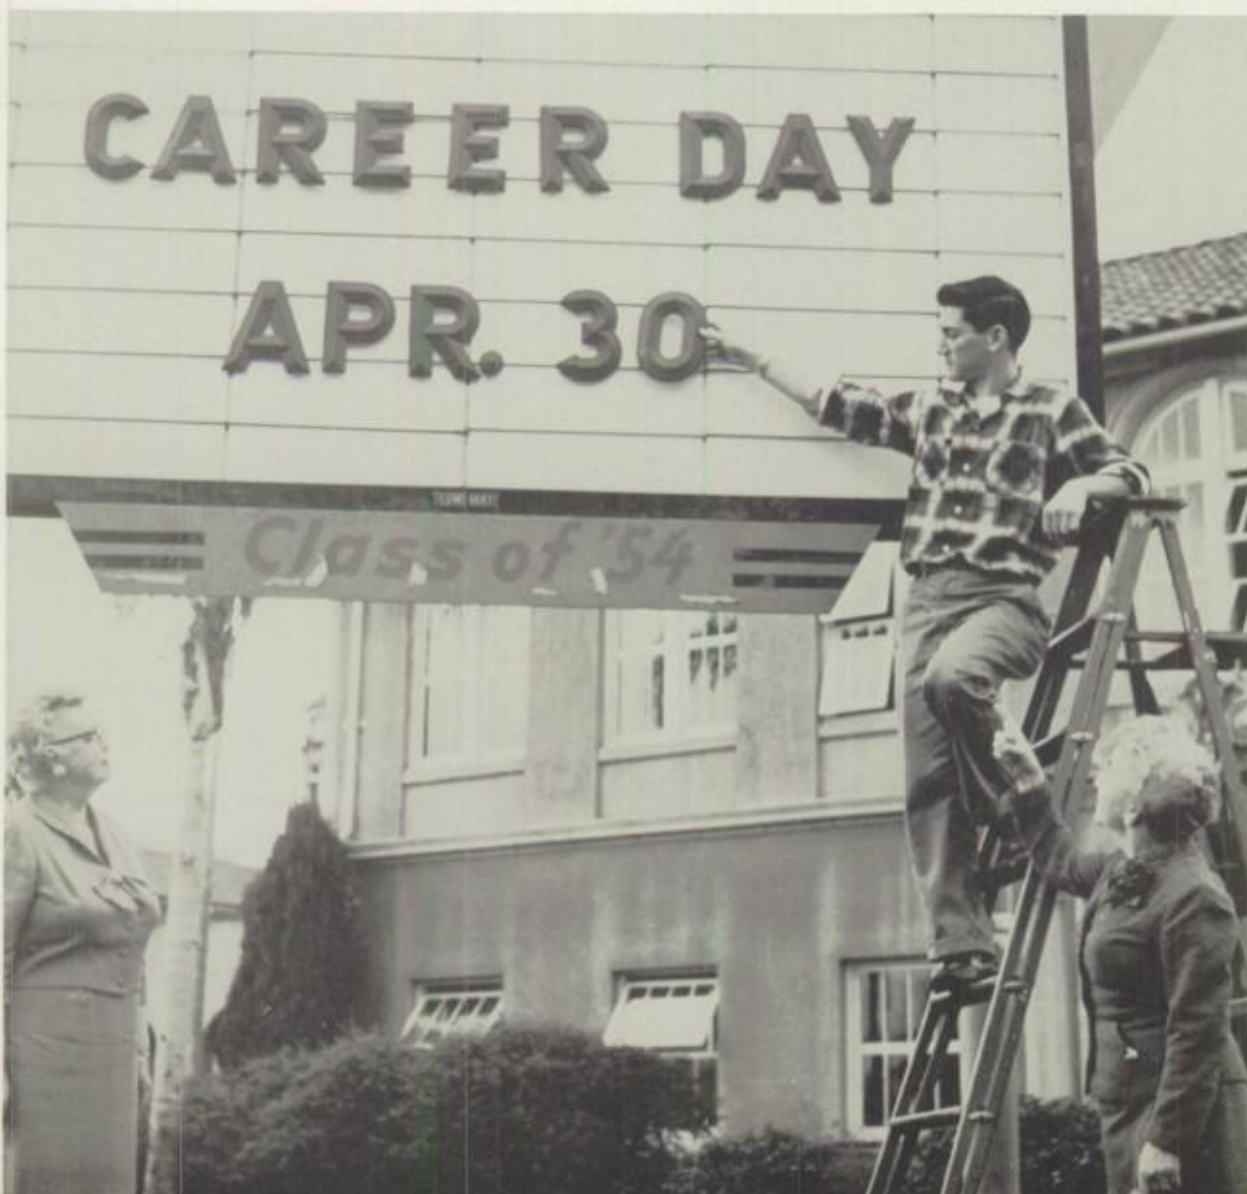

A GLENDALE TRADITION

HONORING SUCH SPECIAL EVENTS as the first home football game and the traditional rival game against Hoover is Bermuda Day on which students and the braver faculty members don bermudas. This change in routine heightens the excitement and anticipation of the coming game and breaks the monotony of conventional dress.

TYPICAL BERMUDA DAY ATTIRE is modeled here by Susie Meckfessel, Janice Little, Shirley McDermott, and Judy Delmonte.

CAREER DAY

PREVIEW OF POSSIBLE OCCUPATIONS

EACH YEAR a Career Day is held to help those undecided on their career. Students sign up to hear a speaker talk on the field of his choice. A variety of fields including animal husbandry, fire fighting, real estate, truck driving, archaeology, along with the more popular jobs such as teaching, modeling, engineering, business opportunities and hospital work, are open to all students. The speakers explain the advantages, disadvantages, possibilities and merits of their own jobs.

POSTING A NOTICE of Career Day are Miss Ruth Starr, Joel Miller, and Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, who were responsible for planning and publicizing the event.

JUNIOR CIVITANS PROMOTE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

PACKAGES LADEN WITH FOOD and destined for hungry families were filled by homerooms in a project sponsored by the Civitans and Civinettes. Working with them in the season's spirit were the Student Body Cabinet, who decorated the tree, and the Key Club, who distributed the packages.

PEEKING INTO A BOX OF CHRISTMAS FOOD are: John Whitney, Lynn Davis, and Nelson Rising, who headed the project for Civitans and Civinettes.

CLASSES UNDERTAKE FUND RAISING PROJECTS

"BUY A MAGAZINE" is the plea made by Roger Dalton, junior class president, and Jill Parker, class treasurer, who are striving to surpass the Pacific Coast record won by the Class of '59 last year.

CHRISTMAS BOXES are sorted and counted by Peter Rusch and Cheryl Johnson.

CLASS PINS, something new to Glendale High, were sold to students by the Senior Class. The pins were gold plated and had the initials "GHS" and the date the class graduated. Chuck Rea and Reva Johnson, co-chairmen, were assisted by the senior class advisor, Dudley Graham; Cindy Radner, and Mrs. Alma Hall.

THEY SAW THE

HARLEM CLOWNS

PLAY THE

GLENDALE COACHES

MAKING TRICK SHOTS, hiding the ball, and befuddling the referees were only a few of the tricks used by the Harlem Clowns as they performed for the crowd. Shown putting up a good fight during the evening were Glendale coaches Harry Beck, Ed Goorjian, and coach Millar from Hoover, as the Clowns defeated them by only one point.

IN ORDER TO RAISE FUNDS for their senior year activities, the Junior Class presented the Harlem Clown Game, in which the Harlem Clowns played a team made up of Glendale Coaches. Students who worked on the ticket and publicity committees are Ron Danyluk, Lynne Hoffman, Judy Farrell, Sheila Minkin and Don Williams.

FIRST SEMESTER student body President, Denny Carhart, (extreme left) introduced the candidates running for second semester offices. Shown are Nelson Rising and Dick Denny, who ran for president, and Robin Paulson, Joel Miller, Bob Hensler, and Charles Beatty, who ran for vice-president.

ELECTIONS

EMPHASIZE THEIR DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

NOTICE! "All students interested in running for student body offices are required to obtain a clearance slip in office 108. A 'C' average and a merit record of 85 or above are necessary to obtain this slip. After they meet these requirements, each candidate is given a petition to be signed by at least 85 students." When the petition is filled, the campaigning commences with the hanging of posters and the handing out of candidate cards. All these efforts are climaxed as the students receive the ballots to make their selection of officers.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES of student body president are exchanged as Denny Carhart swears in Nelson Rising, victor in the second semester race.

OFF-CAMPUS ▹ ▹

WHERE THEY WORK, PLAY, AND RELAX

SCHOOL IS IMPORTANT, but it forms only a part of the busy lives of Glendale students. They have hobbies and jobs. They work on community projects, date, relax, and of course, study. They cram just as many activities into the weekends as they possibly can. Shows, bowling, miniature golf, dances and parties are high on the list of their favorite pastimes. In the winter they swarm to the mountains and with the arrival of warm weather they join the multitudes at the beaches, but no matter what season it is, they are always ready to forget the pressures of school and just have fun.

STRIKE! At least Lonnie Eddridge, who is among the many bowling enthusiasts at Glendale, hopes all the pins will tumble down.

BOB'S is the most popular spot for Glendalites to gather and socialize. Whether they patronize the "walk-in" as Madeline Guinn and Tory Yaphe are, or drive in, they almost always meet someone they know.

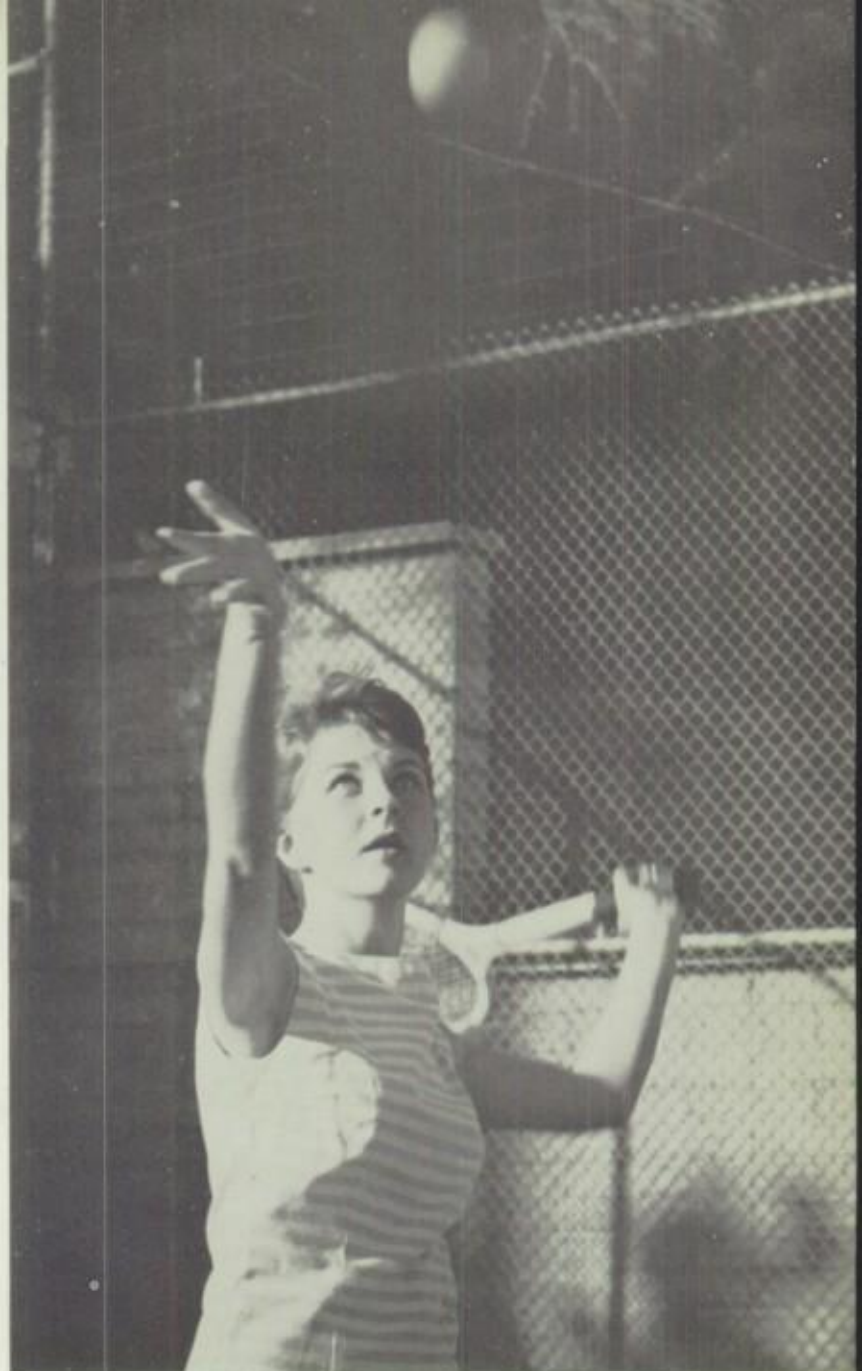

IS THIS MINIATURE GOLF or pool? Dena Bergman watches as Lynne Gordon determines to sink her putt, no matter how unorthodox her style may seem.

EXCHANGING FRIENDLY BANTER with a waitress are George Beattie, Emma Lou French, Carole Spelgatti, and Dave Lawrence.

PRIZE PEKINGESE and a rare African monkey dog are shown by Linda Underwood to Lulu Reiremo.

"SERVICE," calls Judie Burton, who finds tennis an interesting sport.

AS INEVITABLE AS SUMMER is the annual migration of Glendalites to beaches and swimming pools. Sandy Culbertson hands a clothes bag to Sally Sproull and Lois Hartman.

TUNING UP THEIR CARS is a familiar job to Tom Miskinnis, Ray Campbell, Jon Hillen, and Charles Mistretta.

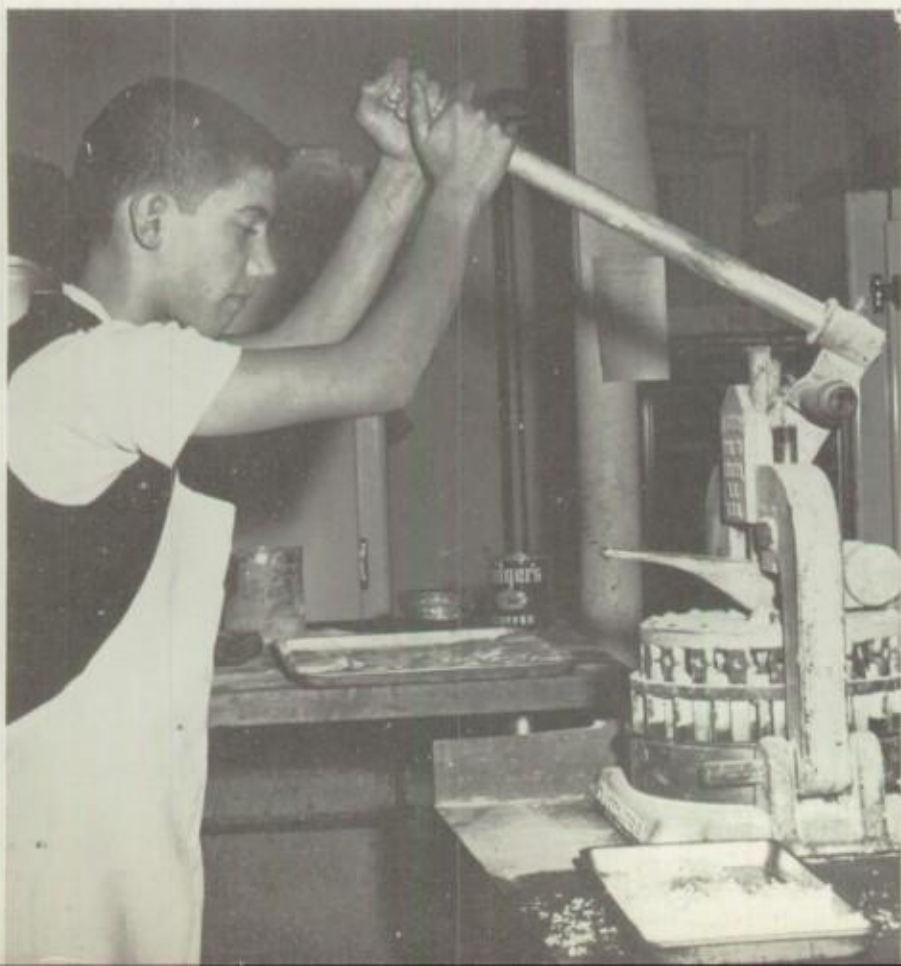

PRINTER'S APPRENTICE, Tom Zack, helps publish the BOWLING NEWS.

THEIR SKILLS ARE VARIED, BUT THEY LEARN TO APPLY THEM

PERHAPS THE MOST VALUABLE TRAINING for the future is to be found in the part time employment which many students seek. Some of them work as apprentices in occupations they wish to eventually pursue full time, while others are working as clerks, messengers, gas station attendants, and other jobs simply to earn some extra money and working experience. Many of them find fascinating and unusual jobs such as Gary Watson, below, who is operating a biscuit cutter in a bakery.

SKIP WELLS, like many other students, has found an opportunity for work experience clerking in a grocery store.

NURSES AIDES Penny Vargish and Judy Flegal, learn that hospitals even have particular ways to make beds.

BALLET AND TOE DANCING are favorite hobbies of Linda Ribbel and Jan Crosby.

BULL'S-EYE! The hunt is on as George Del Campo and Steve Fitch take to the Hills in search of small game, which they shoot with bows and arrows.

HOBBIES INTRODUCE THEM TO FASCINATING NEW WORLDS

COULD THAT BE THE EXPLORER? Tom Hendricks and Mike Sanders, members of the L.A. Astronomical Society, study the sky in their spare time with the help of a telescope, which Mike constructed.

PIANO TUNING is the hobby of Dave Collier, who renovates old pianos and sells them for a profit.

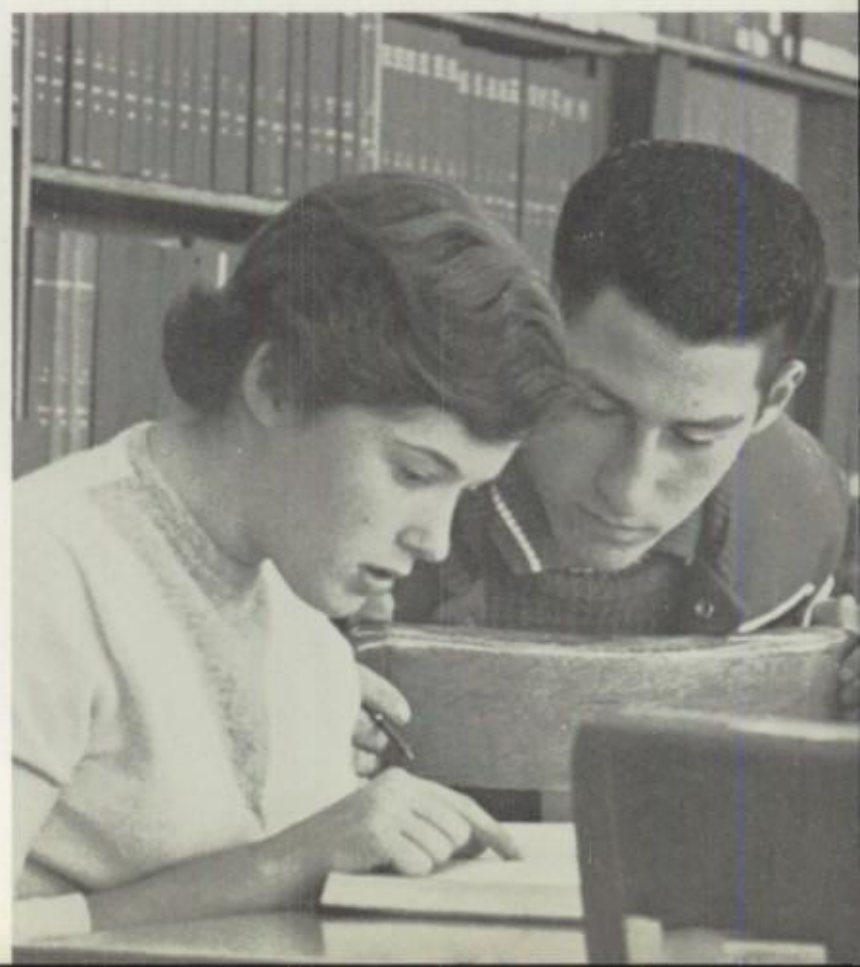

"HEY, I WANT TO USE THE PHONE!" exclaims Gary Nelson as he interrupts the studies (?) of Diane Jordan, Carol Nelson, and Lee Ann Holden.

CLIMBING THE FAMILIAR STEPS of the public library are Beverly Lauridson, David Cooper, and Eric Grosch.

STUDIES SUDDENLY BECOME IMPORTANT

"BURNING THE MIDNIGHT OIL" is a saying common among students, for the days don't seem long enough to fit in all the studies that must be done. Their dens are turned into workshops where they gather to work out difficult problems in the company of friends. With college suddenly looming in the not too distant future they begin spending hours in the library working on homework assignments and doing research for term papers as Pam Hunt and Jack Kirkpatrick in the picture below are doing.

COLLECTING FUNDS for the local Cancer Drive are Bruce Upman and Tim McPherson.

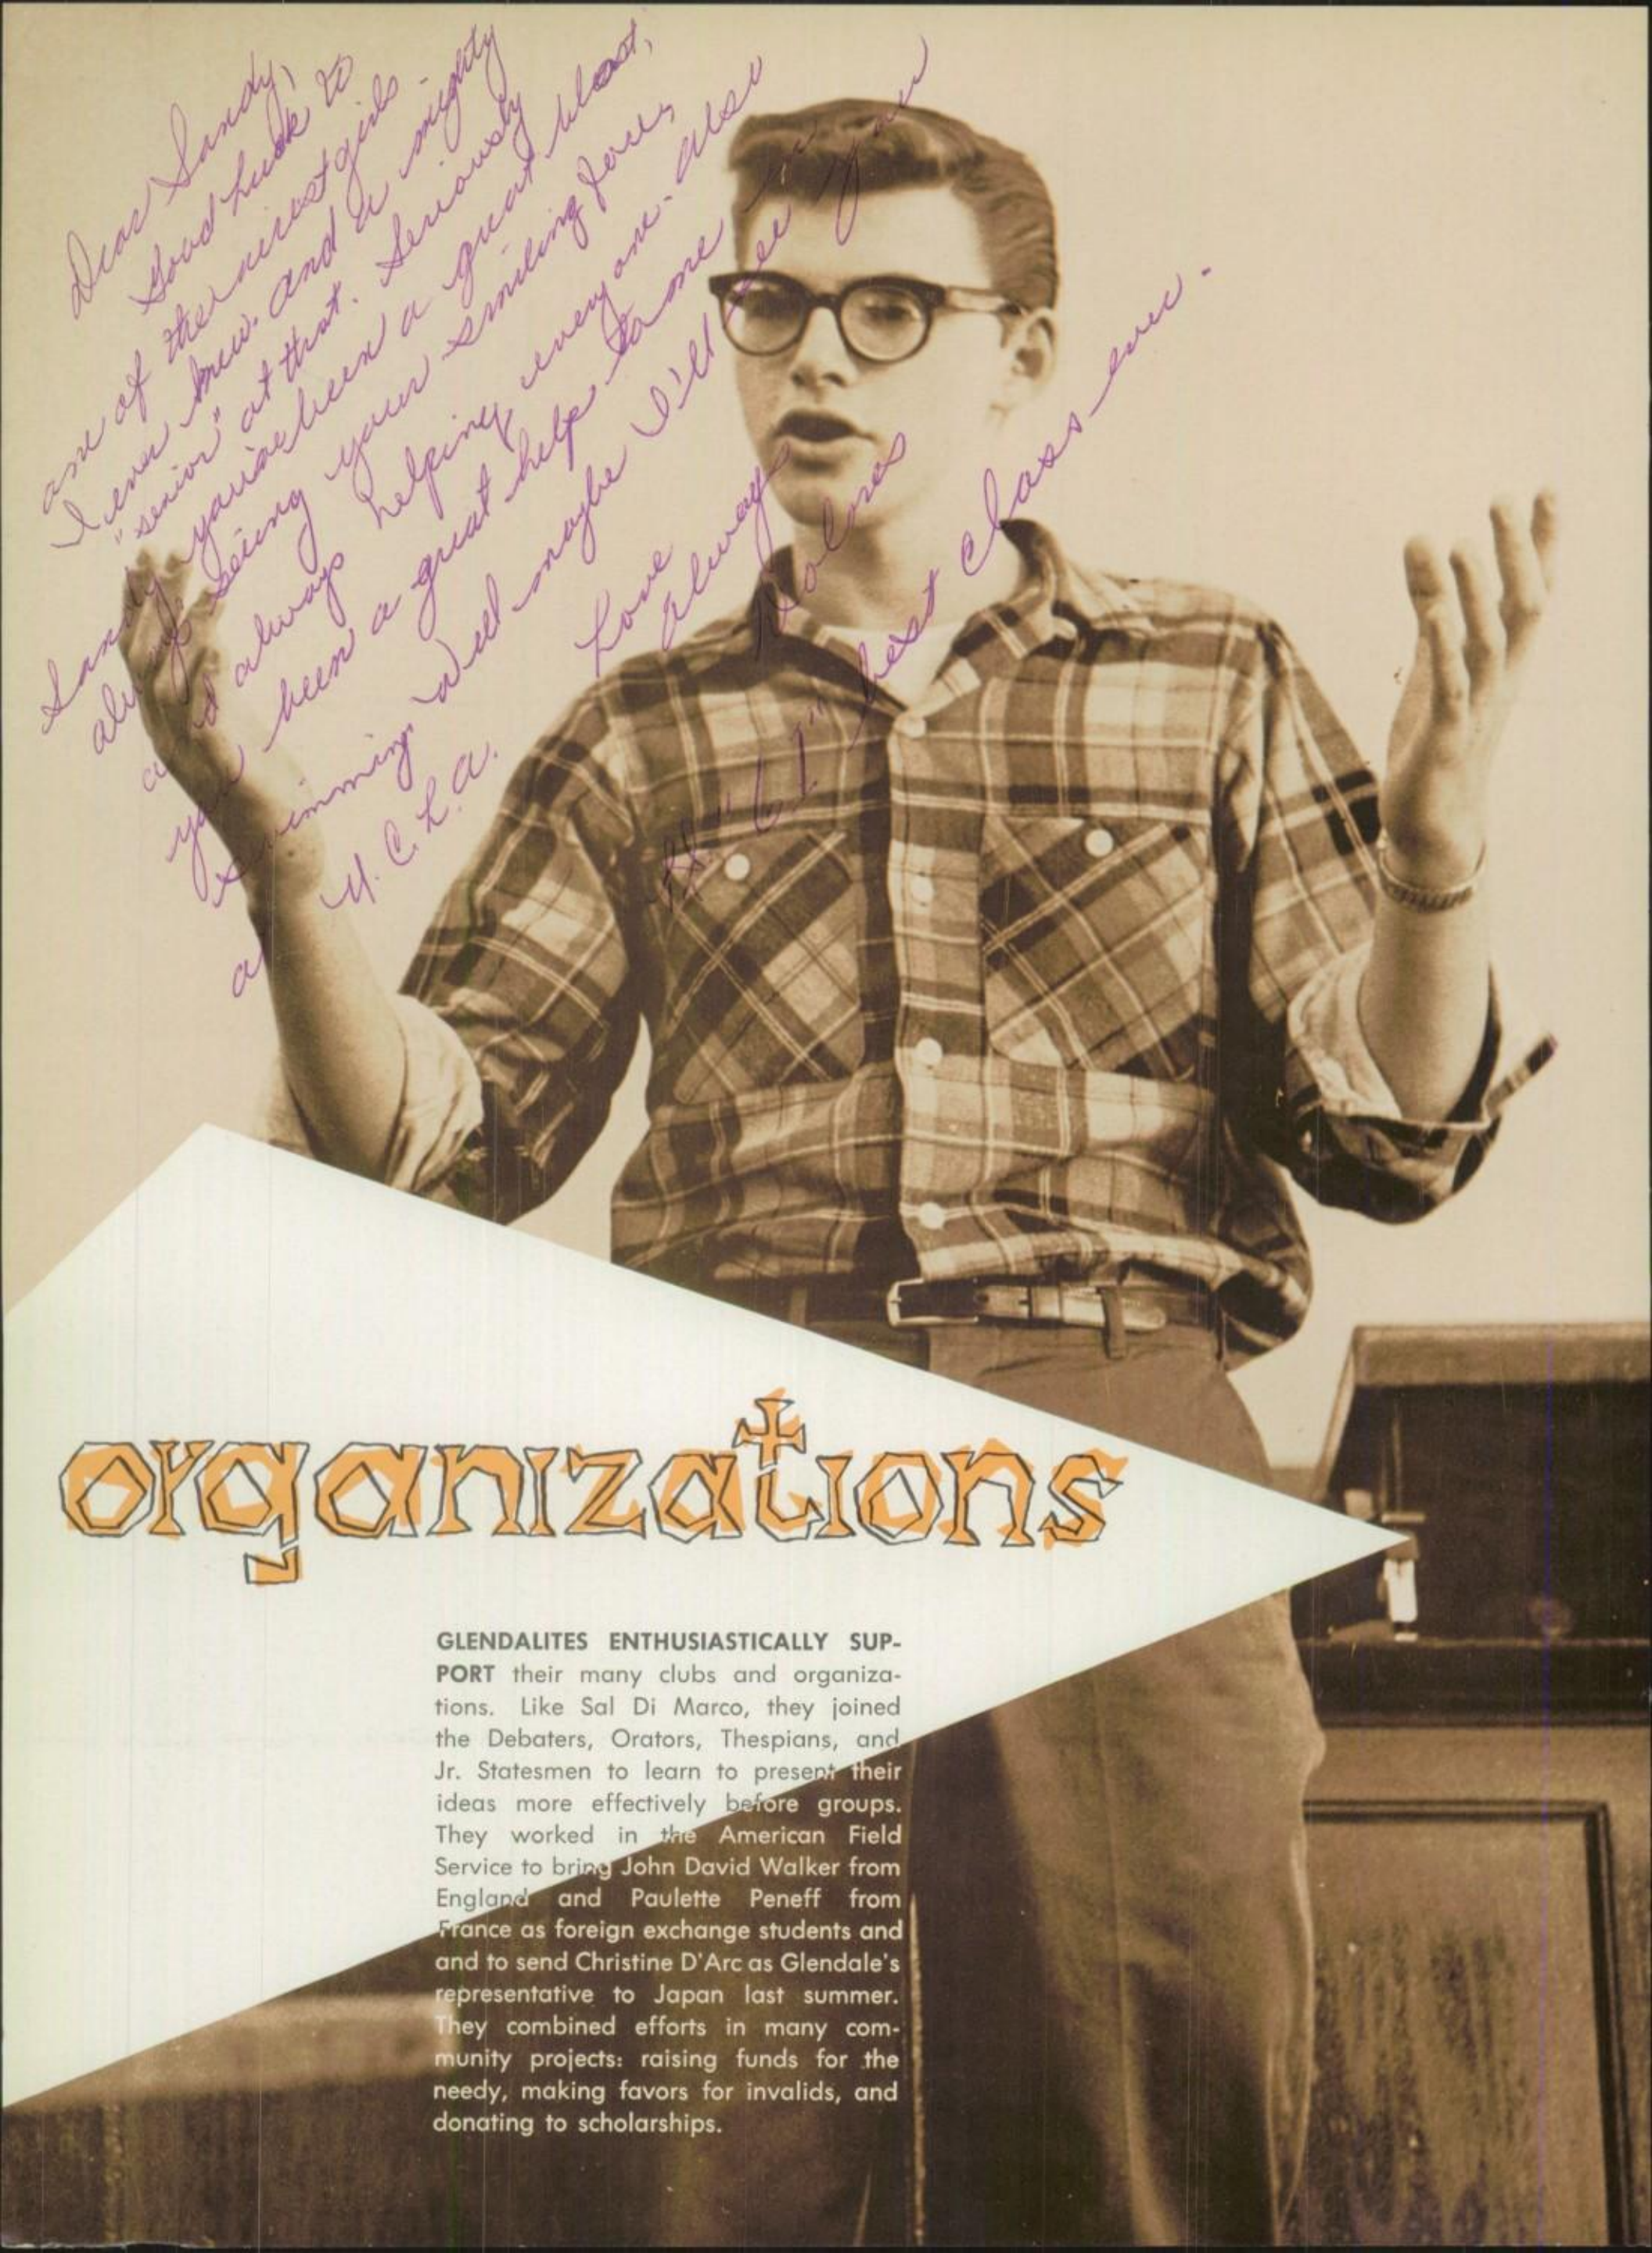

BEATING THE DRUM for the Salvation Army is Commander Pollgreen, head of the Glendale Salvation Army, while his daughter, Linda Pollgreen, rattles the tambourines and Esther Hagen protects her ears from the tumult.

THEY DEVOTE ENERGY TO COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUBS

THEY RAPIDLY ASSUME their responsibilities to their community and take an active interest in civic functions. Pictured at right are: Charlotte Mauro, Sharon Arendale, Kathi Waters, Judy Reese, Pauline McCallister, Lynne Davis, Wendy Woodford, and Charlotte McCullough, who made Easter tray favors for the Veterans' Hospital.

Dear Sandy,
one of the nicest girls
I ever knew. and a mighty
"senior" at that. Seriously
Sandy, you've been a great help, always helping every one. Also you've been a great help to me swimming. Well maybe I'll see you again.
Love always organizations

GLENDALITES ENTHUSIASTICALLY SUPPORT their many clubs and organizations. Like Sal Di Marco, they joined the Debaters, Orators, Thespians, and Jr. Statesmen to learn to present their ideas more effectively before groups. They worked in the American Field Service to bring John David Walker from England and Paulette Peneff from France as foreign exchange students and and to send Christine D'Arc as Glendale's representative to Japan last summer. They combined efforts in many community projects: raising funds for the needy, making favors for invalids, and donating to scholarships.

THE SCRIBBLERS, a creative writers' club at Glendale High, is the publisher of the Impressions, an anthology which consists of the best works of Glendale students. They sponsor several writing contests during the year and offer cash prizes for the best work submitted to them. An editorial board edits and selects the winning poems, short stories, and various other material.

PREPARING FOR the Scribblers' auction are Barbara Bartlett, Merry O'Connell, and Lynne Willis. In order to raise funds for their activities, the Scribblers sell items ranging from records to cake.

CHARLENE HAAS; Judy Lane, Susan Johnson; Sponsor, Mrs. Olive Eckerson; and Karen Jackson discuss a humorous story submitted by a student for possible publication.

ATTENTIVELY LISTENING to a speaker on state conventions are Sal DiMarco, Sara Carlton, Tam Evans, and Gail Bertin.

JR. STATESMEN

APPRENTICE POLITICIANS

THE DEMOCRATIC WORKINGS of our government and parliamentary procedure were learned by the members of the Junior Statesmen at the many conventions they attended this year. This practice in mock government gives valuable experience to tomorrow's electors and may enable some to find careers in politics.

JUNIOR STATESMEN are, Row 1: Kathy Darcy, John Glaser, Linda Sharpesher, Julie Manderbach, Don Hartley. Row 2: Susie Elsbree, Gary Manulkin, Christine French, Sue Greenleaf, Kay Lensar, Fred Rosenberg.

SEEKING ADVICE from advisor Mr. Charles Hicks for the coming Statesmen convention are Paul Beckett and Nancy Allen.

CAMPAIGN SPEECHES are presented by Junior Statesmen officers Heathe Stokes, President Sal DiMarco, and Dave Beckett.

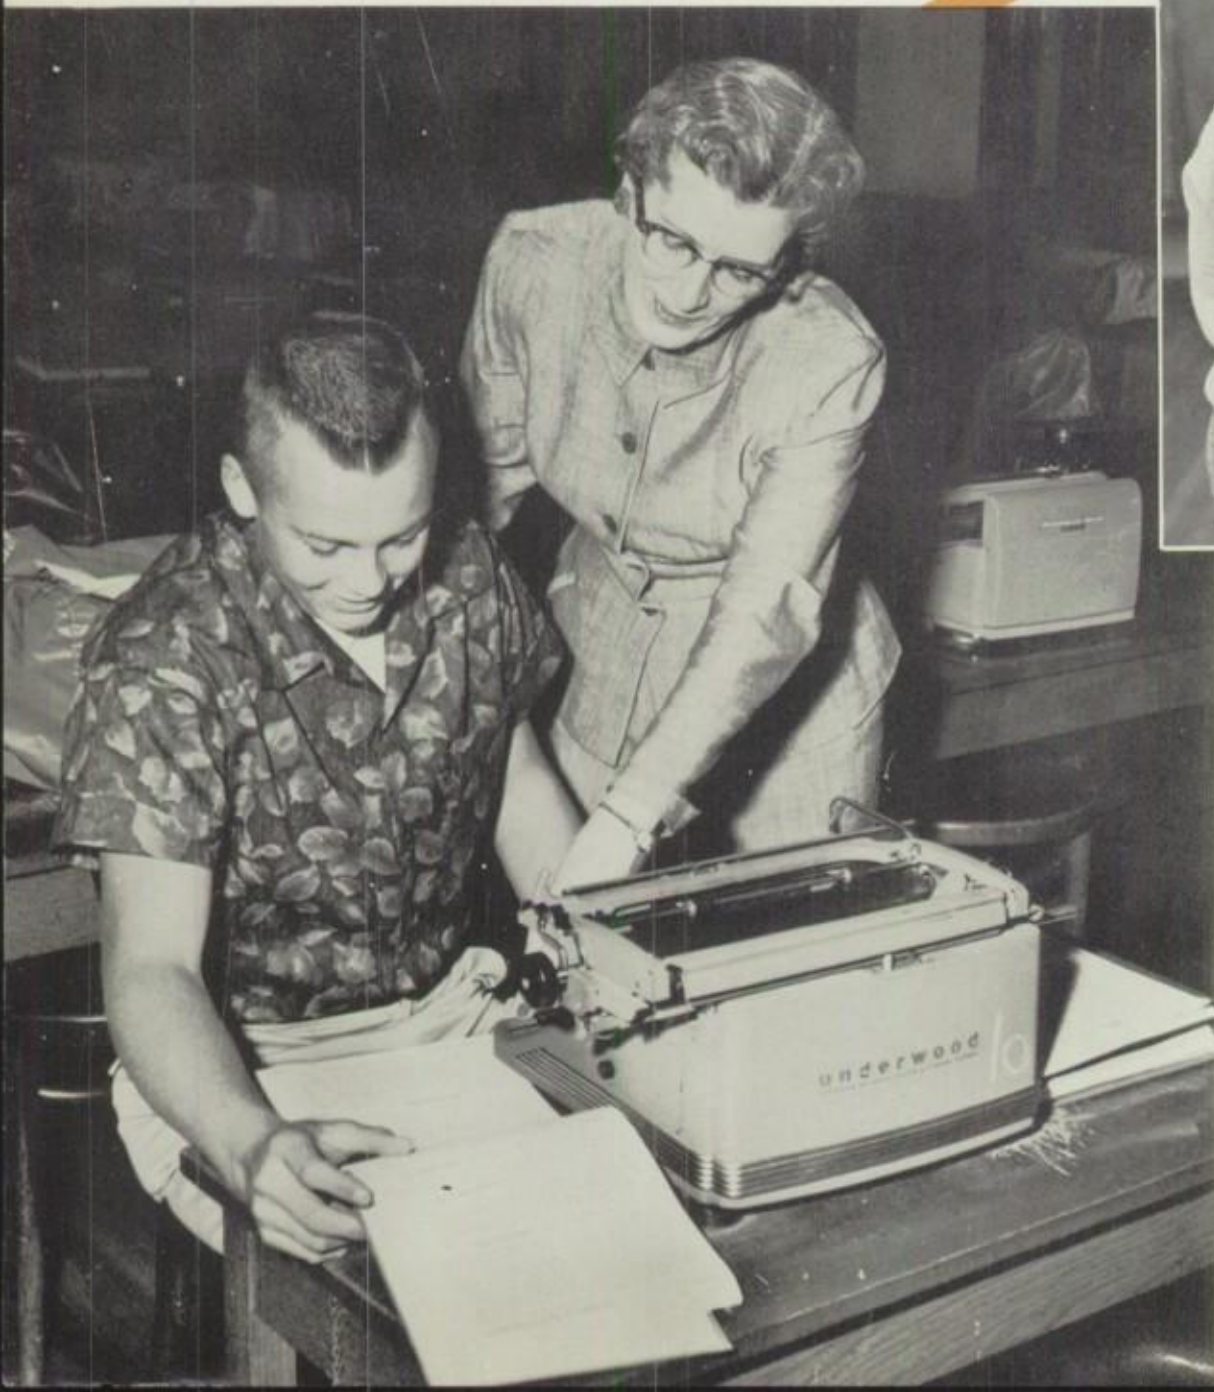

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

CO-ORDINATES GROUP ACTIVITIES

THE PROPOSED SCRIBBLER'S CONSTITUTION gets a thorough inspection by members of the Inter Club Council: Sal Di Marco, Jerry Liebarsbach, Christine D'Arc, Julie Bradford, Carolyn Broyles, and Vickie Baughman, Emilio Delgado and Miss Margaret Graham, sponsor.

CARLISLE GEORGE receives some words of wisdom from Miss Henrietta Huyssen, sponsor of the 60 Per Club.

AFTER SCHOOL MEETINGS are regular for these Inter-Club Council members. Row 1: Beverly Campbell, Marilyn Chaffee, Janis Goode-moot, Merry O'Connell. Row 2: Sara Carlton, Gail Seabury, Dawn Churchill, Nancy Taylor. Row 3: Warren Haskins, Joe Miller, Peter Rusch, Judie Bradford, Jill Parker.

TO INSURE ORGANIZATION and co-operation between the different clubs at Glendale the presidents of each club form an Inter Club Council under the leadership of Julie Bradford, co-ordinator of organizations, and Miss Margaret Graham. The Inter Club Council also inspects and approves the constitutions of the various groups.

EXAMINING THE TOOLS of their trade are Rona Schumann, Janice Kinnan, Pat Ferguson, and Kittie Johnson.

SPEEDY TYPISTS

THE HUNT AND PECK system is not for these skilled typists. To join the 60 per club, they must race the clock in rigorous time tests: 60 words for ten minutes.

CHECKING THE SPEAKERS for a football game are Bob Asquith and Jack Crosby.

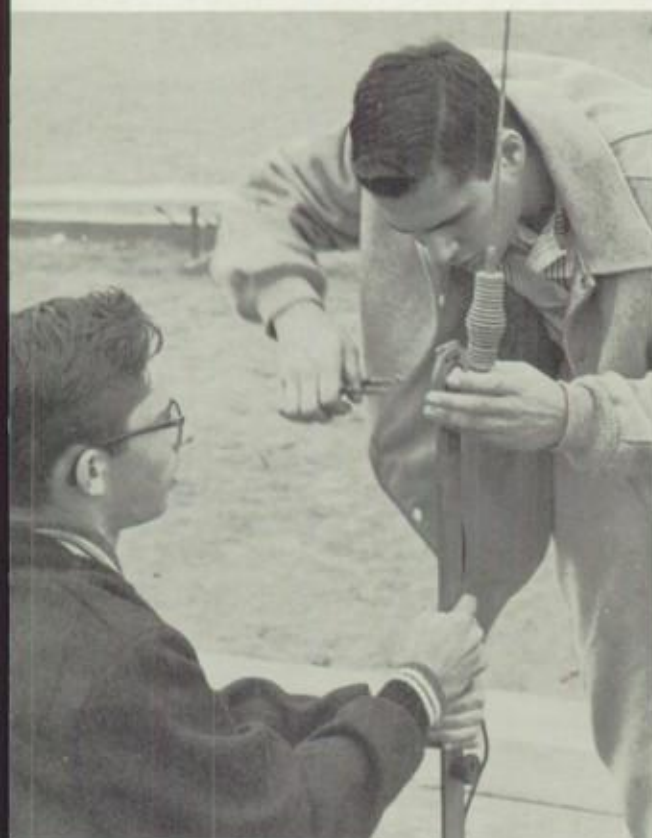

TRANSISTORS, RESISTORS

THE HAM CLUB

THE AMATEUR RADIO OPERATORS, sponsored by Mr. Howard Fay, have a chance to develop their skills and get new ideas from fellow operators in Glendale's Ham Club.

STUDYING THE INTRICATE parts of the radio are Eddie Knox and Lee Molho.

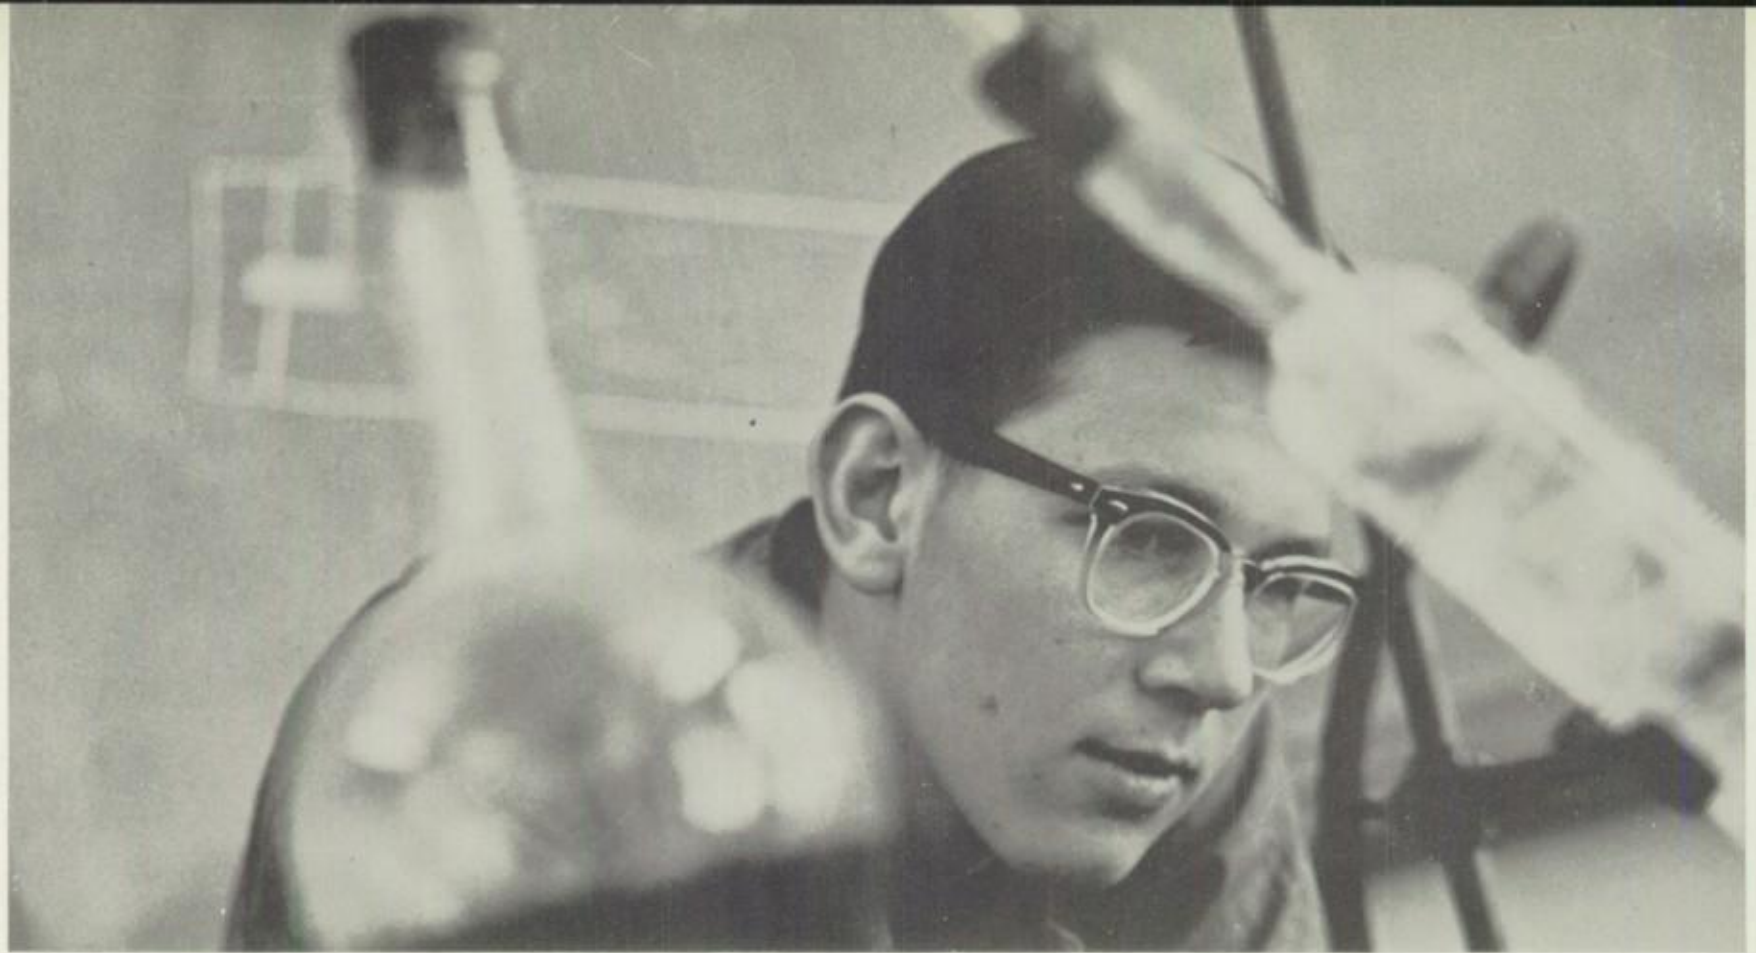

LEE MOLHO AND BILL SPEEDY of the Ham Club set up an aerial for the football games.

JOIN 60 PER CLUB

60 PER TYPIST, Gary Nelson demonstrates his skill as club members: Gail Seaburg, Emma Lou French, Beverly Campbell, Carlisle George, Ann De Rosa, and Karen Stenberg time him.

"THE FUTURE MAY BE FOUND IN A TEST TUBE." Science may not be his future career, but Mike Sander finds his scope of knowledge vastly widened through his experiments with science.

SCIENCE CLUB BECKONS THE CURIOUS MIND

THIS GEIGER COUNTER proves very interesting to the members of the Science Club as Mr. George Bundick, advisor, explains about its complicated mechanism to Tom Hendricks, Art Duncan, Mike Sander, and Bill Speedie.

ONE OF THE MOST HIGHLY STRESSED fields of today's living is explored by the Science Club through visits to the Los Angeles County Museum, excursions to the beach to study minute sea creatures, field trips to scientific exhibits, and a trip to Mount Palomar Observatory.

BLOOD BANK DONORS are served juice by Jr. Red Cross members Charlene Milius, Donna Morosi and Linda Skursch.

UNLIKE PREVIOUS YEARS when representatives were elected from homerooms, the Junior Red Cross consisted of only voluntary membership this year. One of their primary tasks was completing projects begun by last year's group, as well as filling Red Cross boxes and leading in the school drive for Red Cross funds.

THEY SPREAD GOOD WILL THROUGH SERVICE

JR. RED CROSS

VOLUNTEERING THEIR HELP, the members of the Junior Red Cross: Charlene Milius, Leon Cunningham, Gail Townson, Richard Graham, Pat Watson, Pam Thompson, Alice Randall, Linda Skursch and Donna Morosi worked on various activities with the Glendale Red Cross.

"ENROLL FOR SERVICE" is the motto of officers of the Jr. Red Cross: Alice Randall, sophomore representative; Leon Cunningham, president; Jill Parker, secretary-treasurer, and Linda Skursch, junior representative.

SMILING JUNIOR RED CROSS advisors are Miss Elva Marshall and Miss Naomi Beck.

LEADERS OF THE DEBATE CLUB happily receive congratulations for tournament victories: Nancy Allen, secretary; Gary Hickling, treasurer; Sal Di Marco, president; Don Hartley, director of publicity, and Laurie Smith, vice president.

FOUR DEBATERS ready to leave for a meet at University of Southern California with their sponsor are Don Hartley, Laurie Smith, Advisor Mr. Leslie Wood, Sal Di Marco, and Gary Hickling.

PREPARING THE PROS AND CONS for a special debate contest, Stuart McDougal reads his opinions to the club.

"RESOLVED that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education." This is one of the subjects debate clubs throughout Southern California discussed at their tournaments this year. A member of each team enters the debate room where he is told whether he will argue for or against the proposition. Gold medals for winning four out of four rounds were given to Gary Manulkin and John Glaser, while Nick Hesse and Don Heartley received trophies for three out of three wins.

THEY MEET AND COMPETE WITH

DEBATERS

ORATORS

EXPOUNDING HIS VIEWS for a coming debate is Joel Miller.

BUDGET PROBLEMS plague almost every organization and the Orators are no exception as officers: Mary Pat Schmidtt, Sal DiMarco, Janis Goodemoot, Advisor Mr. Fred McClure, Joel Miller, and Pat Nichols go over the year's expenditures.

ACCLAIM CAME to Glendale's Orator Club when Janie Parkhouse, Janis Goodemoot and Joel Miller placed in the North Hollywood Tournament. The Orators compete in many tournaments with other Southland schools, giving them an opportunity to express their interpretations of dramatic works.

SPEAKERS FROM OTHER SCHOOLS

IN ONE OF THEIR MORE PLACID MOMENTS are the Orators, kneeling: Joel Miller, Ross Sullivan, Peter Rusch, Joel Kotin, Sal DiMarco. Row 2: Janie Parkhouse, Janis Goodemoot, Kathy Briscoe, Carol Wynhausen, Sponsor Mr. Fred McClure, Laurie Smith, Beverly Campbell, Judy Warren, Ruth Gurley, Deanne Mistretta, Celeste Kovalon, Joan Matta, Mary Pat Schmidtt, Pat Nichols.

STUDYING LINES for a new play are Thespians (bottom) Emilo Delgado, Keleta Morgan, Joy Burton, Clair Crowley and Jeri Moulder. (Top) Dana Roe, Bruce Rice, Charles Buck, Mona Mongoulia, Reva Johnson, Cindy Radner, Joel Kotin and Deanne Mistretta. The group, composed of students interested in theater arts, meets under the sponsorship of Mr. Harry Francisco.

THESPIANS GREASE PAINT AND FOOTLIGHTS

"GET THE POINT?" asks Joy Burton of Kaleta Morgan during rehearsal.

"TOUCHE!" exclaims Joel Kotin as he lunges at Emilo Delgado while Kaleta Morgan, Reva Johnson, Cindy Radner, Joy Burton and Jeri Moulder gape in mock horror.

PEP CLUB

PEP CLUB INCLUDES, Row 1: Penny Morris, Sue Ann Murry, Carol Haley, Julie Jedilca, Sharon Dedo, and Paulene Massey. Row 2: Carol Seitz, Gloria Freeman, Wilberta Carlson, Carol Messmer, Gretchen Mausnest, Paulene McAlister, Marilyn Gilleran. Row 3: Mary Ellen Hudson, Lynn Stewart, Gretchen Hartwig, Geebie Alisch, Carolyn Ahlers, Cindy Radner, Carolyn Daniels. Standing: Don Hartley, Dick Netherland, Fred Thompson, Scott McDonald, Clay Crowley, Bob Asquith, Deanne Gray, Mr. Buonaguidi, Reva Johnson, Virginia Pool, Linda Abbott, Nancy Goldin, Nancy Harris, Muffet Bailey.

SURROUNDING THE DYNO STICK are the officers of the Pep Club: Paul Beckett, president; Dave Beckett, vice president; Gail Seabury, Linda Odell, card stunts; Mr. Aido Buonaguidi, sponsor; Sandy McDuggal, treasurer, and Sharon Arendale, secretary.

*Sandy - You're a wonderful person - Thank You Very Much for all your help with Pep Club.
Mr. Buonaguidi*

THEY AROUSE SCHOOL SPIRIT

"OH! IT'S ALL OVER YOU," Kathy Scheels laughs to Sandy Westlund as they help Tory Yaphe lime the "G."

THEY REALIZE THE CHALLENGE AND REWARDS OF EDUCATION

IN LINE to receive cards which will allow them to be student teachers in their own classes are Future Teacher Club members: Nancy Goldin, Gloria Forman, Carolyn Adolphe, Valerie Piersol, Sharon Nelson, Gretchen Maussnest, Donna Ingram, Karen Steinger, Charlene Hass, Linda Skursch, Carol Haley, Joy Caldwell, Elaine Tupper, Carol Blood, Bill Willis, Paulene McAlister.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

DISCOVERING THE RESPONSIBILITIES of a teacher is Carol Mason, who takes over as "teacher for a day."

A POSITION in the teaching profession is the goal of Future Teacher officers, Carolyn Hughes, Gail Seabury, president, and Carol Mason.

MEMBERS OF THE LATIN CLUB are, Row 1: Sandy Culbertson, Penny Morris, Donna Morise, Sonia Landsverk, Mierill Brown, Phillip Condit. Row 2: Pauline Massey, Lynn Lanning, Linda Glasster, Judy Haythorne, Carolyn Fisher. Row 3: John Samuels, Sandy Barondess, Linda Swartz, Roy Berkon, Gary Manulkin, John Glasser, Steve Simon, Jim Hawk.

THEY STUDY THE GLORY THAT WAS ROME

CLUB OFFICERS, Lois Hartman, treasurer, and Gretchen Maussnest, secretary, enthusiastically discuss Latin verb conjugations with program chairman Bruce Daniels.

MRS. CHARLOTTE ASELTIME, advisor, and Carol Mason, vice-president, laughingly excuse President Peter Rusch for not appearing for his picture.

LATIN CLUB

LATIN MAY BE CALLED A DEAD LANGUAGE but Glendale's Latin Club appears to be very much alive and active. Although the meetings are conducted in English, a Roman atmosphere prevails and at the club banquet members even wore togas. At the end of the year three scholarships are given to deserving students. All students presently enrolled in a Latin class are eligible to join the group.

KATHY JOHNSTON AND NANCY HOUGH are only two of the many students who sing Christmas carols in French.

FRENCH CLUB OFFICERS check over the plans for their Christmas party: Miss Sylvia Klasson, advisor; Peggy Burns; Val LeGlereg; Barby Waite; Jeane Silverston, president; Peter Rusch; Muffet Bailey; and Janie Parkhouse.

THE FRENCH CLUB

THE "MESSIEURS" and "mesdemoiselles" of the French Club become better acquainted with the customs and culture of France by observing films, reading books and magazines, and listening to guest speakers. These members of the French Club reciting from their French books are: Pauline McAllister, Heath Stokes, Emily Maniccia, Peter Rusch, Melinda Zemke, Kathy Waters, Anne Lea Welshofer, Val LeClereg, Carol Halley, Donna Barnes, Steve D'arc, Carol Bendicsen, Nancy Hough, Kathy Johnston and Harriet Gomes.

SPANISH CLUB

MOVIES, singing, parties, and games all done in "Espanol" are among the various activities of the Spanish Club. This year the Spanish Club, under the supervision of Mr. Glenn Henderson, advisor, traveled to Santa Barbara to visit the Mission. They also had an outing to see Flamenco dancer Jose Greco.

FINDS RICH HERITAGE IN CALIFORNIA

ROLL CALL of the Spanish Club includes, Row 1: Mary McMahon, Deane Mistretta, Judy Hostetler, Mary Wynhausen. Row 2: Jennette Peplow, Carol Sietz, Geebie Alisch, Marcia Kalde. Standing: Carolee

WATCHING JUDIE FOX pin a souvenir of their visit to see Jose Greco on the bulletin board are Mr. Glenn Henderson, and Marcia Kalde.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS are Meg Dawson, Geebie Alisch, Judy Hostetler, and Mr. Henderson, advisor.

PLANNING A MAKE-BELIEVE EXCURSION to somewhere in the far east are World Friendship Club members: Linda Davis, Penny McElroy, Dave Lofftus, Carol Bendicson, and Mr. Gallagher, advisor.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP CLUB

THE A.F.S. COMMITTEE, Esther Hagen, Marcia Newell, Pauline McAlister, Don Hagen, and John Whittaker, is ready to sell tickets to the student body of Glendale and the public for the pizza dinner.

COUNTING TICKETS for a pizza dinner, Sonia Hubner reminds Pauline Massey and Marilyn Gillernan that this is to raise money to bring a foreign exchange student here next year.

FOR THE PAST FEW YEARS Glendale High School has participated in the American Field Service Exchange program in sponsoring foreign students. These students, after taking tests and giving talks, are selected by the American Field Service Committees throughout the world. This year Paulette Peneff from Toulouse, France, and Dave Walker from Southampton, England, were chosen to attend Glendale High. The A.F.S., supported by the student body, raised money to bring these students to Glendale.

AMERICAN CHEESE MOLD differs little from that of Southampton, Dave Walker discovers with the help of Chris D'arc. Biology is one of the six subjects that Dave takes at Glendale High.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

*Dear Study,
I've certainly appreciated
your fine Glendale spirit and all you have done for our school. Keep up your spirit

Chris
D'arc*

ON STAGE, Chris D'arc demonstrated a Japanese dance that she learned on the boat en route to Japan this summer. Chris was one of the American students given the opportunity to spend three months in a foreign country. Dave Walker and Paulette Peneff, after being introduced to the student body, watched Chris.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

FRIENDSHIP AND SERVICE

TRUTH, FRIENDSHIP AND SERVICE, the motto of Glendale High School's Girls' League, was successfully carried out this year with the help of the first semester board. These girls sponsored a "Howdy Day" for all the sophomore girls to introduce them to Glendale High. They also put on the annual Stunt Show, decorated and gave a stunt to the boys at the annual Football Banquet and held various assemblies for the girls.

KATHI WATERS PRESIDED OVER THE FIRST SEMESTER'S GIRLS' LEAGUE BOARD.

AMONG THE MANY PROJECTS of the philanthropic committee was the making of Thanksgiving hospital tray favors. Penny Vargish, chairman, was assisted by Donna Morosi and Leslie Stowe.

FIRST SEMESTER GIRLS' LEAGUE BOARD includes Anna Mae Wheelbarger, welfare; Joyce Mothershed, secretary; Judy Scribner, vice-president; Kathi Waters, president; Vicky Baughman, treasurer; Sharon Arendale, program; Lynne Davis, regulated dress. Second row: Penny Vargish, philanthropic; Michael Wellman, publicity; Joyce Hubbard,

SECOND SEMESTER GIRLS' LEAGUE BOARD INCLUDES: Barbara Thompson, senior representative; Emma Lou French, program chairman; Anna Mae Wheelbarger, vice president; Sharon Arendale, president; Penny Vargish, treasurer; Lynne Davis, secretary; Jan Metcalf, decoration chairman. "THAT'S PERFECT!" Susie Schroeder exclaims to Carol Nelson and Wendy Woodford as they put up a poster on the Dutch Treat Dance.

SHARON ARENDALE, second semester's girls' league president flashes a happy smile after her installation.

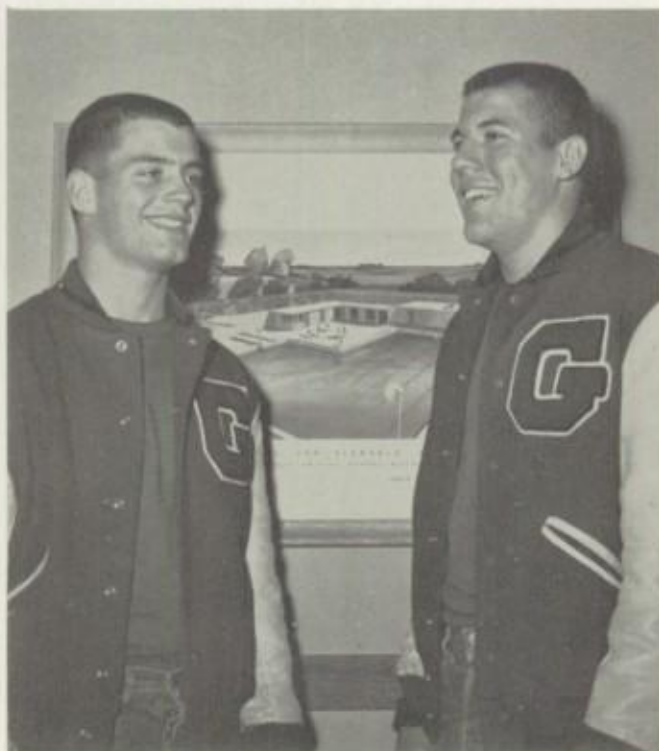

THE DAD-DAUGHTER BANQUET was the first project which the second semester Girls' League Board sponsored. That was followed by the Dutch Treat Dance, which they put on in collaboration with the Boys' League Board. They judged Hoover's slack day and then were treated to dinner by the Hoover board. All the money raised this year by Girls' League was earmarked for a scholarship fund established in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Jackson, sponsor of the group for many years, who is retiring this June.

FIRST AND SECOND SEMESTER vice-presidents of Boys' League, Dennis Simila and Ernie Lund, enter Mr. Beck's office for a board meeting.

BOYS' LEAGUE

MEMBERSHIP AND ACTIVITIES

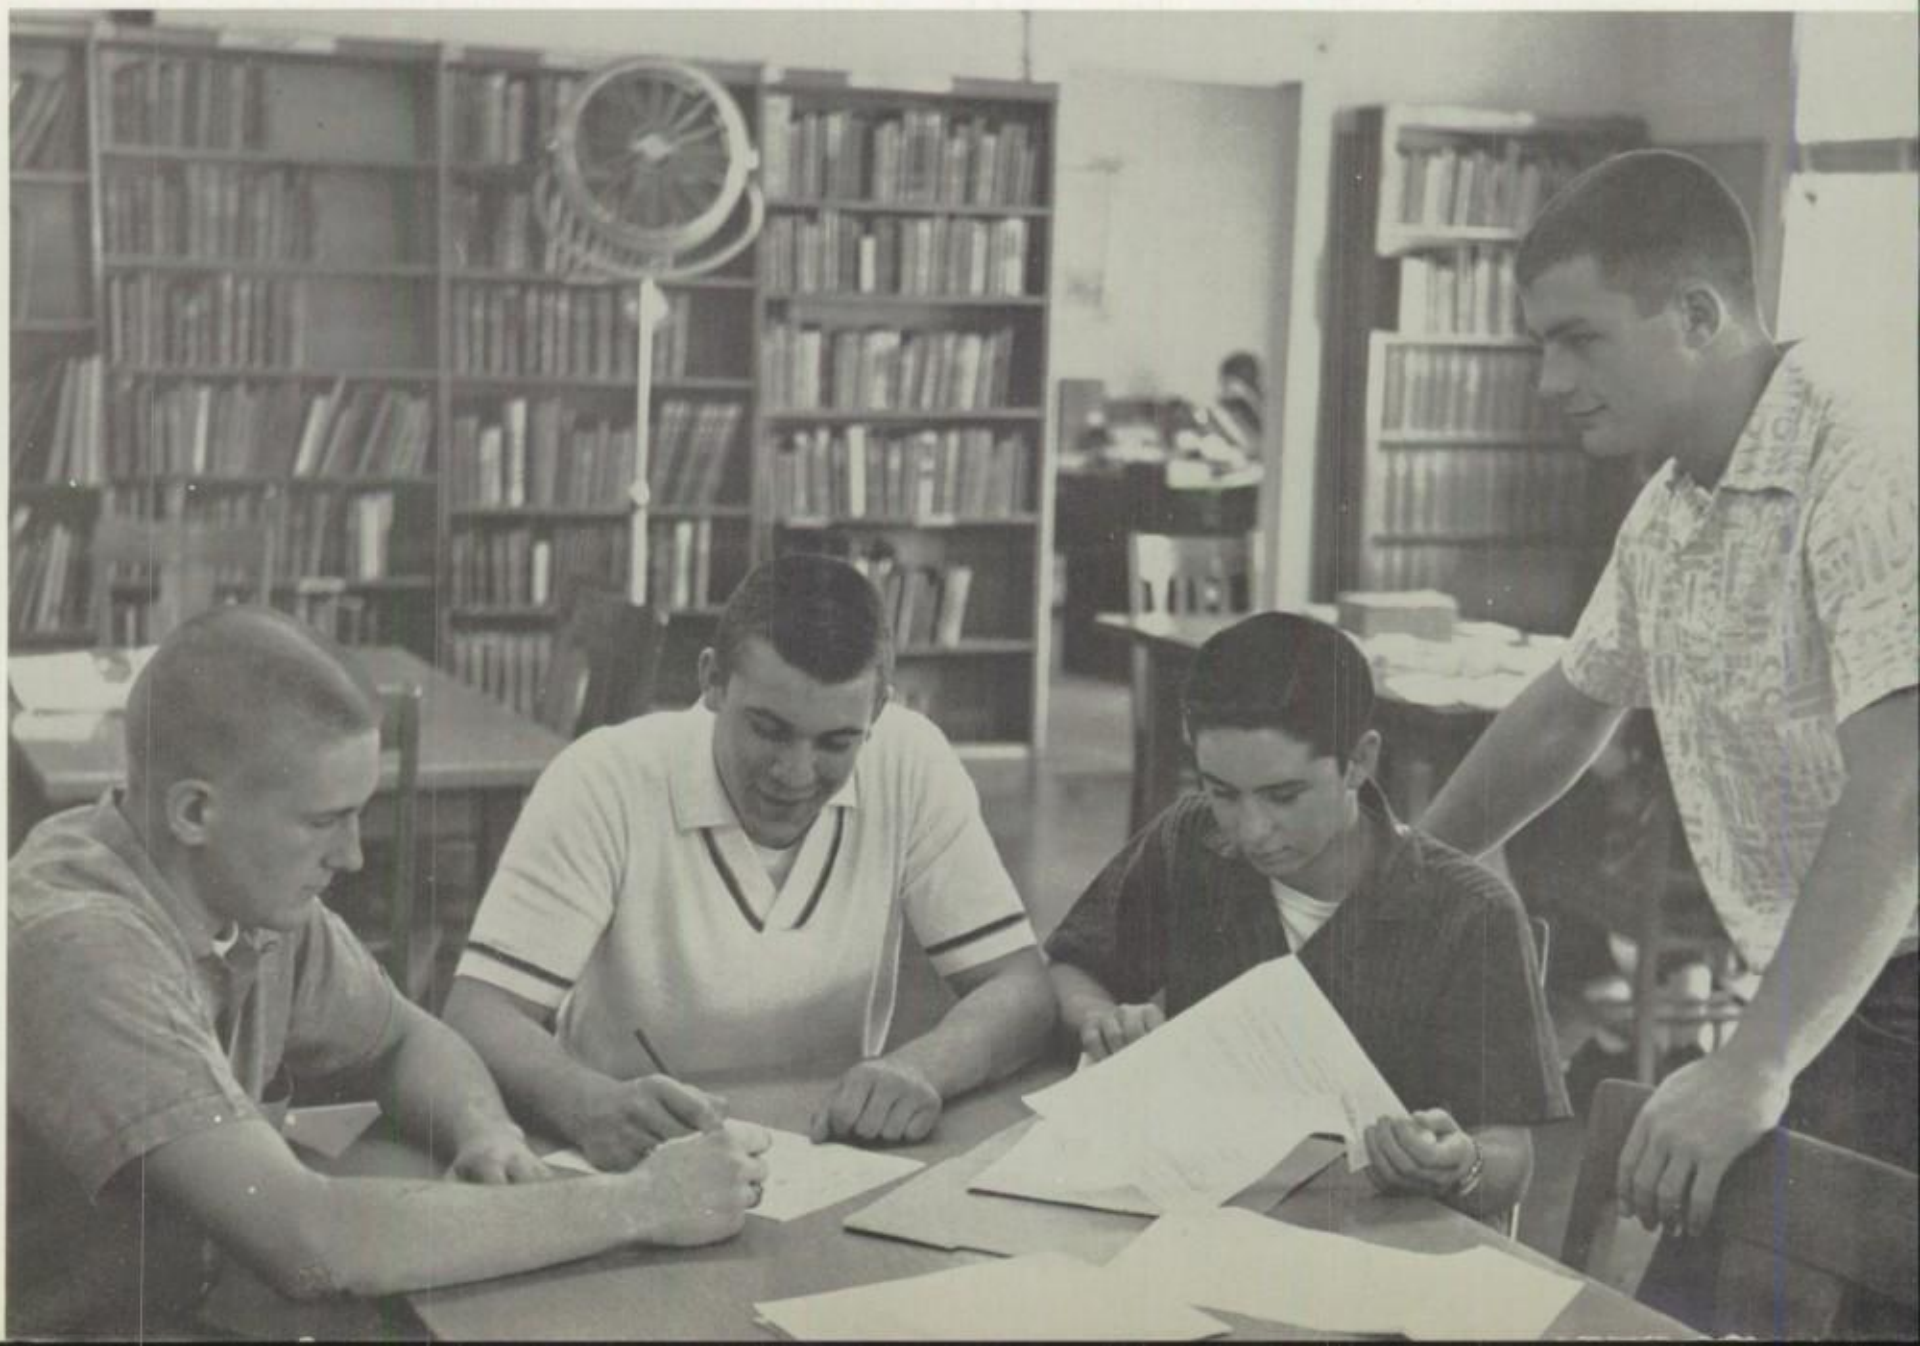

PRESIDENTS, Bill Jencks, first semester, and Darryl Wright, second semester, discuss future plans for Boys' League.

READING OVER MINUTES from the last board meeting with Mr. Harry Beck, boys' vice-principal, are Robin Paulsen, Leon Cunningham, and Darrell Sutherland.

AN ASSEMBLY from General Electric was one of the projects sponsored by the Boys' League for the student body. Below, each of the class representatives, Dick Peterson, junior; Darryl Wright, president; Sandy Rudolph, sophomore, and Bill Jencks, senior, organize their ideas to present to the Girls' League Board. The two Boards combined their efforts to sponsor the Sand Shifters Shuffle, which was the theme of the annual Dutch Treat Dance.

PLANS FOR THE CANCER DRIVE are discussed by Key Club officers: John Tidmarsh, Charles Buck, Joel Miller, Steve Olson, Bill Taliaferro. Row 2: John Whitaker, Tom Dose, Clark Jolley.

KEY CLUB

BRINGS SERVICE TO COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL

THE KEY CLUB, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis, encourages boys to take an active interest in their community. Every week two boys attend a Kiwanis' luncheon and at the end of the year the entire Key Club is honored at a program given by the parent organization.

CHANGING THE ANNOUNCEMENTS posted on the marquis in front of school is a task performed by Key Club members, John Whitaker, Tom Dose, and Gary Hickling.

THEY LEARN TO BE

IN SERVICE TO THEIR COMMUNITY, the Junior Civitans and Civinettes work together to support and promote fund raising projects. They sold fruit cakes and used the proceeds to buy presents which were distributed at a party for underprivileged children. They also painted the campus trash cans and worked on the Cancer drive.

FREE SAMPLES of fruit cake are served at a P.T.A. meeting by Civinettes Layne Wells, Sherrill Johnson, and Civitan Jim Baugh, to encourage fruit cake sales.

CO-ORDINATORS of Civinette plans were officers Rita Swartz, President Sherrill Johnson, Gail Seabury, Linda Sauer, Lynne Davis, Jean Sieverston, and Lynne Hoffman.

THE GLENETTES, under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Campbell, act as guides for the many programs, plays, concerts and the Graduation exercises of Glendale High School. They also serve as hostesses for the parents at Back to School Night and escort the speakers on Career Day. A familiar sight at Glendale events, the Glenettes may be identified by their dark skirts and white blouses. In addition to their school services they found time to knit slippers for the Children's Hospital.

49'ERS PROVIDE STUDENT REGULATION ON CAMPUS

THE 49'ERS MAINTAIN ORDERLY CONDUCT in the halls and keep them empty during each of the two lunches in order to allow the many classes in session an opportunity to study. The boys rotate in checking the halls, which gives all the boys an opportunity to be of service to their school. They issue citations for students caught violating provisions of the school constitution.

"YOU WERE DRIVING TOO FAST," Larry Edwards, president, says as he issues a citation to Leon Cunningham and Chuck Brady for driving too fast on Moyse Boulevard. Helping Larry is Steve Chenoweth, vice president, and Clay Crowley, secretary.

JIM GORIS AND MARV TANGNEY have been caught in the halls without a pass, and Bill Hodgson, 49'er writes out a ticket to student court.

TO BECOME LIFE MEMBERS of the California Scholastic Federation is the goal of many Glendale students. It takes four semesters, one of which must be in the senior year, maintaining a B plus average, to earn a life membership in C.S.F. To join the Honor Society a student must have at least three A's in solid subjects. A customary activity of the society is the annual banquet for members and parents which was held this year in March in the school cafeteria.

HONOR SOCIETY members for the first time are, Row 1: John Gudat, Harry Kelly, Linda Weick, Tom Gordon, Sue Johnson, Barbara Howorth, Carolyn Maneki, Dale Mesec, Barbara Averine, Leha Fulton, Joy Caldwell, Barbara Bartlett, Ann Lea Welshofer, Marcia Morley, Lloyd Godlis, Dave Case, Bruce Plasch. EACH YEAR the American Field Service sends students to foreign lands. Juniors competing for the summer trip from Glendale are Jeanne Kaye, Don Haslam, Barbara Waite, and Jill Parker.

BULLOCKS' ART EXHIBIT awards went to Barbara Philips, Elaine Mathias, Kathy Hamel, George Barstow, Harry Besenski, Jim Baker, Bill Martini, and Charles De Haras.

COMPETITION WAS HIGH in the written examination stressing home economics given to girls at Glendale, and the winner, Barbara Phillips, was awarded the Betty Crocker Scholarship.

SOME EVEN EARN SPECIAL AWARDS

TRIPS TO WASHINGTON, D.C., Europe, and to Girls' and Boys' State in Sacramento were some of the awards won during the year by Glendalites. Special merits and scholarships for outstanding achievement in various fields were donated by national as well as local groups.

LAST YEAR JUNIORS competed with students all over the United States in the National Merit Test. Nancy Taylor, Pam Thompson, Sara Carlton, Lee Molho, Bill Speedie, and John Komer all went on to compete in the state finals from Glendale High.

TROPHIES FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENTS were awarded by the Bank of America to Lee Molho, science and math, Sara Carlton, fine arts, Chris D'arc, liberal arts, and Paul Beckett, vocational arts.

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT CALIFORNIA GOVERNMENT, Bill Jencks, Bob Wulf, Peter Rusch and Dennis Similia were sent to Sacramento as delegates to Boys' State. Kathy McFarland was the delegate to Girls' State.

THE EXCHANGE CLUB each year selects two students to send to Washington, D.C., during Easter vacation, one from Hoover and one from Glendale. Roy Schmidt and Peter Rusch, representing Glendale, received runner-up plaques from Dr. Sam Coleman, while Nelson Rising was sent on the trip.

THE GLENDALE ELKS CLUB gives students awards for exceptional leadership and scholastic ability. By submitting notebooks covering their school activities, Gail Seabury and Nelson Rising won second and first prize respectively.

COMPETING IN SPORTS tournaments with other schools is not exclusive with boys, since girls may demonstrate their proficiency and skill through the Girls' Athletic Association, which sponsors playdays with G.A.A. members from all over southern California. Every Tuesday and Wednesday nights these athletes stay after school for instruction in sports ranging from archery, which Judy Warner demonstrates, to swimming.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Sandy Barondess, first semester G.A.A. president, the G.A.A. Installation Banquet was held January 29 for the incoming officers. Gail Seabury, second semester president, led the preparations for the playday held on March 18, called "Geisha Girl" at which Glendale members were hostesses for four hundred girls. Another new activity undertaken by members of G.A.A. was the addition of a Bowling Club this semester, which met Thursdays at the Glen Bowl.

"G" CLUB THEY QUALIFY FOR MEMBERSHIP AFTER EARNING THEIR LETTER

RIVALS TO THE BOYS' LETTERMAN'S CLUB is the girls' "G" Club, composed of feminine sports enthusiasts who have lettered in G.A.A. Besides their regular after-school sports, they were hostesses for the Dance Symposium and they also led many of the play day activities, sold school beanies at the beginning of the year, and aided the March of Dimes.

"G" CLUB members planning their March of Dimes project are: Dorothy Kimball, Carolyn Ahlers, Sharon Arendale, Linda Hoy, and Reva Johnson.

DISCUSSING PLANS for future playday activities are: Pat Watson, Gail Townsan, Nancy Taylor, Cindy Radner, Gail Seabury, Mary Dawson, Joanne Vanderbyl, and Toni Martin.

BELOW, FIRST SEMESTER "G" CLUB OFFICERS, Sharon Arendale, treasurer; Miss Jeanette Johnson, sponsor; Pat Pascoe, vice-president; Joanne Vanderbyl, secretary, and Sandy Muhpry; president pause in their planning of projects to be undertaken by the "G" Club.

SPARKLERS

TRAIN FOR DRILL TEAM

TRAINING FOR NITROETTES, the Sparklers, dressed in their white hooded shirts and plaid skirts, participated in the half-time activities of all the home football games and the Glendale-Hoover game in the Rose Bowl. They formed a red "G" during several of the home games and performed at the championship game with Mount Carmel. Also this year, the Sparklers marched in the Santa Claus, March of Dimes, and Days of Verdugo Parades.

PERFORMING IN HALF-TIME activities were the Sparklers, Row 1: Toni Teachout, Sandra Lee Hanger, Sheila Di Mundo, Madine Lindstedt, Darlene Taylor, Esther Davies, Jacquie Karnay, Kathie Green, Carolyn Nelson, Deanna Nichols, Elaine Kako, Susan Foster. NITROETTES

WANTED—GIRLS WITH a year of training and good posture grades. These are the requirements a girl must have before she is eligible to be a Nitroette and to participate in keeping school spirit alive by performing in half-time, pre-game, and after-game activities, as shown in the picture at the left. Besides football games, the Nitroettes also march in several parades during the year.

PRACTICING FORMATIONS ARE: PHYLLIS KEY, CAROLE DORLON, CINDY GRUEN, SANDY GARABEDIAN, CAROLYN ADOLPHE, CAROL CALER, LORETTA

BUNCH, DIANE AUSTIN, BONNIE YOUNG, MARGARET IMUS.

IN COOPERATION with the band, under the leadership of Mr. Balzer and Emilio Delgado, the Nitroettes, sponsored by Mrs. Patricia Mack, and led by Joanne Vanderbilt and Jenny Davis, put on half-time activities at all home football games.

DYNAMITE STICKS, the symbol of Glendale, are brought to life by Jaynee Paul and Frank Haucke, as they cavort in front of the Glendale rooters.

WHEN RIVALS CLASH at the annual Glendale-Hoover game, excitement predominates. The outcome of the game determines who will have the custody of the Victory Bell. Glendale's smashing defeat of the Tornadoes, 33-7, insured her of keeping the bell for another year. Hoover and Glendale have battled each other in football since 1930. Glendale has won 15 games to Hoover's 13.

Glendale Boys Athletics

RYAN PARKES showering at the end of a game is symbolic of the 1958-59 sports season, which now draws to a close. Glendale's athletes can look back on a very exciting and, in most cases, successful year. Glendale has always ranked high in Foothill League competition and this season was no exception, but even those who didn't do so well shared in the thrill of competing as well as the experience in sportsmanship.

ORBS

A GROUP OF OUTSTANDING ATHLETES and three coaches, Ed Goorjian, Roy Vujovich, and Richard Davis, last year laid the groundwork for an organization consisting of the finest athletes in the school. This group now has about 50 members and is called the Order of the Red and Black, or more popularly, the ORBS. The original group of seven athletes consisted of Darrell Sutherland, Bob Hensler, Dennis Simila, John Hayes, Bill Jencks, Robin Paulsen, and Barry Bottrell. The aim of the ORBS is to promote good sportsmanship, loyalty, school spirit, and to help raise and maintain the social, moral, and physical standards of Glendale High School. The first semester officers for this year were: Bob Hensler, president; Bill Jencks, sergeant-at-arms, and Robin Paulsen, secretary-treasurer.

ORB OFFICERS second semester are: Darrell Sutherland, Roy Schmidt, Dennis Simila, and Tim Vezie.

THE COACHES whose guidance and leadership started the ORBS were Roy Vujovich, Richard Davis, and Ed Goorjian.

GLENDAL HIGH SCHOOL is proud of this year's Varsity Football squad. Under the experienced and able coaching of Roy Vujovich and Ted Andrews, the Dynamiters captured the Foothill League Championship. To add another feather to Glendale's hat, co-captains Bob Hensler and Nelson Rising were the only two grid stars from the Foothill League to be chosen for C.I.F. honors; Hensler was named on the second team and Rising on the third. Bob and Nelson were also named the most valuable back and most valuable lineman in the Foothill League respectively. Others named on the All-League first team were fullback Bill Jencks, End John Hayes, and junior guard Damon Bame. Named on the second team was center Ernie Lund, End Darryl Wright, and Blockingback Barry Bottrell were recognized on the third team.

SHIFTY TAILBACK Bob Hensler is finally caught from behind and pulled down, after piling up yardage around left end against Pasadena.

ANTICIPATION is evident on the faces of these Dynamiters who are hoping they can contain Mount Carmel within its own territory.

THE DYNAMITERS started the season against El Monte with an unproven and very inexperienced line since most of the front wall was made up from last year's Junior Varsity. This new line performed brilliantly in every game of the season from El Monte right up to the C.I.F. play-off game with Mount Carmel. The backfield, however, was a different story, being comprised mostly of seasoned veterans with at least a year of Varsity experience.

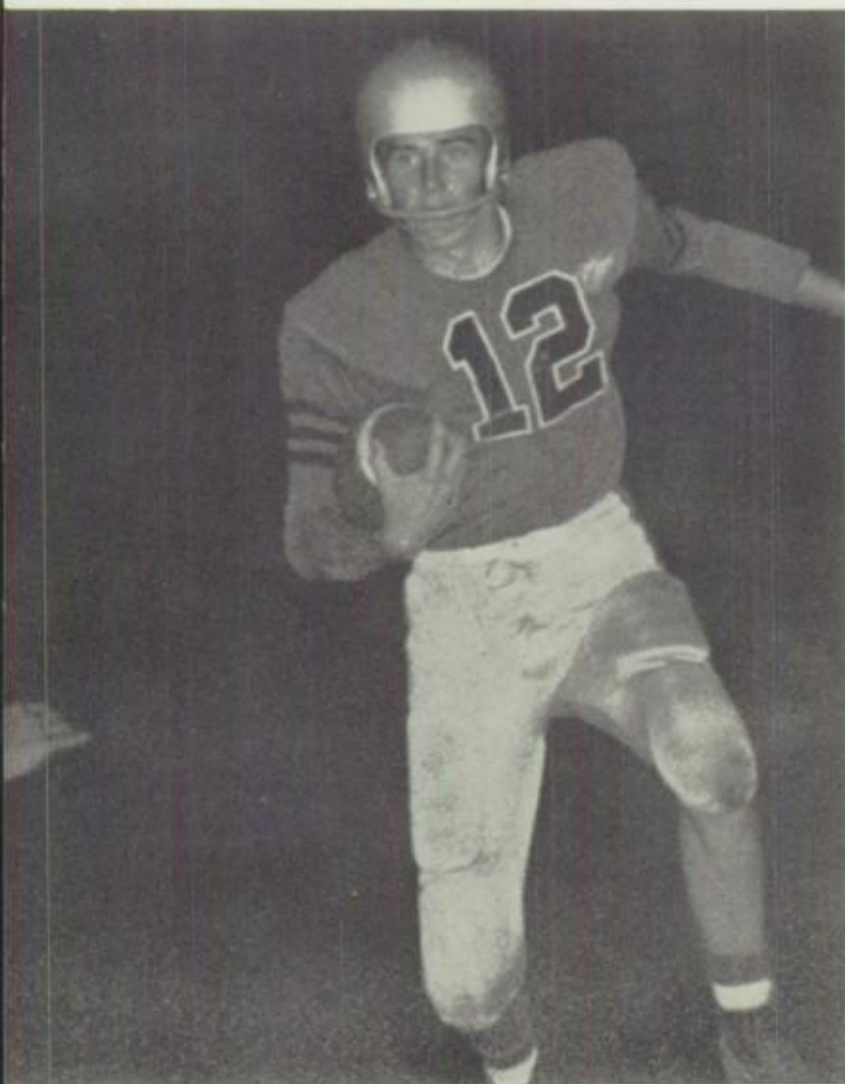

CAUGHT FROM BEHIND is Halfback Kent Kuster after he returns a kickoff in the Alhambra game.

GLENDALE TIPPED EL MONTE in the season opener by a score of 7-0 in one of the closest games of the year. It was the first Dynamiter victory over the Lions in 2 years. The public was delighted with Glendale's impressive line and well-balanced back-field.

The Nitros' next encounter was with the hard-fighting Santa Monica Vikings. The outcome would have been discouraging to any other team but the Dynamiters—Glendale lost to Samohi, 21-13.

The Dynos were quick for a comeback as they routed the Alhambra Moors, 33-6, on the following week. Bob Hensler proved his passing ability by completing 11 out of 18 passes for 150 yards, also gaining 83 yards on the ground. Ace Fullback Bill Jencks gained another 66 yards the hard way—up the middle.

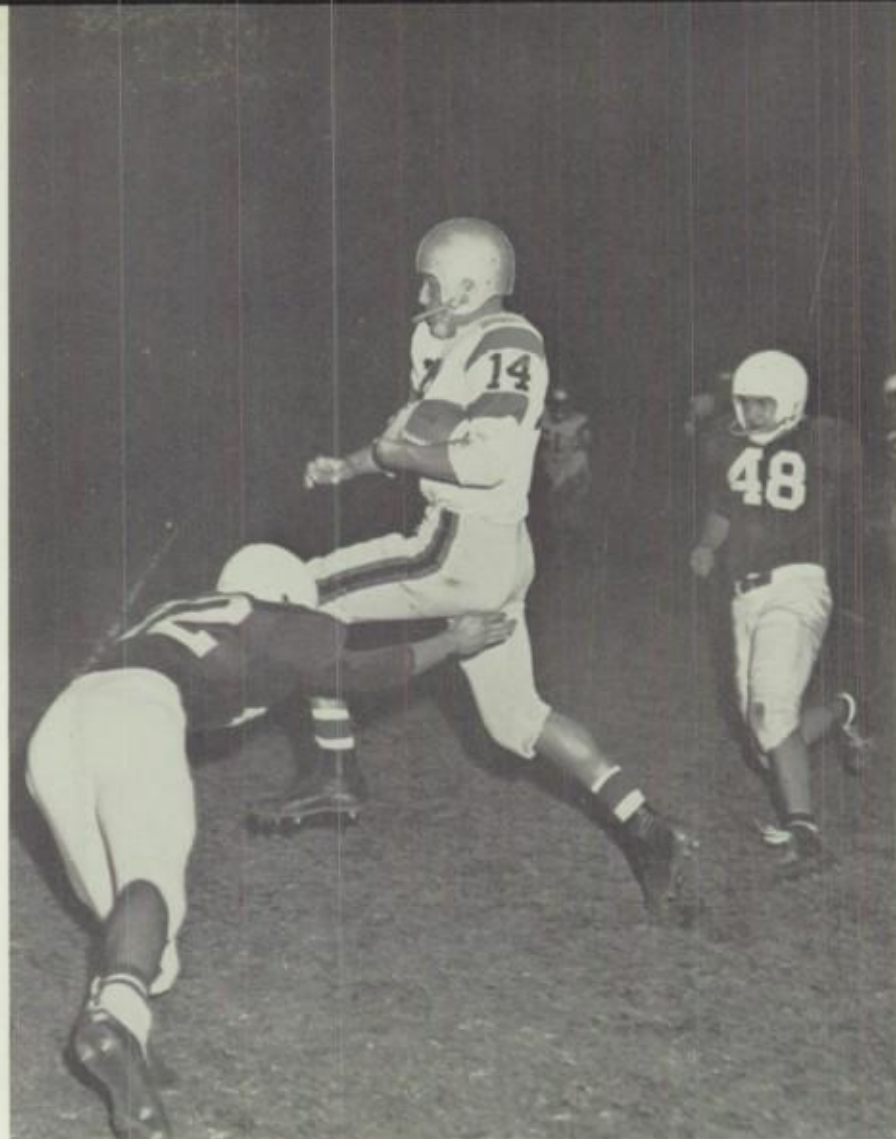

TAILBACK TIM BICE PICKS UP YARDAGE AGAINST EL MONTE LIONS.

THE DYNOS, fresh from a 33-6 victory over the Alhambra Moors, ran into stiffer competition against California. The Condors emerged 13-7 victors in the fast-moving tussle.

An explosive Nitro varsity paid back a well-remembered debt by shutting out the Muir Mustangs, 33-0, in the league opener. Most Glendalites recall last year's heartbreaking 20-19 defeat, when the Dynos lost the league championship in a game they were so striving to win. C.I.F. Tailback Bob Hensler ran and passed for more than 200 yards and three touchdowns as Glendale's line tore its heavier opponents to shreds. Halfbacks John Whitney and Jim Weeks, End Daryl Wright, Fullback Bill Jencks and Tailback Tim Bice all took part in the scoring statistics.

FULLBACK BILL JENCKS blasts forward for a first down against Alhambra.

ON THE SCOREBOARD, the Pasadena Bulldogs came closer than any school in the Foothill League to beating the Dynamiters. On the field, however, Pasadena made the poorest showing of any of the Nitro opponents. It was a completely one-sided game from the beginning, with Pasadena netting 48 yards to Glendale's 364. The two spark-plugs for Glendale, Bill Jencks and Bob Hensler, led by Line Coach Ted Andrews' front wall, scored the two touchdowns and gave Glendale the victory. Next to fall to Glendale's mighty varsity were the Burroughs Indians. As was the case with the Muir Mustangs, the only fierce thing about them was their name. Burroughs was completely outclassed from the beginning and can be considered lucky for a 27-0 score.

VARSITY FOOTBALL CONTINUED

GLENDALE AND BURBANK WERE THE TEAMS—14-0 was the score—the Foothill League Championship was the prize, and the Dynamiters were the victors . . . 11,763 people squeezed into Moyse Field to watch the battle royal for the league crown. Bill Jencks and Bob Hensler, behind the hard-charging Nitro line, ran through the Bulldogs for 271 yards out of 269 total yards rushing for Glendale. Meanwhile, the Dyno defense held the highly-touted Burbank eleven to only 93 yards passing and rushing. Glendale picked up another 53 yards passing, giving them a total of 341 net yards passing and rushing. Until this time, Burbank was rated as the sixth best team in the C.I.F. and darkhorse Glendale wasn't rated to even make C.I.F.

DARRYL WRIGHT nabs an aerial in an unusual fashion for the deciding tally of the Burbank game.

A VICTORIOUS DYNAMITER FOOTBALL TEAM carries Coach Roy Vujovich off the field after defeating Hoover 33-7.

IT WAS ON NOVEMBER 23, that the Dynamiters met their cross-town rivals from Herbert Hoover High School in the Rose Bowl. Coach Vujovich's mighty eleven slowed the Tornadoes down to little more than a breeze in an overwhelming 33-7 victory. John Hayes, Tim Bice, Bill Jencks, Barry Bottrell, and Harley Young were the touchdown five for Glendale. Ernie Lund, who acted as offense center and kicking specialist, was successful on 3 out of 5 of the extra points. The Hoover game held bad luck for all-C.I.F. Tailback Bob Hensler, who, because of a knee injury received in the first half, was confined to the bench for the first-round playoff game with Mount Carmel.

GLENDALE BEGAN THE C.I.F. PLAYOFFS without the services of its number one man, Tailback Bob Hensler, who was injured the previous week against Hoover. Tim Bice, whose passing and running ability were not given due credit during the season, came on as full-time playmaker. The one-two punch of Hensler and Bice, which enabled Glendale to have a fresh tailback at all times in previous games, was now missing, but the team made an excellent showing as Glendale went ahead, 19-6, in the first quarter. The Dynamiter line, led by Dick Peterson, Damon Bame, Nelson Rising, and John Crosetti, did a notable job defensively as well as breaking the way for Bice and Fullback Bill Jencks, but the deficit was quickly closed and Mt. Carmel was ahead at the half, 20-19. The Catholic League champs scored one more lone tally before the final gun, and the game ended 27-19.

DYNO TIM BICE dodges would-be Mt. Carmel tacklers in an attempt to pick up yards against the Catholic League Champs.

J.V. FOOTBALL

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL'S JUNIOR VARSITY football squad under the able leadership of Coach Gary Hess, and co-captains Jim Stratton and Larry Finn, ended this season with an impressive 5-4 record. Impressive not in the sense of winning all their games, but rather the ability they showed as both individuals and a team. In Coach Hess's own words, "If these boys progress steadily, and keep demonstrating the desire to win, they will make up the core of next year's Varsity squad." The J.V.'s big victory of the year was over Hoover, 6-0. Coach Hess's Squad played a team that will definitely be Hoover's next varsity. This gives all Glendale High students reason to believe that Hoover will once again go down in defeat in next year's Rose Bowl classic.

PHIL CAPPS brings down Burbank end, Dick James, as Dennis Llanan (63), Tom Horton (80), and Roger Dalton (10), make sure he stays down.

COACH LEO ARRANAGA found things a bit rough for this year's blaster squad. The Bee Squad, led by Junior quarterback Roger Dalton, had a season record of three wins and six losses. The league proved to be one of the roughest in recent years.

MIKE WHEATLEY stops Tom Henderson of Burbank as Jerry Bottrell comes to his assistance.

END BOB RAE gathers one in for a touchdown against Burbank.

ALTHOUGH THE BLASTERS had no Foothill League wins to their credit, their performance in one of their pre-League games against the Santa Monica Vikings was outstanding above all nine games of the season. The Blasters routed the Vikings by a 25-0 tally. After this the Blasters started to get unlucky, and before the end of the season nine of their key players saw limited action due to injuries. One of these, Fullback Steve Pirie, was put out of action by a broken ankle. Steve was acclaimed as the top man on the Blaster Squad, and scored nine touchdowns before his injury. Steve is among the top juniors who will be back next year. Others are: Roger Dalton, Cam Hughes, Mike Wheatley, James Maddox, Steve Burlingame, and Paul Nuccio. Recognition should also be given to the graduating Seniors Gary Nelson, Steve Chenoweth, Tom Horton, Richard Ryan, Phil Capps, Ray Hoyal, and lineman of the year Sam Anderson. The Bees can also look forward to a fine bunch of sophomores coming back. Says Coach Leo Arranaga, "Our game with Hoover was truly one we should have won. We outgained them, and out first-downed them, but just didn't make it on the scoreboard. With the material coming back, we should have a good team for 1959."

END GARY CALLIES tries in vain to reach a pass just inches away.

GLENDAL HIGH'S GOLF TEAM started off their 1959 season with their first victory in five years. It seems that the Dynos haven't had a squad in five seasons. In spite of this drawback, Coach Roy Vujovich's swingers had an excellent season. The tee slammers were led by juniors George Winn and Dale Hartleben. Both boys shot consistently in the low 80's.

C. I. F. CHAMPIONS

VARSITY BASKETBALL

THE SHOUT HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD was the one that Glendale fans gave out on March 7, 1959, when the Dynamiters won their first CIF class AAA basketball championship. The Dynos' starting five was sprinkled with great stars, but perhaps the greatest of these was Darrell Sutherland. It was Darrell's sparkling play which landed him on all-loop teams for the past two years, an honor to be envied. But his greatest triumph came when it was announced that he was selected all-CIF player of the year. Sharing all-CIF honors with "Suds" was sensational forward Tim Vezie. Big 6-4" Tim hit for a 16 point average on the season. Giant Tom Dose, a 6-7" junior, averaged 11 points during the season and was thought by most fans to be one of the most outstanding centers in the CIF. Perhaps the fact that he was a junior was the only thing that kept him from being all-CIF. The two remaining factors in the Dynos' success were Gary Hahn and Larry Weeshoff who, although averaging only 5 tallies a game, were brilliant playmakers and excellent defensive men. Individual performances in certain games for the boys were more than eye opening. In one clash with the Azusa Five, Sutherland dunked 43 points, far above his average of 20 points. The remarkable Vezie hit for 27 in an early season tussle with Burbank, and both Hahn and Weeshoff broke into double figures in several games. Also, Tom Dose was outstanding on defense, blocking shots of opposing ballplayers when they drove for baskets. These five boys captured not only a championship but captured a place in the memories of Glendalites for years to come.

FORWARD, TIM VEZIE, shows the smooth action that won him a spot on the all C.I.F. second team.

MR. GENE HAAS, C.I.F. Coach of the Year

ALL GREAT TEAMS have their great coaches, and Mr. Gene Haas is one of the greatest of them all. Haas was named CIF Coach of the Year for the guidance which produced the top team in the C.I.F. The incomparable Darrell Sutherland was named as the top basketball player in the California Interscholastic Federation, and was awarded the highest honor obtainable, that of C.I.F. Player of the Year. At the annual Basketball Banquet, held at Glendale High, Sutherland shared the honor of the team's most valuable player with all-C.I.F. Forward Tim Vezie. Sutherland also received the award for making the most freethrows, with an average of 79%. Vezie received the coveted award for the best rebounder. Larry Weeshoff and Gary Hahn were named as the top defensive players, while Center Tom Dose received the award for the most improved player.

"STRONG TEAM PLAY, both offensively and defensively, proved that Glendale was one of the top 'B' teams in C.I.F.," was the comment of Coach Ed Goorjian about the sparkling "B" hoopsters who ended their season with an impressive 17 wins and 4 losses. The starting five, led by co-captains Roy Schmidt and Don Hagen and backed up by a strong reserve bench, trounced all comers with the exception of cross-town rivals, Hoover. The Blasters dropped all of their three meetings to the Cyclones. Glendale's only other defeat came at the hands of Burroughs. They split one apiece for the season.

VARSITY TRACK

RECORDS

GLENDALE HIGH'S VARSITY TRACK TEAM

for the first time in a decade did not finish in the top division of the Foothill League. Although the Dynos were up to par, the league was particularly tough. The spikesters had to compete with Burbank, Muir, and Hoover, who were three of the top teams in the state. Hoover, in particular, was the top squad the Nitros faced all season. Glendale, however, had many outstanding performers. Bob Serin, senior sprint man, dashed to 10.1 clockings in the 100 and also ran a 22.7 furlong. Gary Wexler, Dyno sprint man, ran several good 120 high races. His best clocking was 15 flat which placed him in with the top ten hurdle men in the C.I.F.

SPRINGING FORWARD at the starter's gun in a 120 yard high-hurdle race against Pasadena are John Greco, Dick Broullard, and Gary Wexler.

ACE SHOT PUTTER, Robin Paulsen, shows the form that won him many first place points during the season.

THE BEST TRACK SHOWINGS were made in field events.

Robin Paulsen heaved the shot a mighty 54 feet to spark the Dynos in that division. Jerry Saulvester, G. H. S. broad jumper, consistently placed among the top three in most events with jumps at 21-4½. In the mile Gary Gould showed winning form and ran a dazzling 4:46.5 race.

JERRY SAULVESTER, one of the Dynos finest varsity broad jumpers, leaps into space in preparation for the Hoover Tornadoes.

THE DYNOS have once again shown the spirit and determination that has been synonymous with Glendale High since its beginning. Although it looks doubtful that the Glendale Varsity track team will figure in the league winnings, the Dynamiters have maintained a record that is virtually untouched in the history of Foothill League track. This record is the best of any team in the Foothill League. But with all the great men Glendale has produced in this field one fact stands out above all; it is not what you win but how you win it. Everywhere the spikesters compete they receive the full respect of their opponents. This admiration is due to the fact that the cindermen never allow their ability to outweigh their sportsmanship and spirit.

RON WITHROW AND JERRY HELTZEL watch the motions of Cam Hughes and Bob Serin closely during a practice relay handoff.

B TRACK

BEE SPRINTER and weightman, John Murray, grimaces as he puts the shot.

IT APPEARS that the Glendale B track team has the Foothill League and possibly the C.I.F. wrapped up tighter than a drum. If the B spikesters continue performing as they have so far, they should be undisputed kings of the cinder. The B's have already run away with first place honors in the Santa Barbara and Pasadena relays. B sprinter John Murray has run 10.1 seconds in the 100 yard dash and 22.7 in the 220. Other great B tracksters showing top performances are Steve Pirie, Roger Dalton, Rick Marshall, Jerry Liebersbach, Paul Filliger and Bill Szidak.

VARSDITY BASEBALL

AS THE STYLUS GOES TO PRESS, Coach Bill Gelsinger's Dynamiter baseball squad has a 3 win 2 loss record, with the team showing fast improvement. Last year's second string all C.I.F. pitcher, Darrell Sutherland, is just rounding into shape after being named C.I.F. basketball player of the year. Because of the long basketball season, "Suds" has not been working out with the rest of the team. Sutherland looked very good against Hoover allowing only two earned runs. Glendale edged out the Tornadoes by a score of 6-5 in a very exciting 9th inning. Hoover started the inning in the lead, 5 to 3. However, the Purples walked four batters in a row, thus scoring one run for Glendale. At this point, first baseman Tim Vezie batted a well-tagged single to right center, scoring two more runs, and making the final tally.

BOB HENSLER HESITATES on a pitch that does not quite appeal to him.

BESIDES THE EXCELLENT COACHING of Bill Gelsinger, the Dynos also have many outstanding performers. Among these are Slugger, Doug Stringer; Shortstop, Dennis Simila; Third Baseman, Carlisle George; First baseman, Tim Vezie; Pitcher, Darrell Sutherland, and pitcher, Don Hagen. Backed by a strong squad, these athletes should lead their team to the Foothill League crown and possibly the C.I.F. Championship.

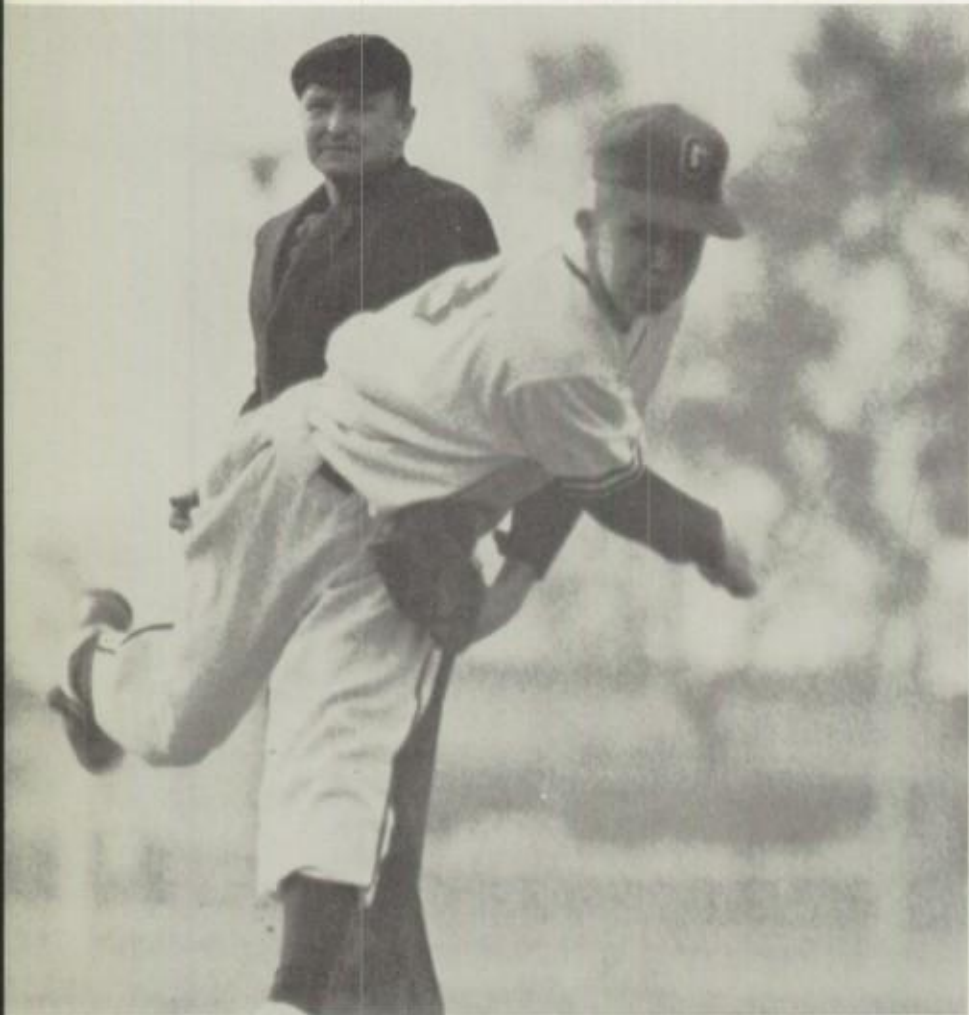

COACH BILL GELSINGER GIVES POINTERS on bunting to three of the teams top players, Dennis Simila, Carlisle George, and Doug Stringer.

FIRST BASEMAN TIM VEZIE scoops one out of the dirt just in time for the put-out.

J.V. BASEBALL

SHAPING UP VERY WELL with their 4-1 record is Coach Leo Arranaga's Junior Varsity baseball squad. Their only loss so far this season came at the hands of the Burbank Bulldogs. Dan Curtis, Ron Boyer, and Pitcher Larry Johnson are sparking the team to what might be another Foothill League crown. Solid hitting by Boyer and Curtis backed up by a strong squad, show a definite threat to all they encounter.

J.V. STRIKEOUT KING, Larry Johnson, fires one in during the Hoover game.

A SQUEEZE PLAY is performed by Gary Callies and Dan Curtis.

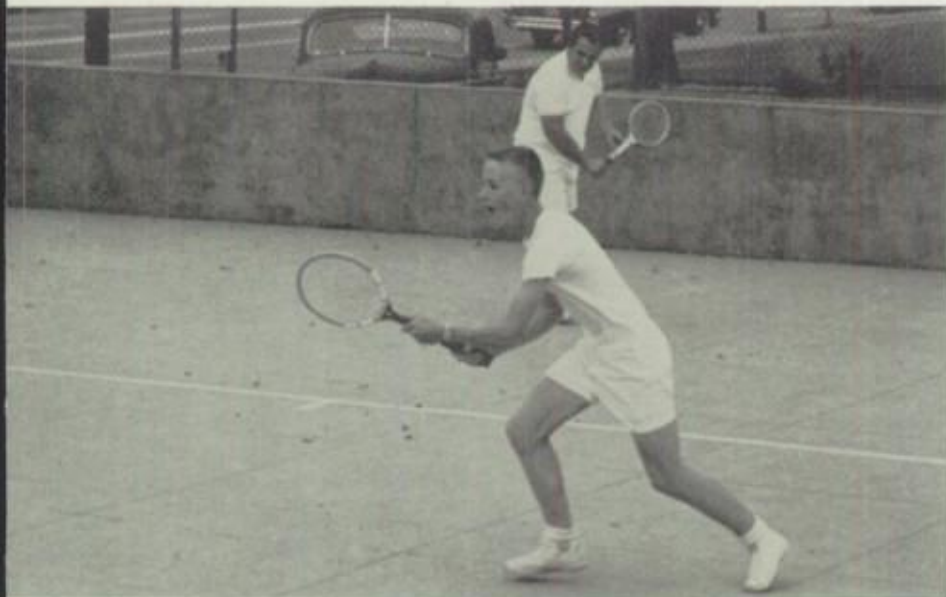

A HOOVER BATTER CONNECTS, but he flies out to deep left field.

STEVE HUNTER takes one inside for a ball, and almost a free ride to first base.

TENNIS

THIS YEAR'S VARSITY TENNIS SQUAD is led by Sophomore Dave Reed. Reed, who is rated with the best in Southern California, is as strong or stronger than last year's tennis great, Wayne Collett. Larry Weeshoff, number two man, would probably be number one man on any other team in Foothill League, according to Coach Gene Haas. The Dynos top competition this year is a strong Pasadena squad which downed the Nitros early in the season. Haas also stated that it was definitely a race between Glendale and Pasadena for Foothill League, with the Dynos chances being excellent.

HAROLD PETERSON AND ARVID RONNFELDT warm up in a doubles practice match on the Glendale concrete.

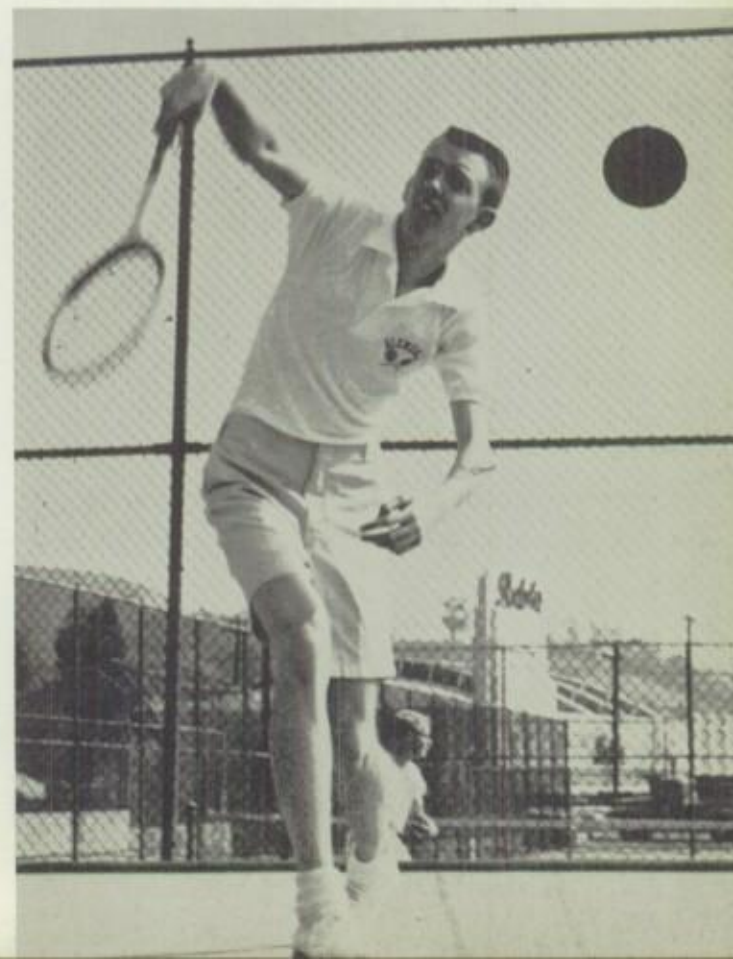

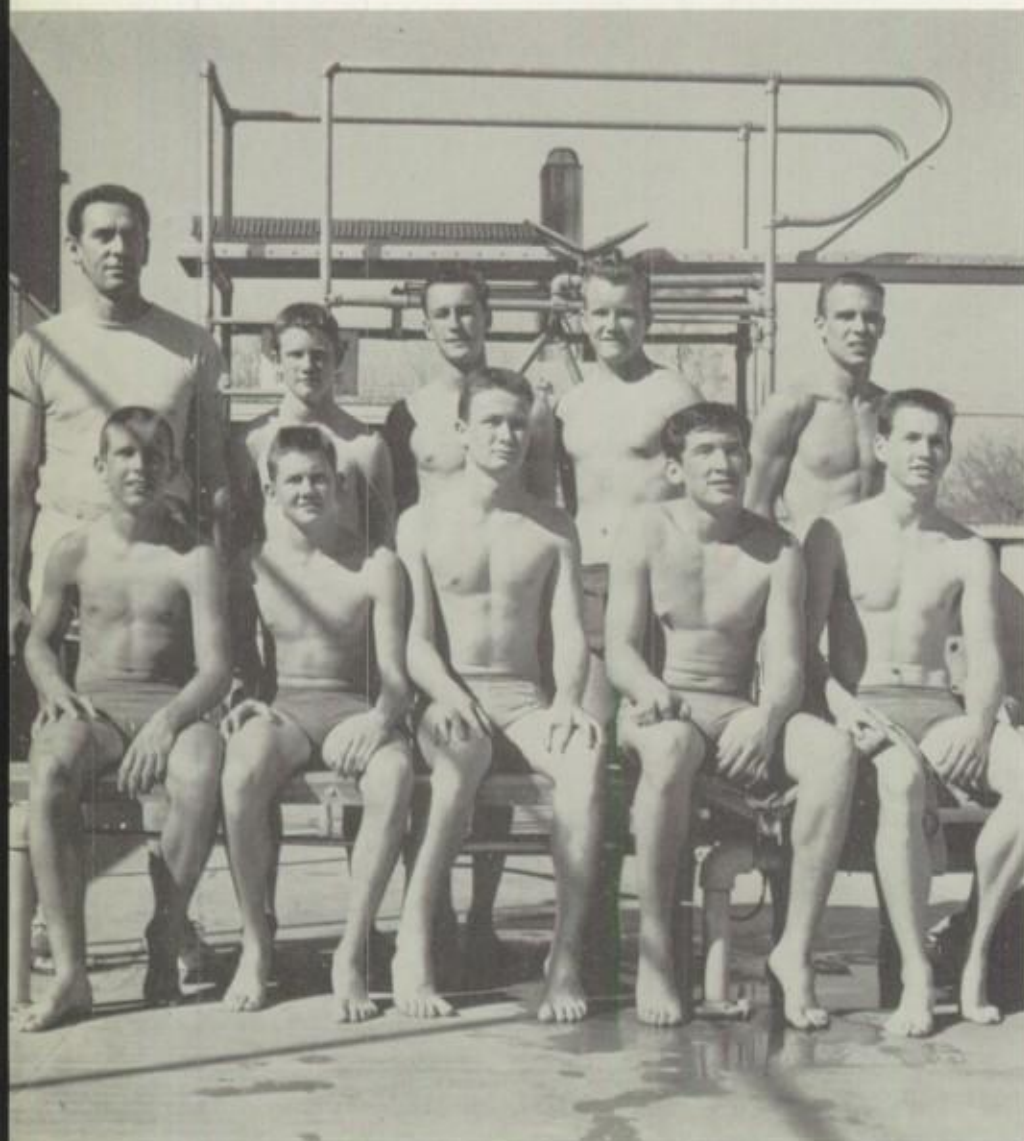

COACH GENE HAAS gives some pointers to the squad's number one man Dave Reed.

LARRY WEESHOFF, one of the strongest number two singles men in the League, shows his fine serve.

THE VARSITY DIVING TEAM, Row 1: Don Zinke, Charles Watson, Ron McVey, Robert Anderson, Ron Whitfield. Standing: Coach Cliff Hooper, Cecil Cunningham, Ron Frazier, Barry March, John De Bey.

THE VARSITY SWIM TEAM exploded for its second successive Foothill League crown. The Dynos, sweeping all three divisions, had no trouble in defeating all of their loop foes. The Red and Black were led in the varsity division by Captain Jim Baugh, swimming in the 200 yard free and 100 backstroke events. Champion of the butterfly event was senior Booth Hartley, who streaked to a 58.6 second clocking. Other top Varsity aquamen were Joel Kotin, Bill Lycett, Ralph Powers, and Vance Bennett.

HEAD SWIMMING COACH Ranier DeMandel and Coach Bill Chunn.

A GRACEFUL jackknife is performed by Ron McVey before the spectators' watchful eyes.

THE BEES are, Row 1: Val Le Clercq, Gary Williamson, Bill Giles, Bob Lidell, Rockne Dudolph, Bob Christianson, Jim Davies. Row 2: Ted Anderson, Dick Schultz, Kent Graham, Don Plusch, Lee Haltgren, Steve Stone, Linn Hoadley, Mike Howard, Steve Williams, Bob Schultz, Gary Kline, Hank Grigsby, Darryl Thomander, John Pope, Wayne Apgar, Larry Patton.

C SWIMMING

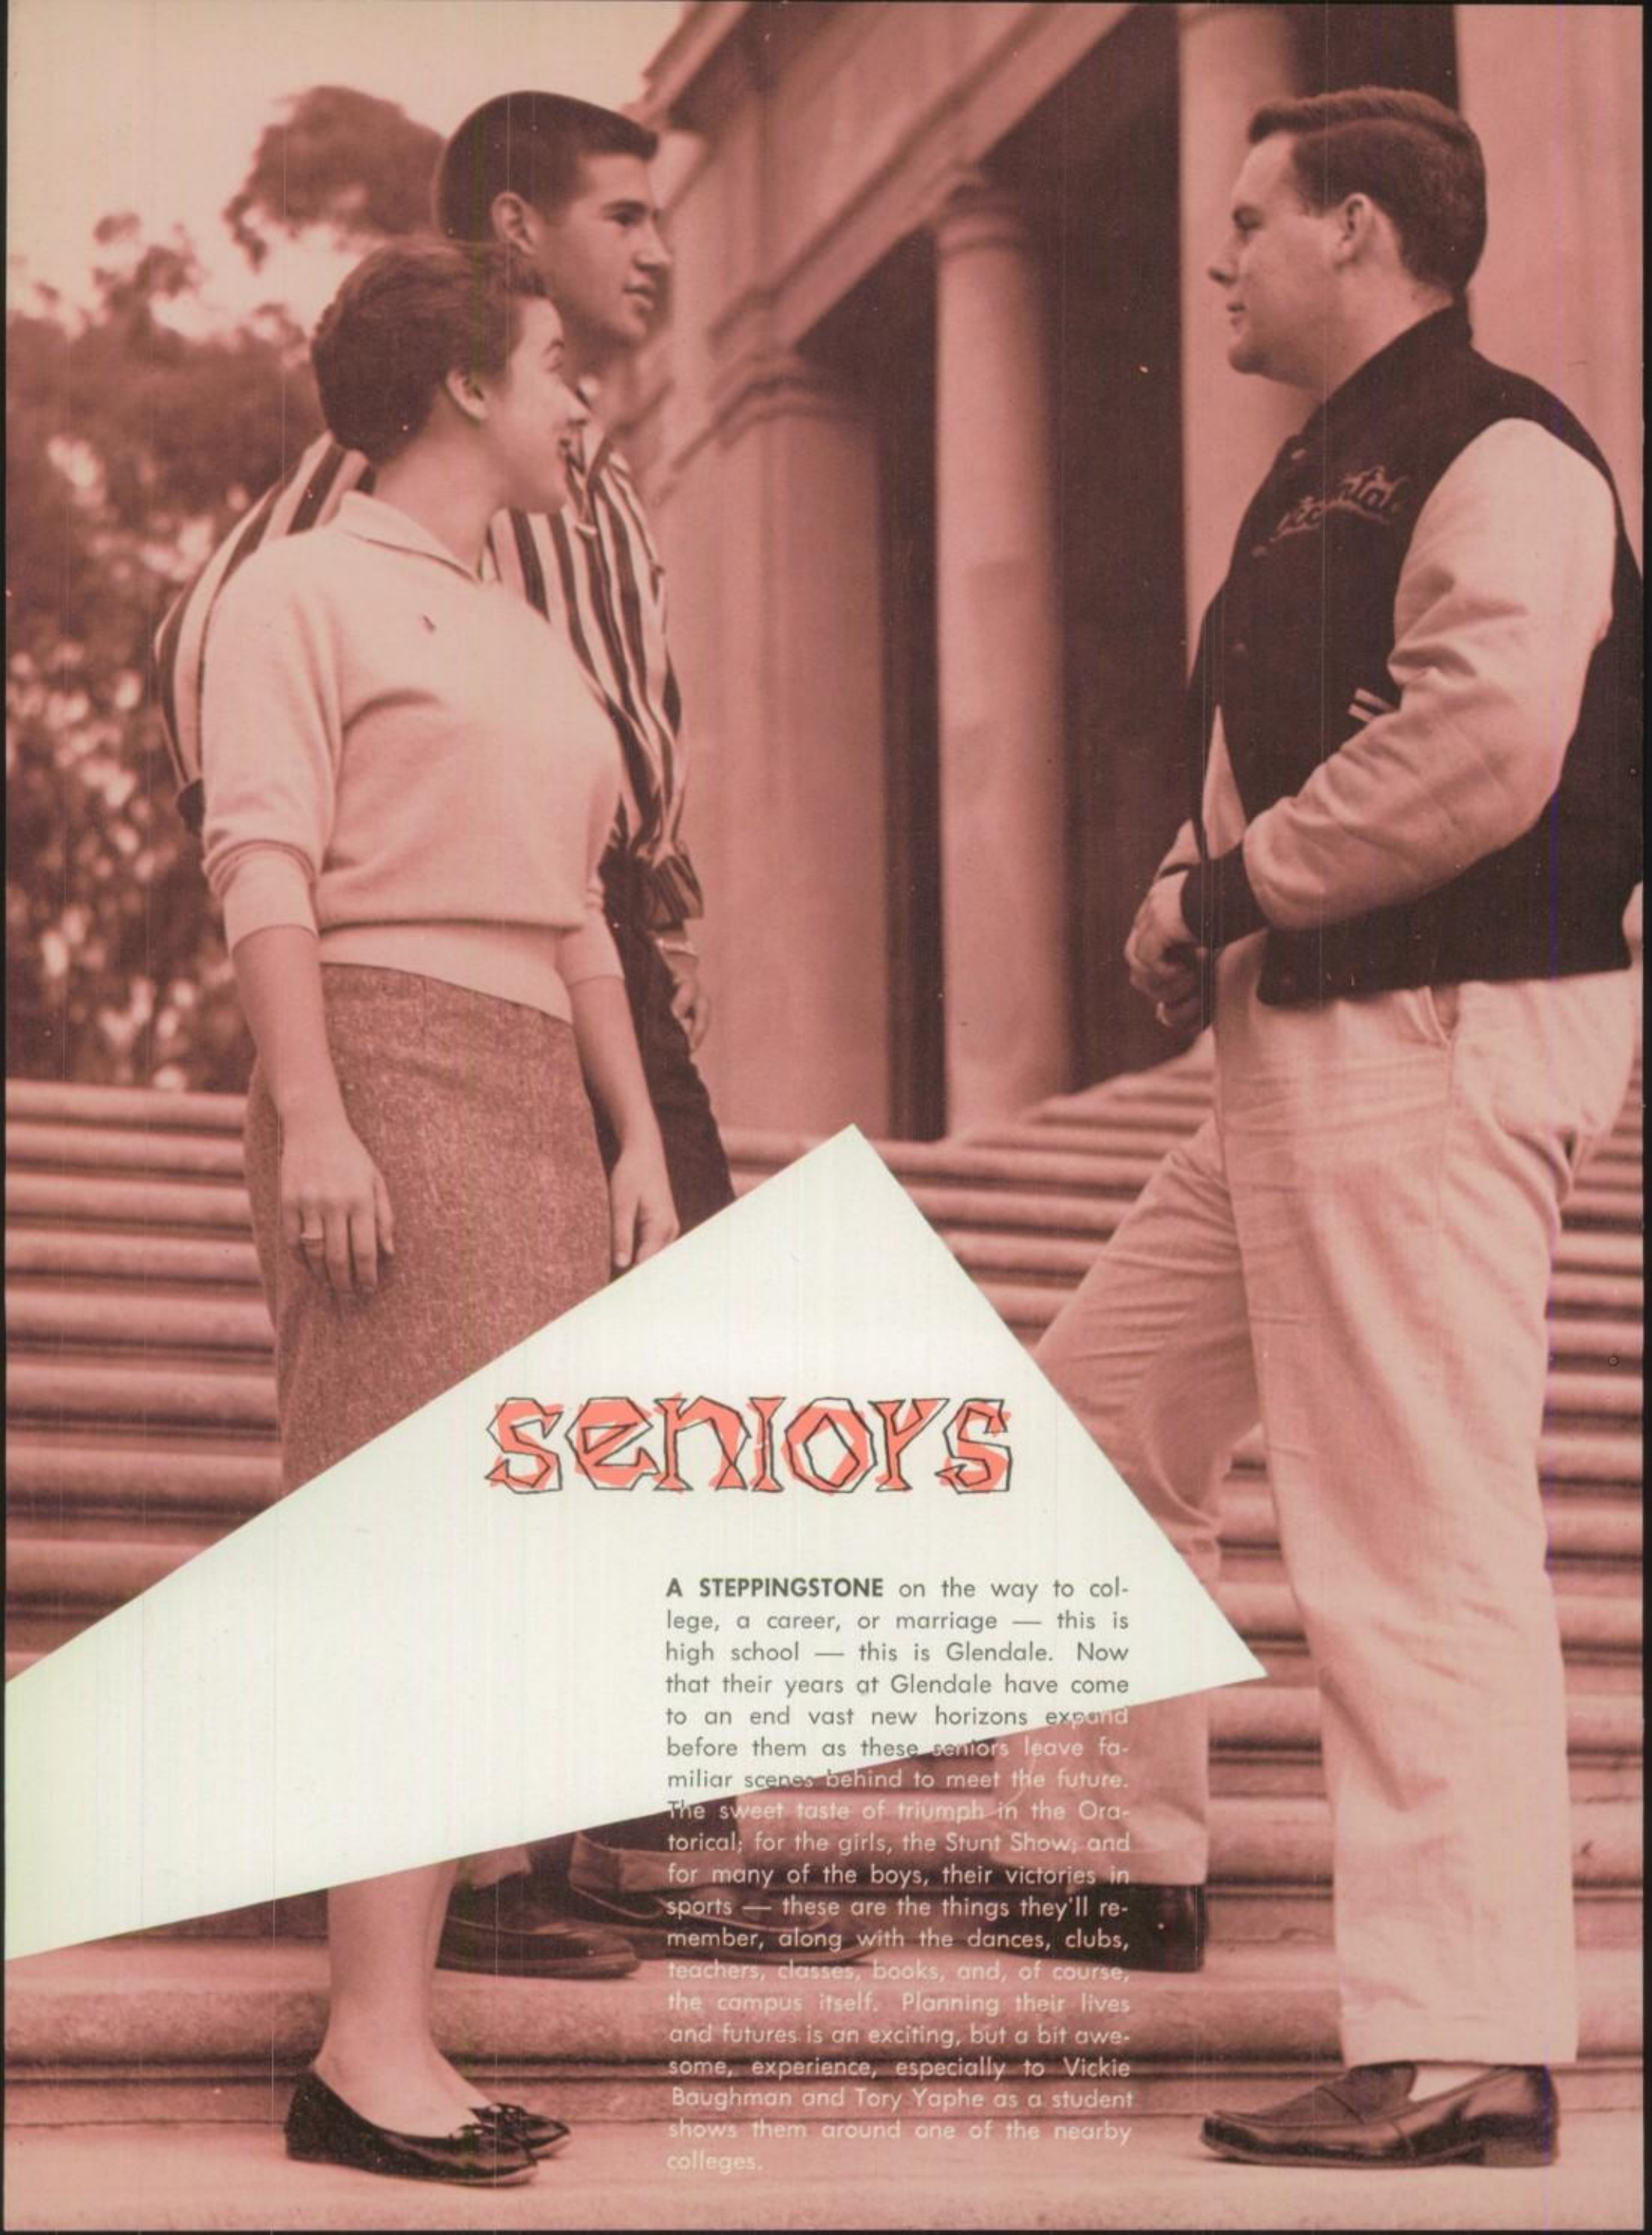

THIS YEAR GLENDALE PRODUCED a top star who ranked high in CIF swimming, Nick Schoenmann. Nick so far has set three unofficial CIF records in free style events. Besides Schoenmann, the C squad was led by Captain Mike Towles, Mike Boyle, Peter Rusch, Don Schirmer, Ruffin Ring, and Dave Wilms. Once again the Cees captured the Foothill League crown.

THE CEE SWIM TEAM, Row 1: Don Schirmer, Dave Wilms, Pete Rusch, Roger Rudolph, Ryan Parkes, Blake Smith, Steve Stewart. Row 2: Mike Towles, Bob McGhie, Nick Scheonmann, Ruffin Ring, Mike Boyle, Dave Snell, Roy Lycett.

SENIORS

A STEPPINGSTONE on the way to college, a career, or marriage — this is high school — this is Glendale. Now that their years at Glendale have come to an end vast new horizons expand before them as these seniors leave familiar scenes behind to meet the future. The sweet taste of triumph in the Oratorical; for the girls, the Stunt Show; and for many of the boys, their victories in sports — these are the things they'll remember, along with the dances, clubs, teachers, classes, books, and, of course, the campus itself. Planning their lives and futures is an exciting, but a bit awesome, experience, especially to Vickie Baughman and Tory Yaphe as a student shows them around one of the nearby colleges.

SENIOR COUNCIL MEMBERS are, Row 1: Melinda Zemke, Janie Fisher, Linda Hoy, Carol Humiston, Sandy Murphy, Carolyn Ahlers, Cora Doty, Gail Ashcraft, Sandy McDougall, Virginia Poole, Pam Briley, Kathie Locke, Pat Goldthwaite, Jocey Delmonte, Connie Sontag. Row 2: Dave Beckett, Jesse McGinty, Connie Cooper, Karen Deacon, Pat Stoval, Carolyn Hoop, Charlotte McCullough,

CO-ORDINATORS OF THE SENIOR CLASS

Sandy, I greatly enjoyed knowing you the past year. I hope you had a great time. Best to a great girl. Love, Sandy

THE SENIOR COUNCIL, composed of the class officers and one representative from each American government and senior problems class, met weekly to keep the business of the Senior Class running smoothly. Securing a company to print announcements, planning for the senior prom, the senior party, the senior banquet and deciding upon a class gift were among the council's activities. The representative reports the council's actions to his class and takes back to the council any ideas from his class. When an activity has been planned, any Senior may sign up through his representative to work on it. Through the co-operation and participation of the entire class the council has been an active representation of all Glendale's seniors.

CLASS YELL LEADER Clay Crowley explains the routine he intends to use in the Oratorical to Mr. Dudley Graham, class advisor.

DISCUSSING LAST MINUTE PLANS for the Senior Prom are class officers Jocey Delmonte, treasurer; Sandy Murphy, song leader; Kathie Locke, secretary; Pat Pearson, vice-president, and Barry Bottrell, president.

AS THE FINAL DEADLINE ROLLS AROUND, my staff and I prepare to pack our old layouts and dummies, cover our one battered typewriter that we've been pounding to death all year (the one which we always hoped would multiply into about five or six more, but which never did) and generally straighten our headquarters in 311. Although the '59 Stylus is complete, there are many more Styluses to come, and as soon as we move on to new challenges, another staff will replace us and start a new book where we left off. In producing a yearbook so many emotions are involved (from fun to complete frustration) that when it's done, it's hard to express anything . . . except thanks. Mine go first to my advisor, Mr. Bill Graham, who gave me support and encouragement (in spite of all his efforts I never did change from an idealist to a realist). Next on my list is my staff. Changes in personel are almost inevitable in every organization and the Stylus was no exception, but to everyone who helped on the staff all I can say is . . . thanks, you really did a terrific job! Also, I would like to extend special thank-you to . . . our publishers, Yearbooks, Incorporated of Monrovia, who have been so patient and given us so much assistance. . . . Dunlap and Turner for the Senior Section . . . Phil Clark, our custodian . . . Mr. Homer Livermore and the secretaries he sent to us . . . and, of course, all my teachers (who often must have wondered whether I was still enrolled in their classes or not).

There are many more deserving thanks, but I'll have to sign off here, for the list (like the endless procession of yearbooks and yearbook staffs) goes on . . . ad infinitum.

Penne Freebairn, EDITOR

AD INFINITUM

Sandy - After all these years it seems like we're about to part but only for a short while I hope. I wish you the very best in the future.

Bob Stebbins P.S. remember junior high - Mr. Johnson - our little fights. It's all been great!

SANDY—

I AM GLAD SCHOOL IS OUT NOW BUT THERE IS ONLY ONE DRAWBACK— NO MORE SEEING YOU EVERY DAY WITH ALL YOUR COMFORT AND UNDERSTANDING. I THANK YOU FOR LISTENING TO ALL OF MY TROUBLES AND GIVING ME THE SUPPORT I NEEDED. I HOPE THAT WE CAN HAVE FUN AGAIN THIS SUMMER AS WE HAVE SO FAR. IF I GO AWAY THIS SUMMER I WILL BE THINKING ABOUT YOU AND REMEMBERING ALL THE FINE THINGS WE DID LIKE THE PROM AND YOUR PARTY. IF WE SHOULD EVER WANDER APART I WOULD LIKE TO BE YOUR FRIEND FOREVER. THANK YOU FOR GETTING ON ME ABOUT MY HISTORY FOR IT MAY HAVE SAVED ME. I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER YOU AS YOU WERE ON THIS BOOK + BAGGAGE DAY ~~ES~~, THE DAY WE HAD SO MUCH FUN. IT WAS THE BEST ~~DAY~~ ^{DAY} I HAD. I GUESS ALL THAT I HAVE SAID ABOVE CAN BE SUMMED UP IN THREE WORDS— I LOVE YOU. I OF ALL PEOPLE WOULD LIKE TO WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK IN COLLEGE AND IN THE REST OF YOUR LIFE. TO ANSWER YOUR QUESTION AS WHY I THINK YOU ARE DIFFERENT— YOU ARE THE MOST WONDERFUL GIRL A GUY COULD EVER HAVE, YOU SEEM TO HAVE TIME FOR EVERYTHING AND HAVE MANY FRIENDS YOU FIT IN EVERYWHERE YOU GO NO MATTER WHAT YOU DO. I MUST CLOSE NOW FOR LACK OF ROOM ONLY. PLEASE REMEMBER ME — Love,

Sandy -
 It has been a really wonderful friendship having a friend for so many years. I hope it will continue forever. I to sit and think back on all the fun we've had since the seventh grade. Also all our talks about different problems. I like we did always agree. I'll never forget the time you were writing a book. Boy, was that ever funny. Also all our fun with the quip in Burdo. I'm sure you'll do real well. I want to wish you all the possible luck in everything your attempt. It seems kind of sad to think that these is our last year in high school. I'm sure we'll never lose contact with each other even though we may go different directions. I know we'll have a blast this summer.
 Love,
 Linda

Sandy
 Through the course of one year you have in my opinion earned a little about life as you can properly attest to. This small knowledge to add to
 is the way I will remember you. I wish you for being part of the best year in my life and if I could this much with help as I years I may be worthy of a girl as swell as you or Dianne.

Sandy -
 It has been great to know and a cute girl with a wonderful personality as 4 Oct. It has been wonderful to know you in High School and The Best of Luck always in the future in everything you do.
 Love,
 Sandy

Sandy -
 I've enjoyed every minute these last few years that I've known you, both in church and in school. Miss Ahl's class I will especially remember, I couldn't forget! all the luck in the world to you in college and the years after.
 Sincerely,
 Denny Simila
